JAMES SHURMAN

James,

You are very strong,
but don't mind. You helped me with Spontaneous

But

(Allen Putnam 50, 13)

P.S. Keep buying Andre Norton

James,

I enjoy being your friend and being a round you. You are a lot of fun.

Debra.

God Bless you.
Good luck
in the future

James,
you a nice guy & I'm sorry
I didn't write a suicide note for you.
Good luck especially in track.

James,
You really are a competitor and with your attitude
you will go far next season.
I'm glad I had you in bookkeeping cause your good but I'm going to beat you!
Be good this summer & work hard

Good Luck

Dward Vatter

James Seems funny
today to say Wish I could have joined track and cross country with you - but I enjoyed your company in moving. a friend indeed keep on moving. Jim Lewis.

James,
Well, biometry has at least been lively and exciting with you.
Good luck in track.
Pat

James,
I really enjoyed running with you this year. It was great! I really have to look up to you as an athlete. Next year will be good.
your friend
Mickey Schon

James
Someday you will learn not to hit me so hard!
Good luck in track
I'll come to see you next year if you promise to call me when you run at O.U. You really are a wonderful person! Love
Susan Dilligworth

James,
If I ever get in a truck with you again
I hope we flip twice!!
I'll be twice as much fun.
Kevin K.

James,

We have really had fun since I've known you. We are both a little crazy maybe that's why we get along so well,
Good Luck in cross-country next year I will support you as much as possible. Good luck!

GREG PETREE

James,
I really did enjoy your running with me this year. You really ran great! I don't mind if you break the miles two-mile records next year as long as you don't break my 3-mile record.
Billy

Mark Deering

Grandma,

I really don't know what to say.
You have helped me I believe more than any person. Thank you for always being kind to me when I wasn't to you. I wish you good luck in track and school. I wish you the best in everything you do. I'll always remember how you have helped me in everything. Track was extra fun because of you. I'll never forget you. Love ya always,

to accustomed places

The year that we all say goodbye-1972.

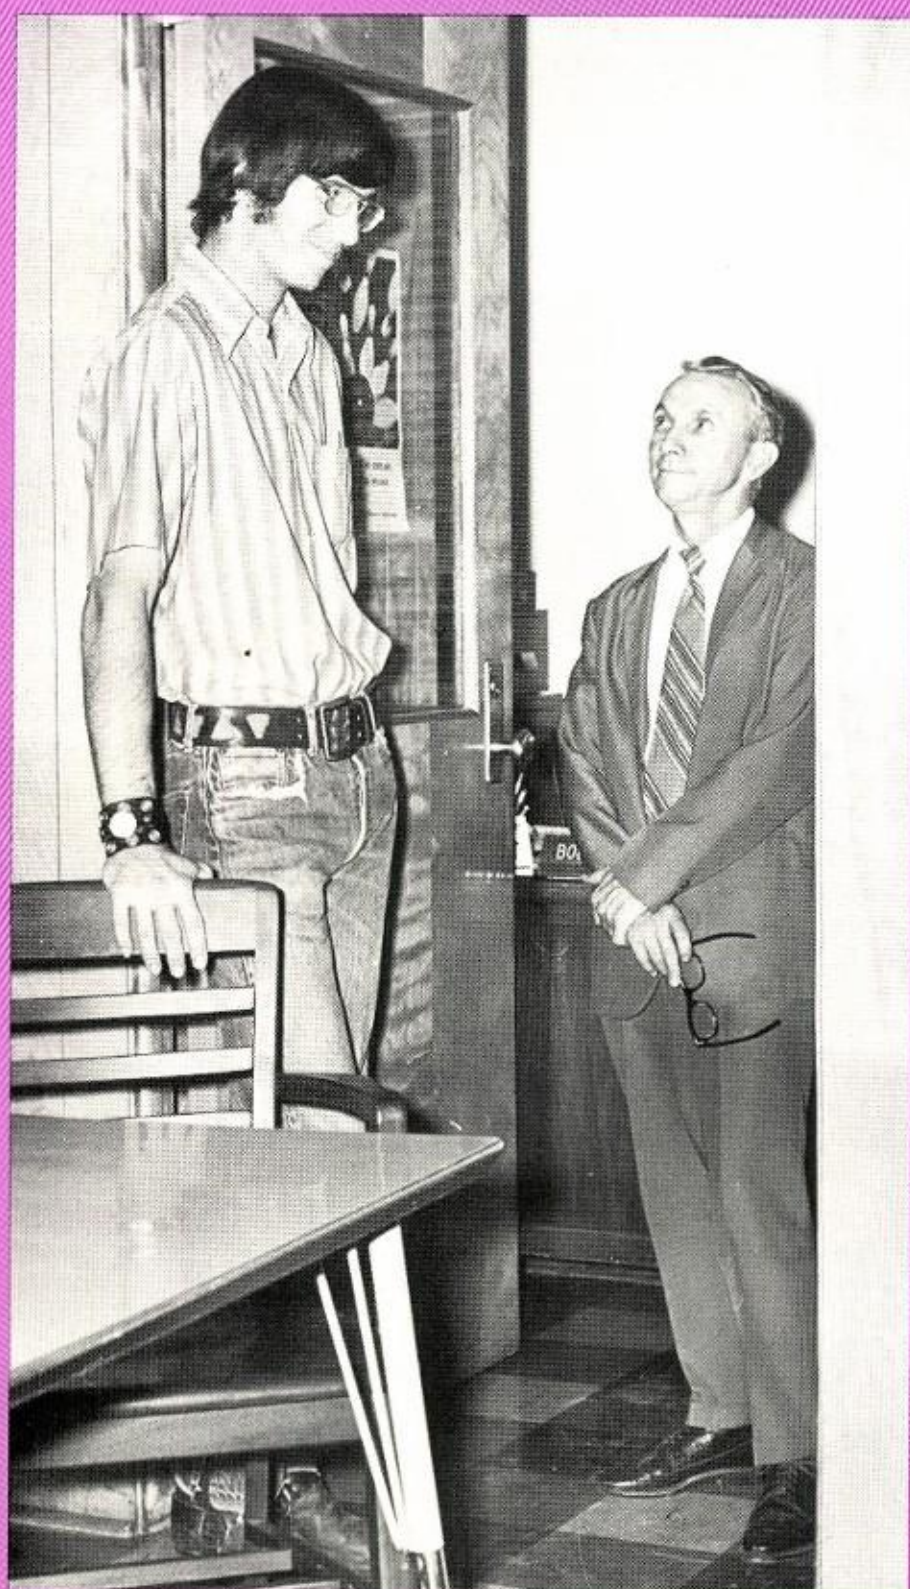

Of course the seniors leave. We say goodbye to all phases of high school life. We have spent the past three years here preparing ourselves for our futures. Now we depart to carry out these plans. However, we also wish to keep many of the things that we have established at this school, our friends, our sense of responsibility, and the pride which we have worked to build in ourselves.

But this year is unique because the seniors aren't the only ones going on to something new. The juniors and sophomores also spend their last year here. A dream for Shawnee in the past is now becoming a reality. A new high school is now being built behind Jim Thrope Stadium.

New ideas, traditions, and activities will also come. It is for the sake of the old ones that we all say goodbye...

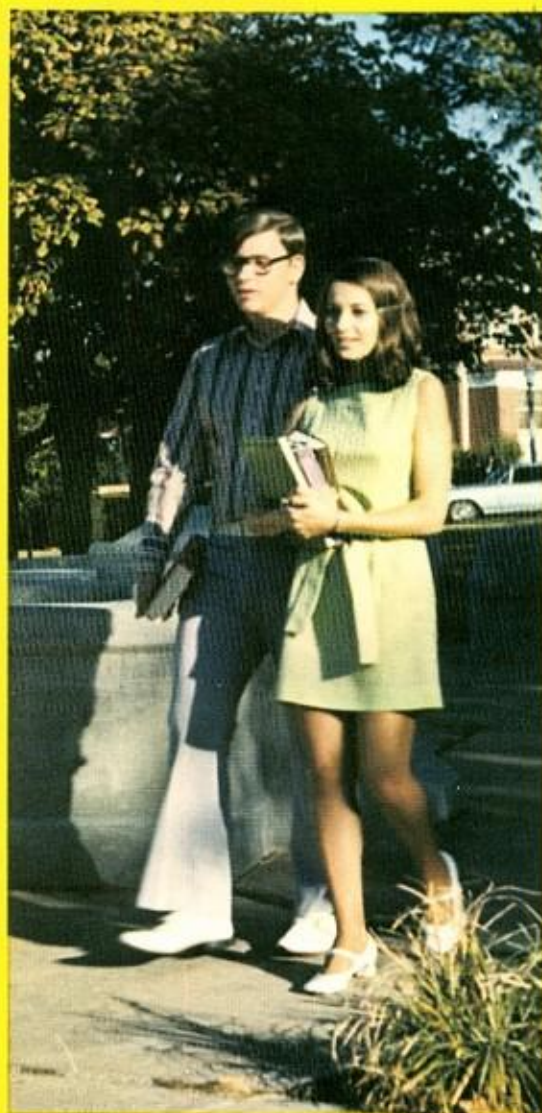

Each of us says
goodbye to the places to which we've become accustomed-

DENNIS PENSON is one of us who has visited Mr. Williams' office for various reasons; RANDY McALISTER, BARNEY O'TOOLE, MIKE FISHER, KEITH ABEL, and KEMP LAKE took time between classes for some conversation behind the gym; The cafeteria was a familiar gathering place at noon for MAEDIA WOLFE, JAMES BRISCOE, RACHEL CARVER, and MARY WILSON; MARK WHITE, GARY BRUTON, and DENNIS BROOKS found the library to be a vital part of their education; STEVE LONG grew accustomed to the SHS locker room as being another classroom; We all discovered the main hallway was the ideal spot for meeting before school.

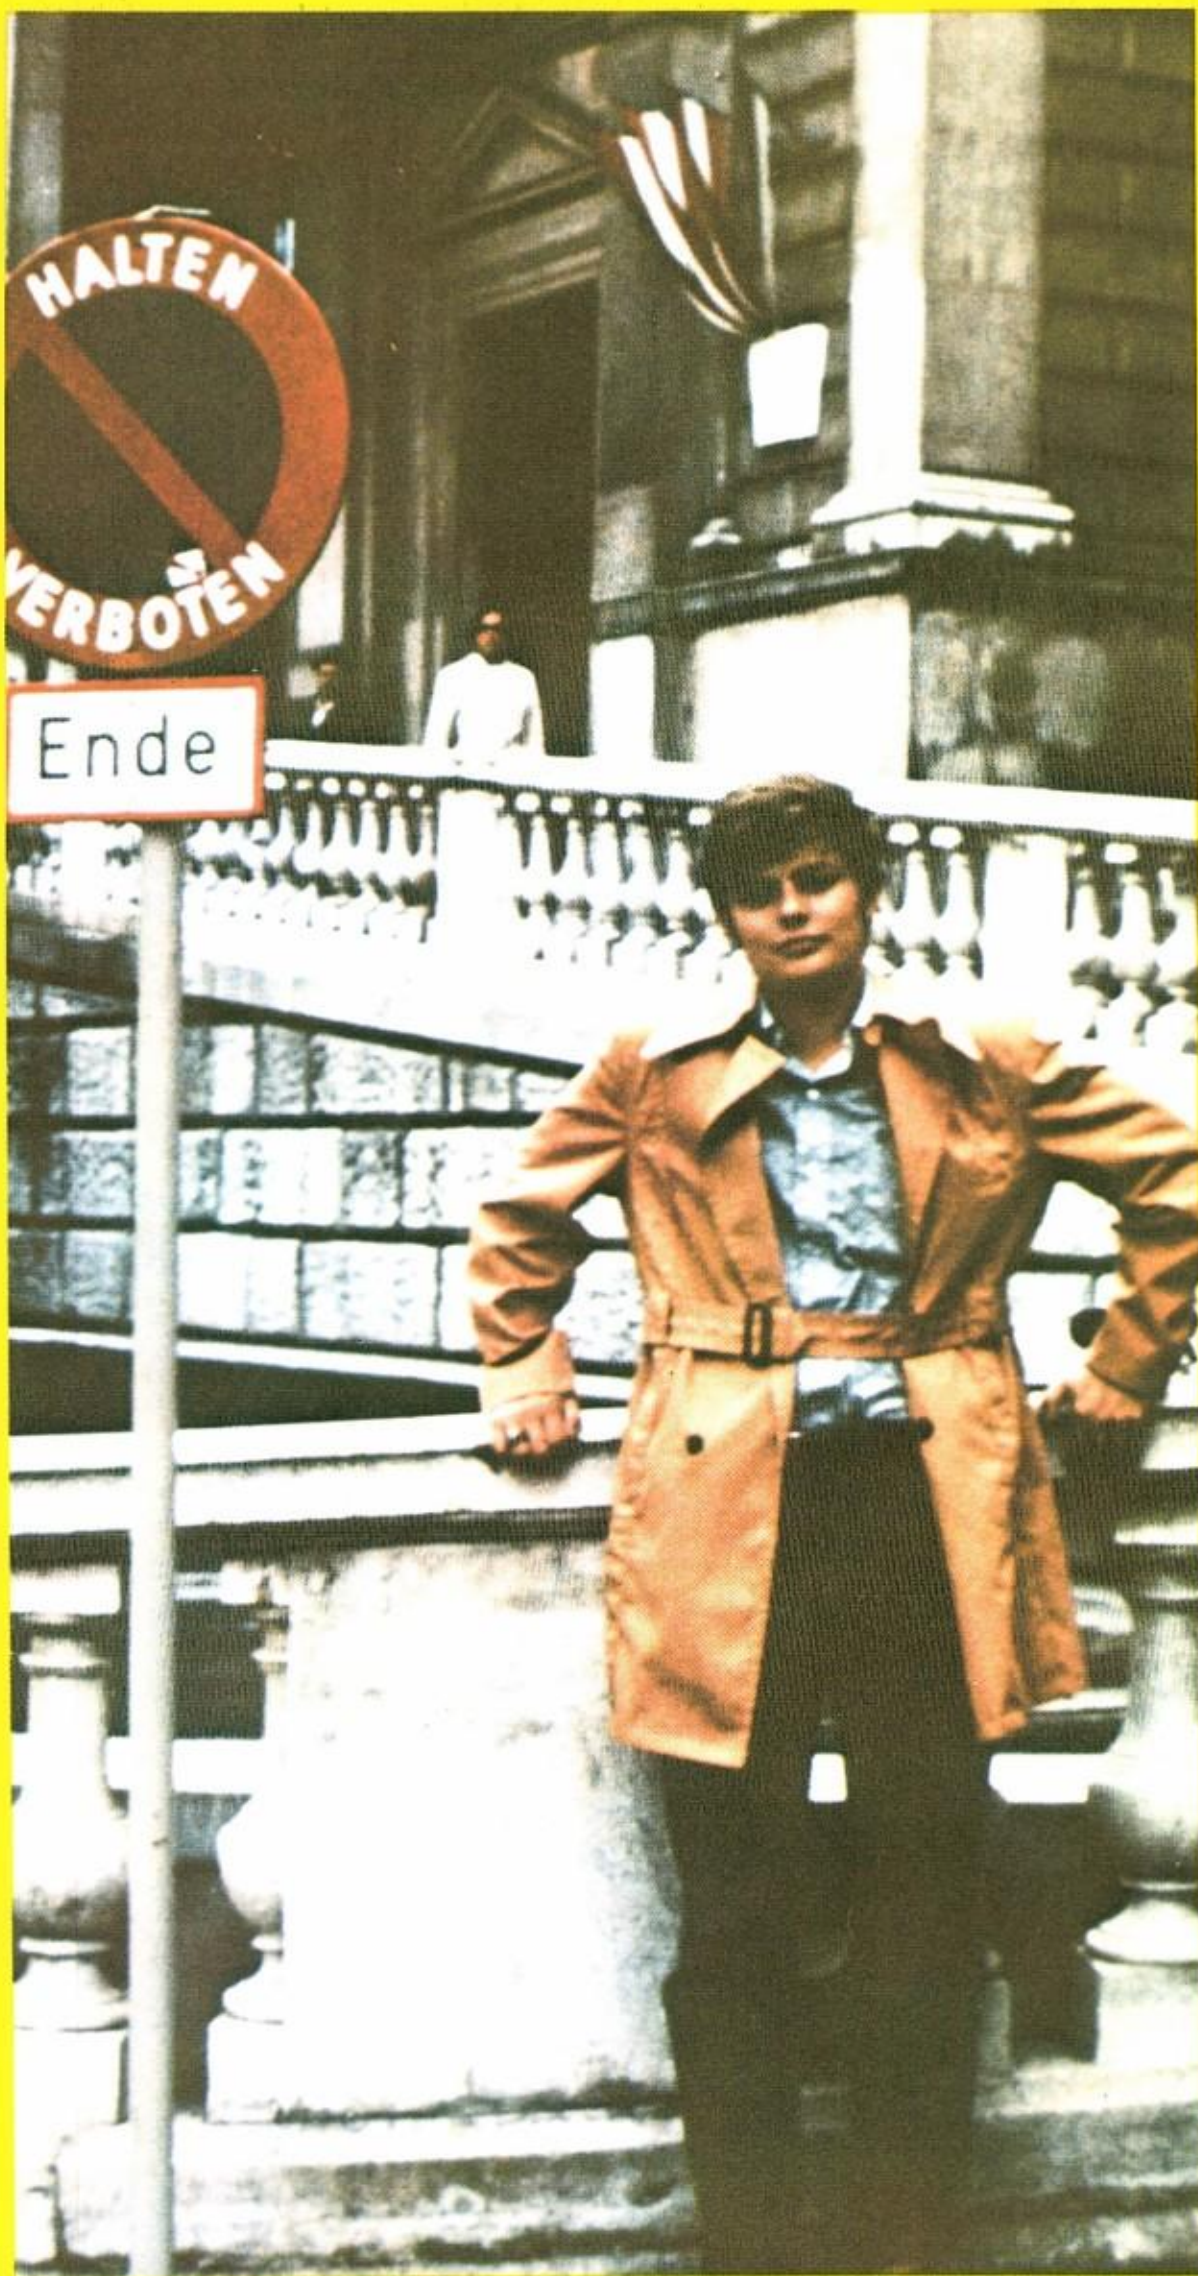

to a carefree summer

We say goodbye to the freedoms and responsibilities of a carefree summer-

The OBU campus was the scene for some like RICHARD ALEXANDER and NEVA FIEGAL who earned hours of college credit; JOHN JOHNSON received an award during the journalism session at OU; CAROL
NORTON, MRS.
WILLIAMSON, and MIGNON
ROGERS enjoyed a piece of cold watermelon after a swim; LARRY ERSLAND experienced living with a family as an exchange student in Austria; ROBERT MITCHELL and MINDY TERRELL helped to speed graduation by attending summer school; BILL WILSON took advantage of his time by selling clothes.

to classes we've known

All of us say goodbye to the classes we've been a part of-

Jerry Havens A2

Frances David A3

Paul Smith A4

Otto Krausse A5

Several Shawnee businessmen were guest speakers in the family living classes; MR. FITE assisted his drama students with their lines; MR. CRAIG often added a bit of humor to his sociology classes; DEBBIE PETERS and LAURIE SCHNEITER noted many observations in biology class; NELVA McELHANON returned a volley in her gym class; Signs to various classes were soon ignored as students grew accustomed to their daily routine; Band classes spent many hours secluded in the basement.

to familiar activities

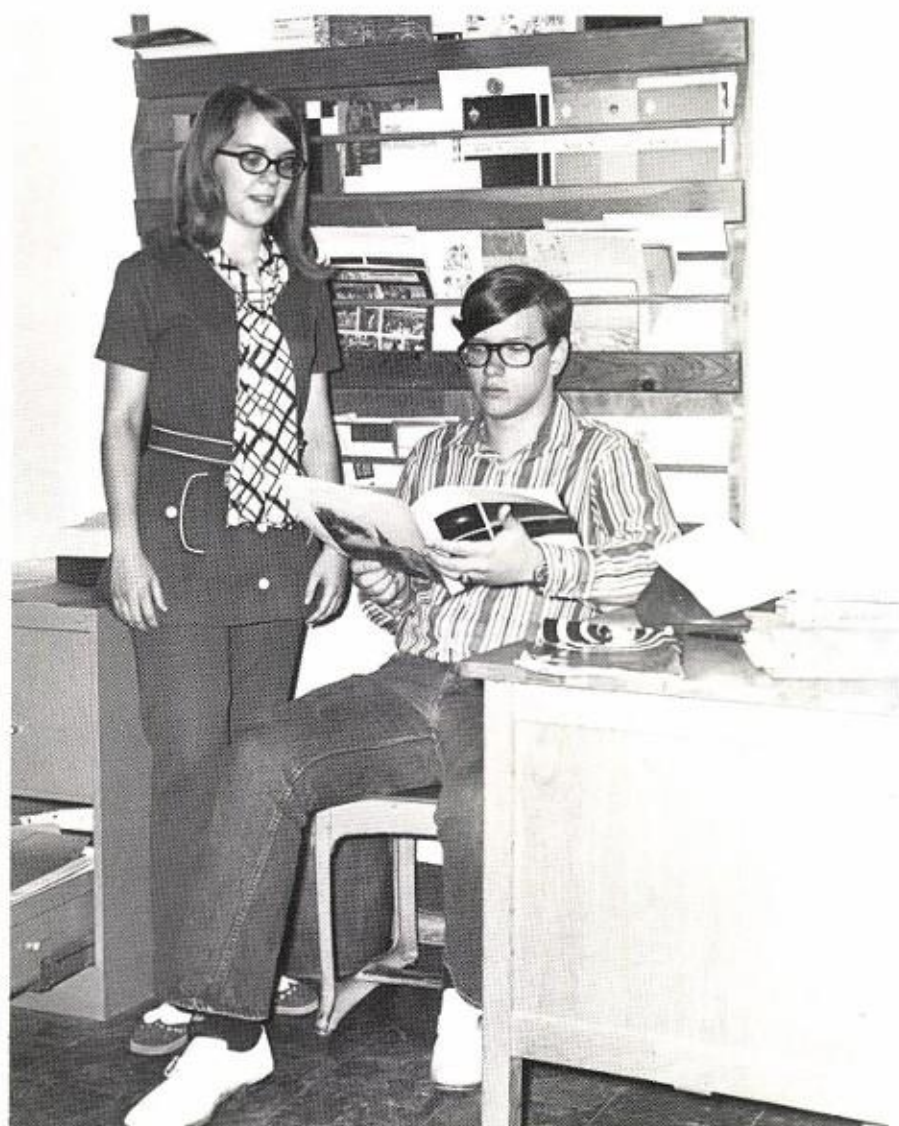

Each of us says
goodbye to our regular activities of the year-

Many SHS students participated in the annual parade before the Enid game; GAY WINTERRINGER and CLAUDIA HARP wrapped the goal-posts before each game; MIKE HARRIS and other S-Club members sold programs for football and basketball games; JANET SEGELL and MELANIE PETERS put up booster signs in the halls; LESLIE ROBINSON, CATHY HARRISON, and ANDY CARVER wore fashions that were allowed in this year's dress code, while JOE GUHL was told that tank tops still aren't acceptable; ROGER STEED, SUSY LYNN, MIGNON ROGERS, and JOHN JOHNSON spent the day skiing at Lake Eufala.

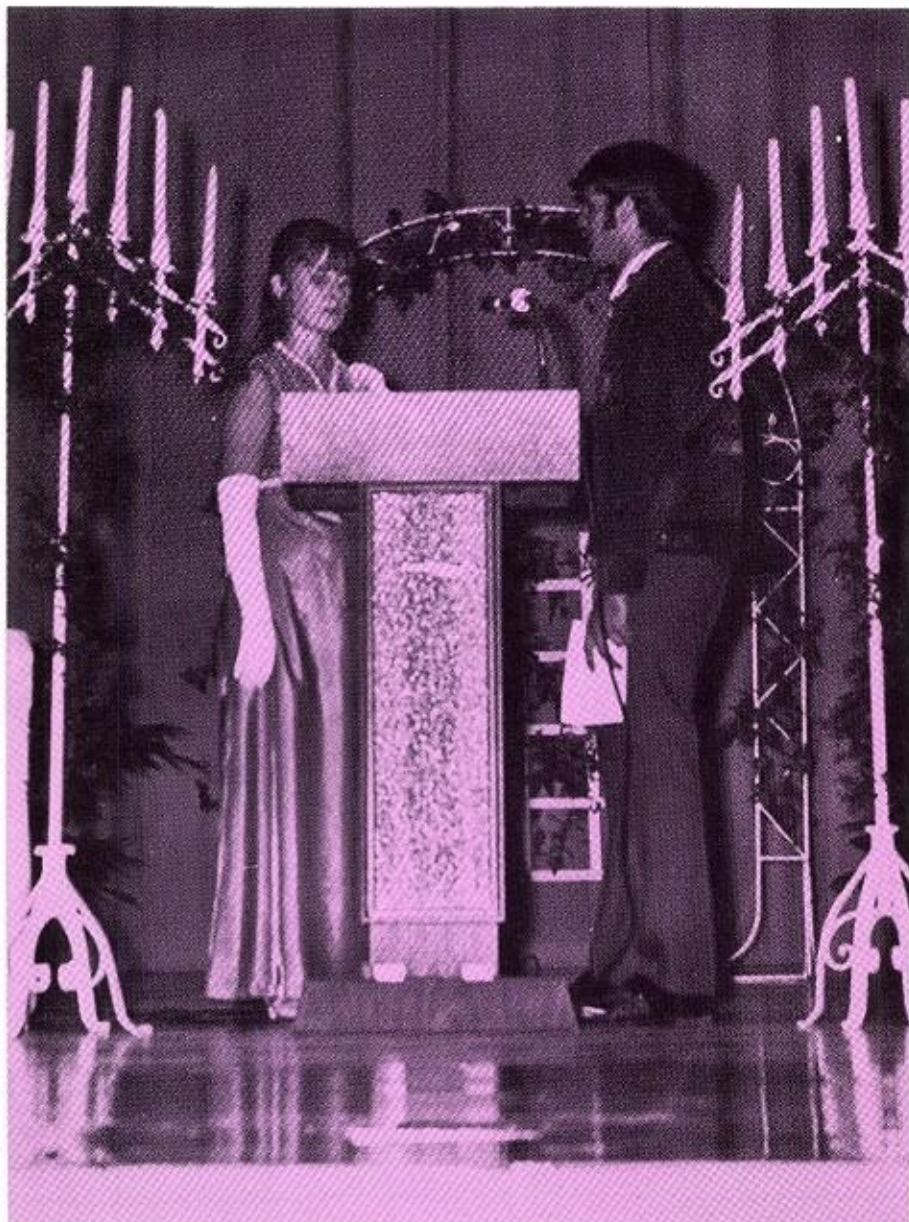

to positions of leadership

Each in his respective field says goodbye to his position of leadership.

CHARLES LASTER, student council president, who has planned the activities to keep our school involved; COY EVERETT whose quick decisions and execution kept alive Wolfpack drives; Being able to attend the college of their choice was the reward for the scholastic abilities of RICHARD ALEXANDER and CHARLOTTE JENNY; Boy's State members DOUG WALKER, BOB WEAVER, JOHN JOHNSON, ROBERT CAPPS and Girl's State representatives BETH FISHER, CAROL NORTON, SHAN BOWERS, and NEVA FIEGAL were concerned with Oklahoma's system of government; PAULA PRICE had the task of guiding the sophomore class through their first year; DIANA CROSS and LARRY GRAY represented those who have already planned their future in FHA and FFA.

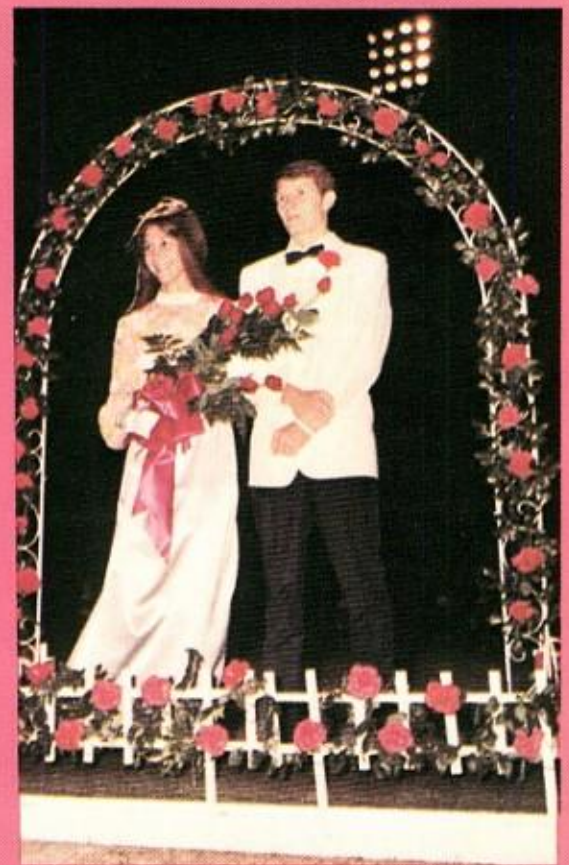

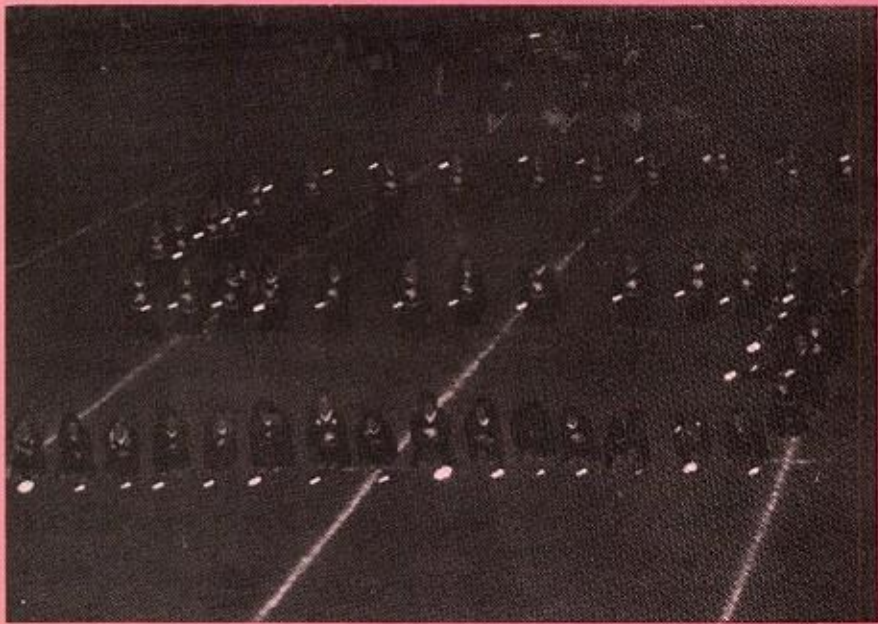

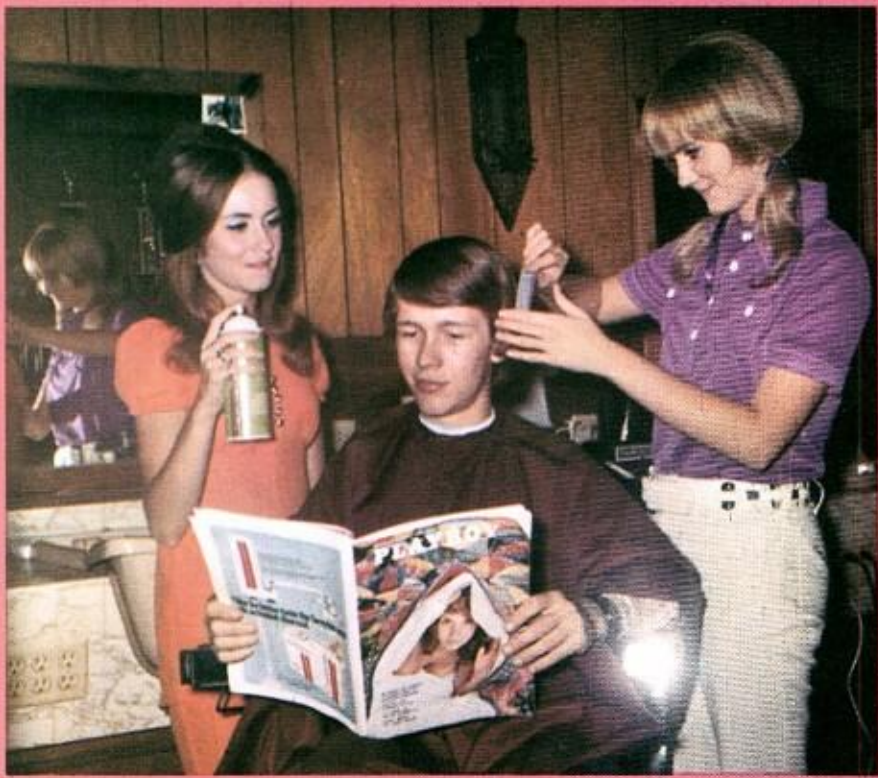

to old traditions

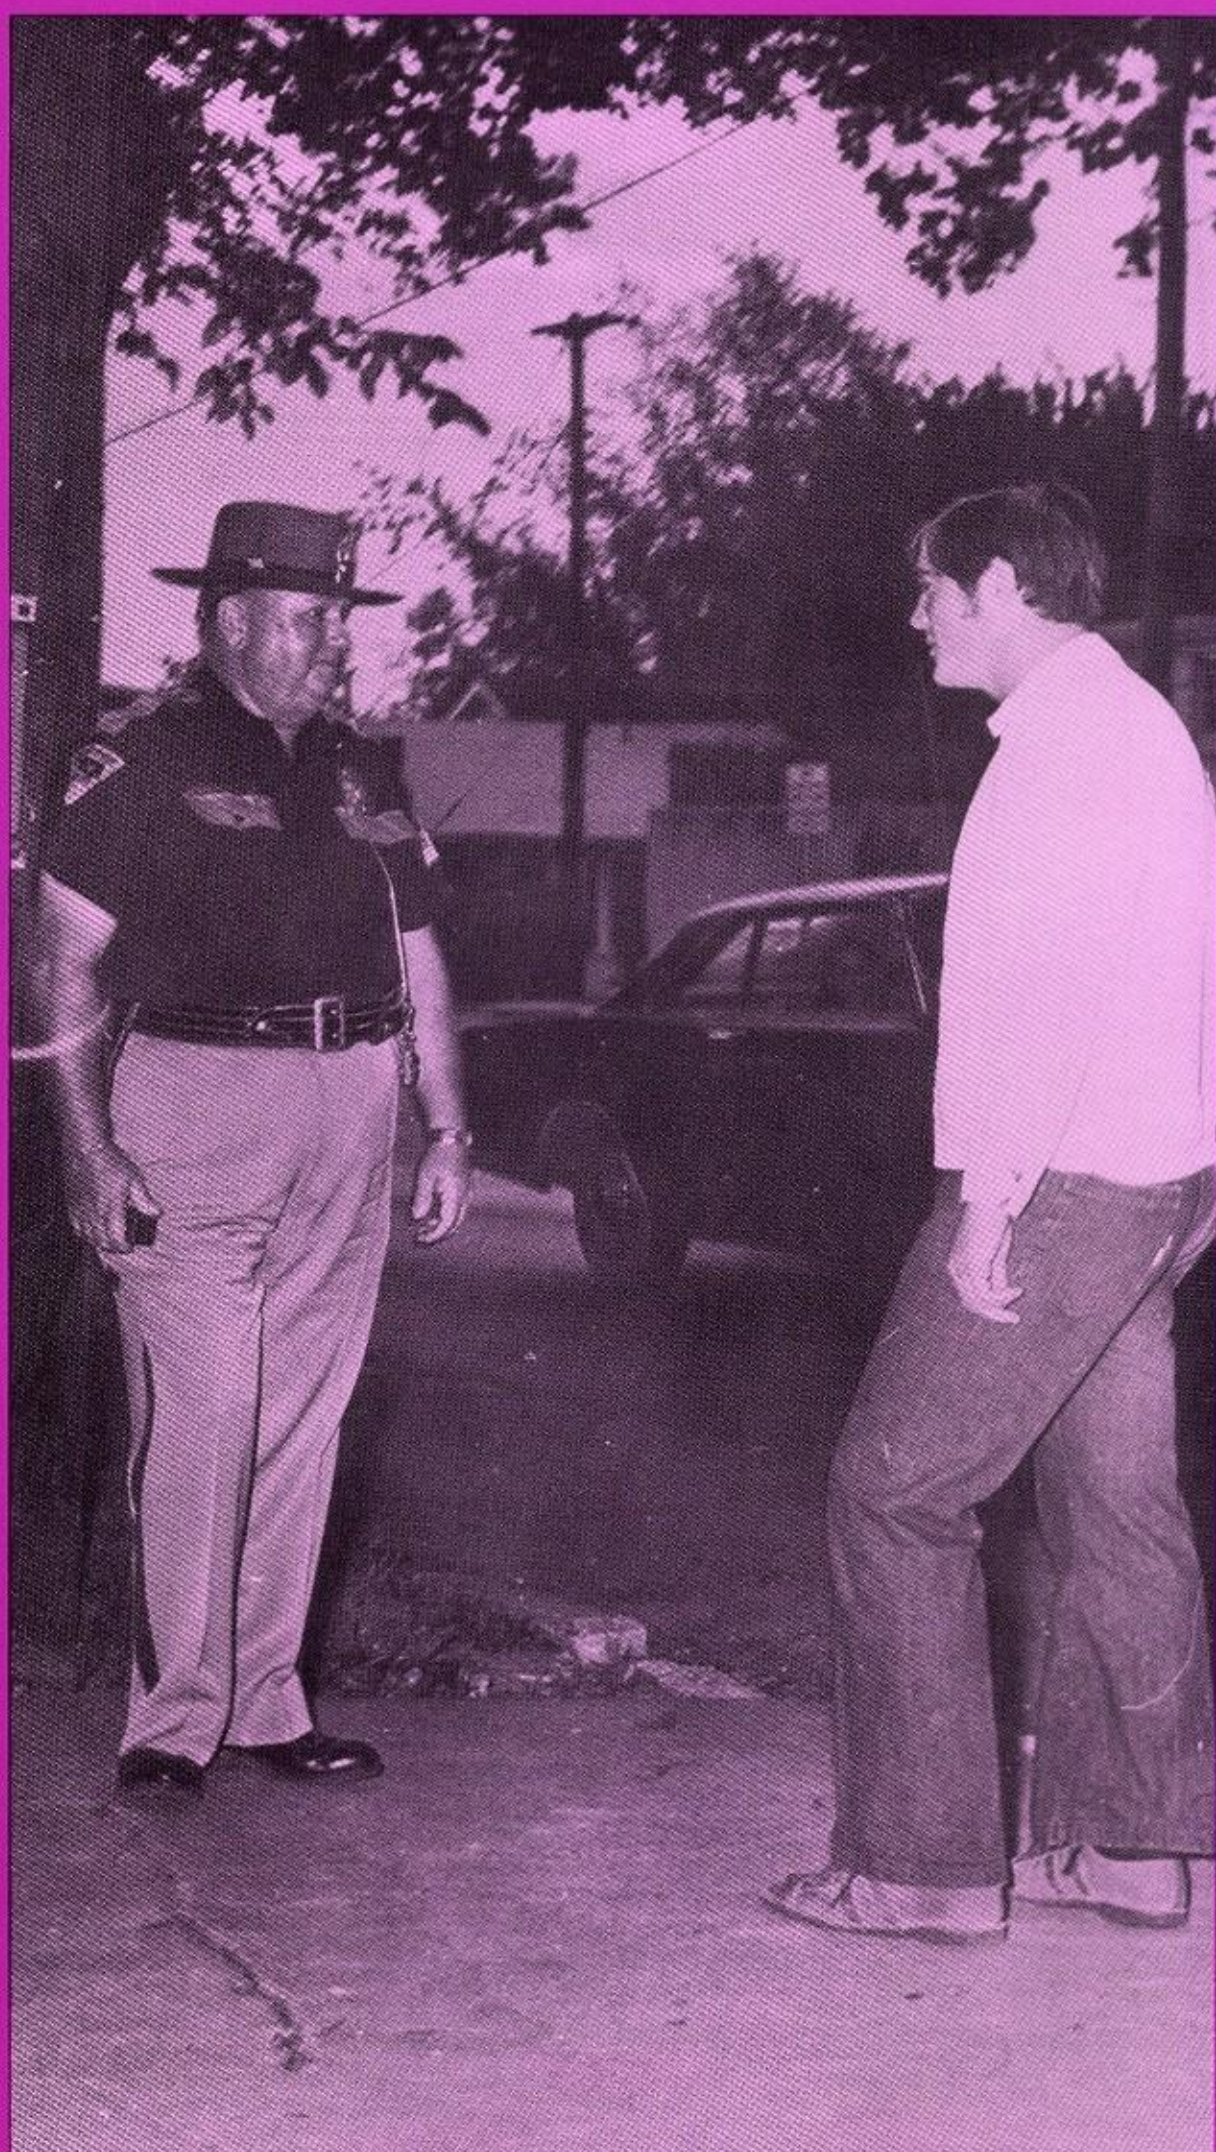

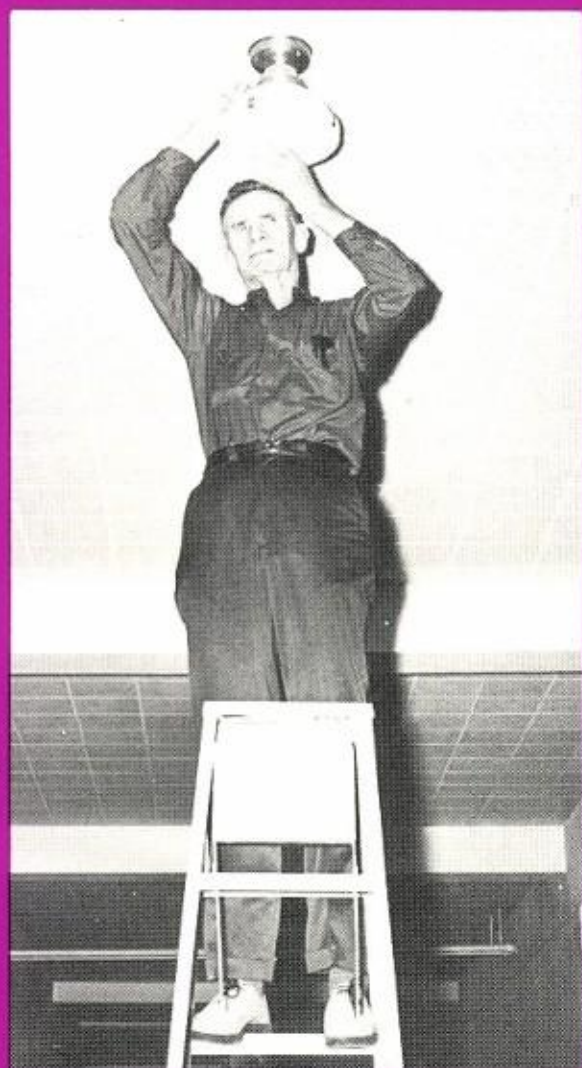

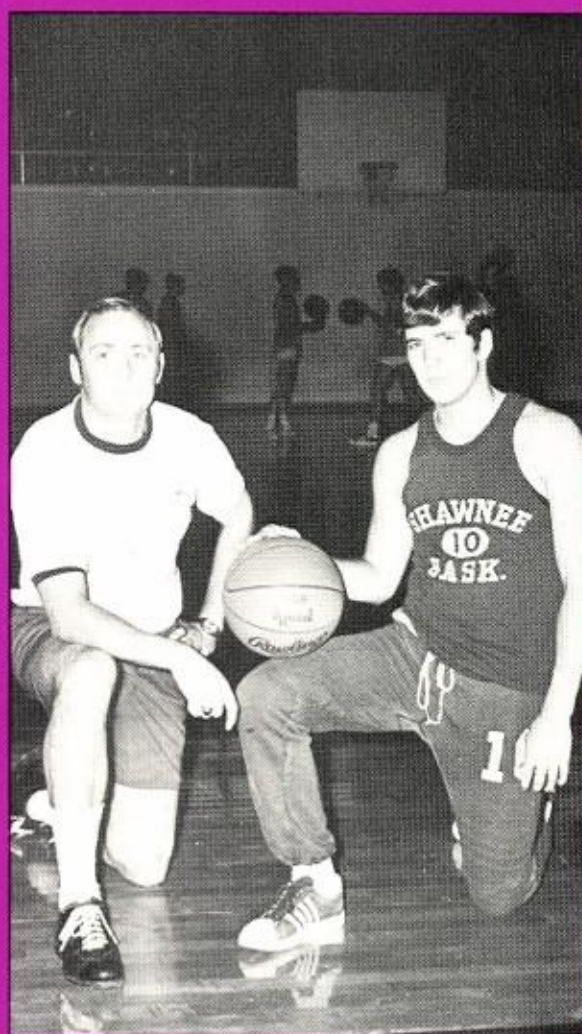

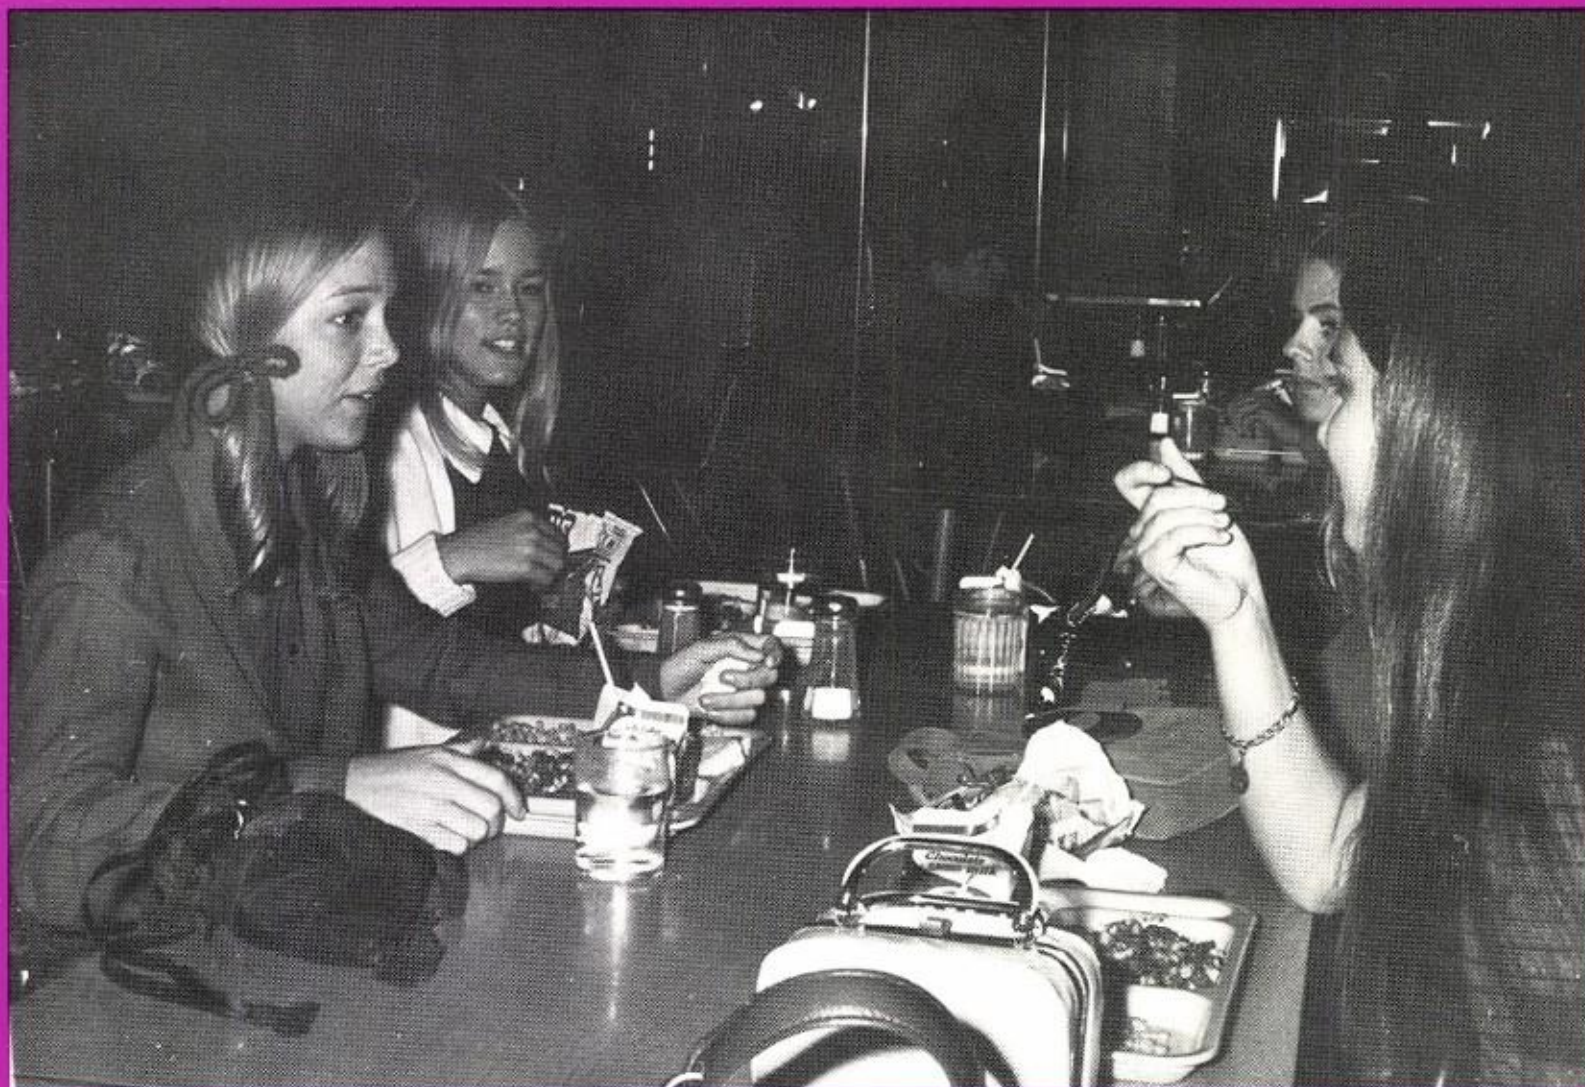

We say goodbye to the old traditions we've participated in-

TERRI McLAUGHLIN, CLAUDIA HARP, JUDY GRIFFIN, and MARGUERITE STEED wrapped roses about the arches to be used for graduation; ROBERT MITCHELL thought that an occasional haircut wasn't so bad with the help of CRICKET KIRBY and LINDA BOTTOMS; The pep club girls used lights to form Shawnee's "S" during halftime ceremonies; Senior girls of the Spirit Brigade were up late many nights posting signs on players' houses; Yelling with the direction of the SHS cheerleaders was almost a weekly custom; SERITA AUSTIN was the queen of the football homecoming activities.

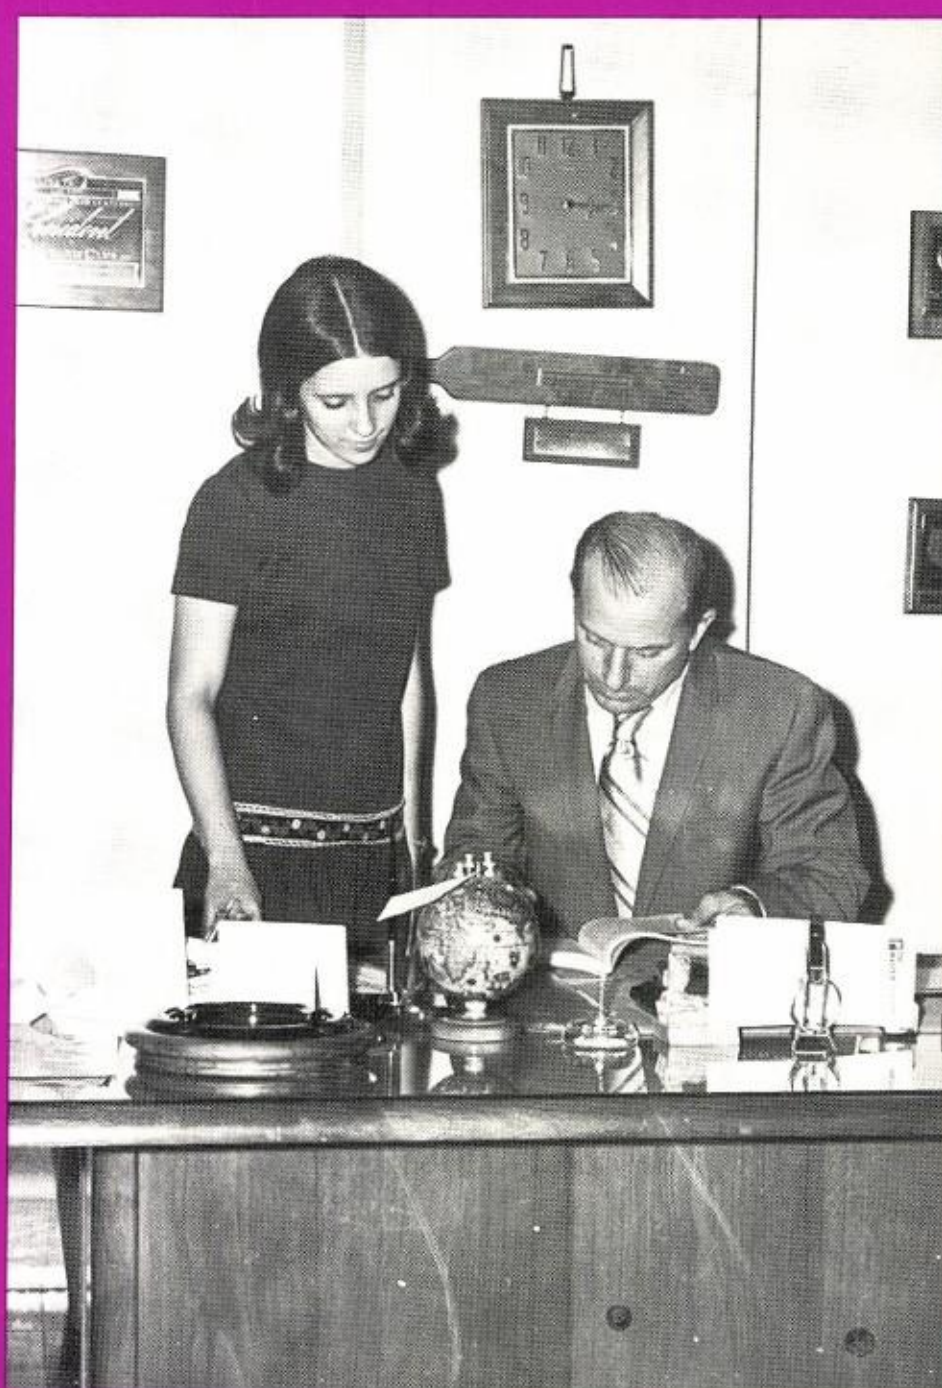

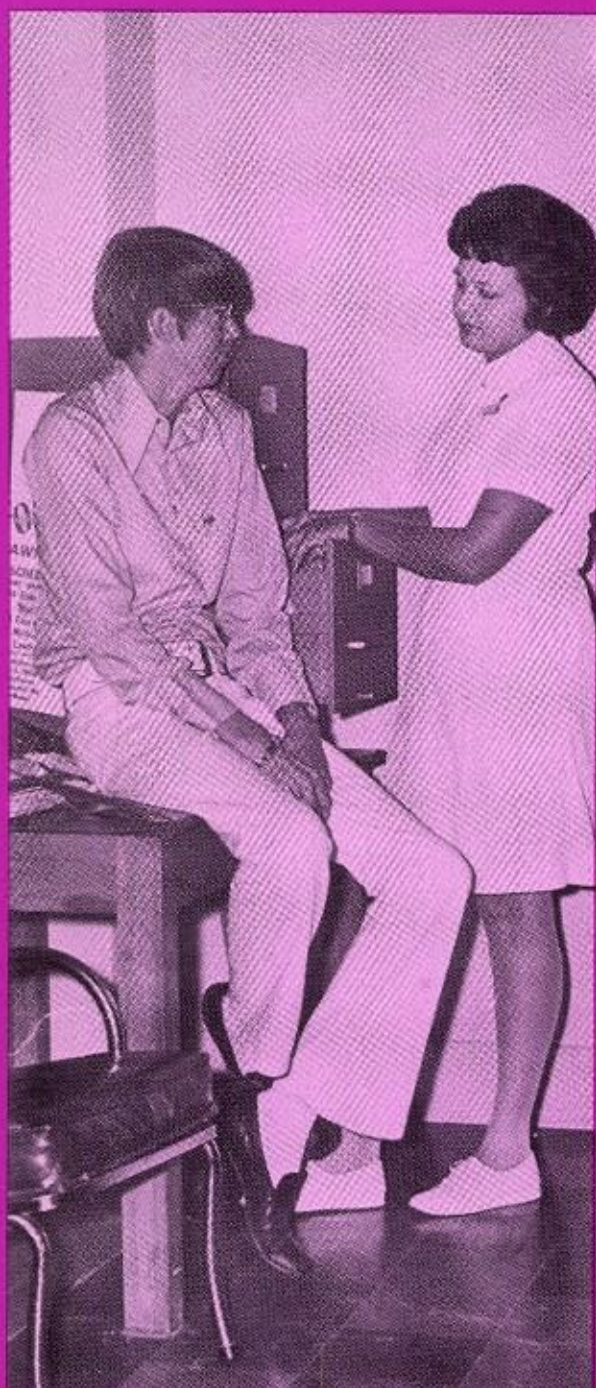

to our acquaintances

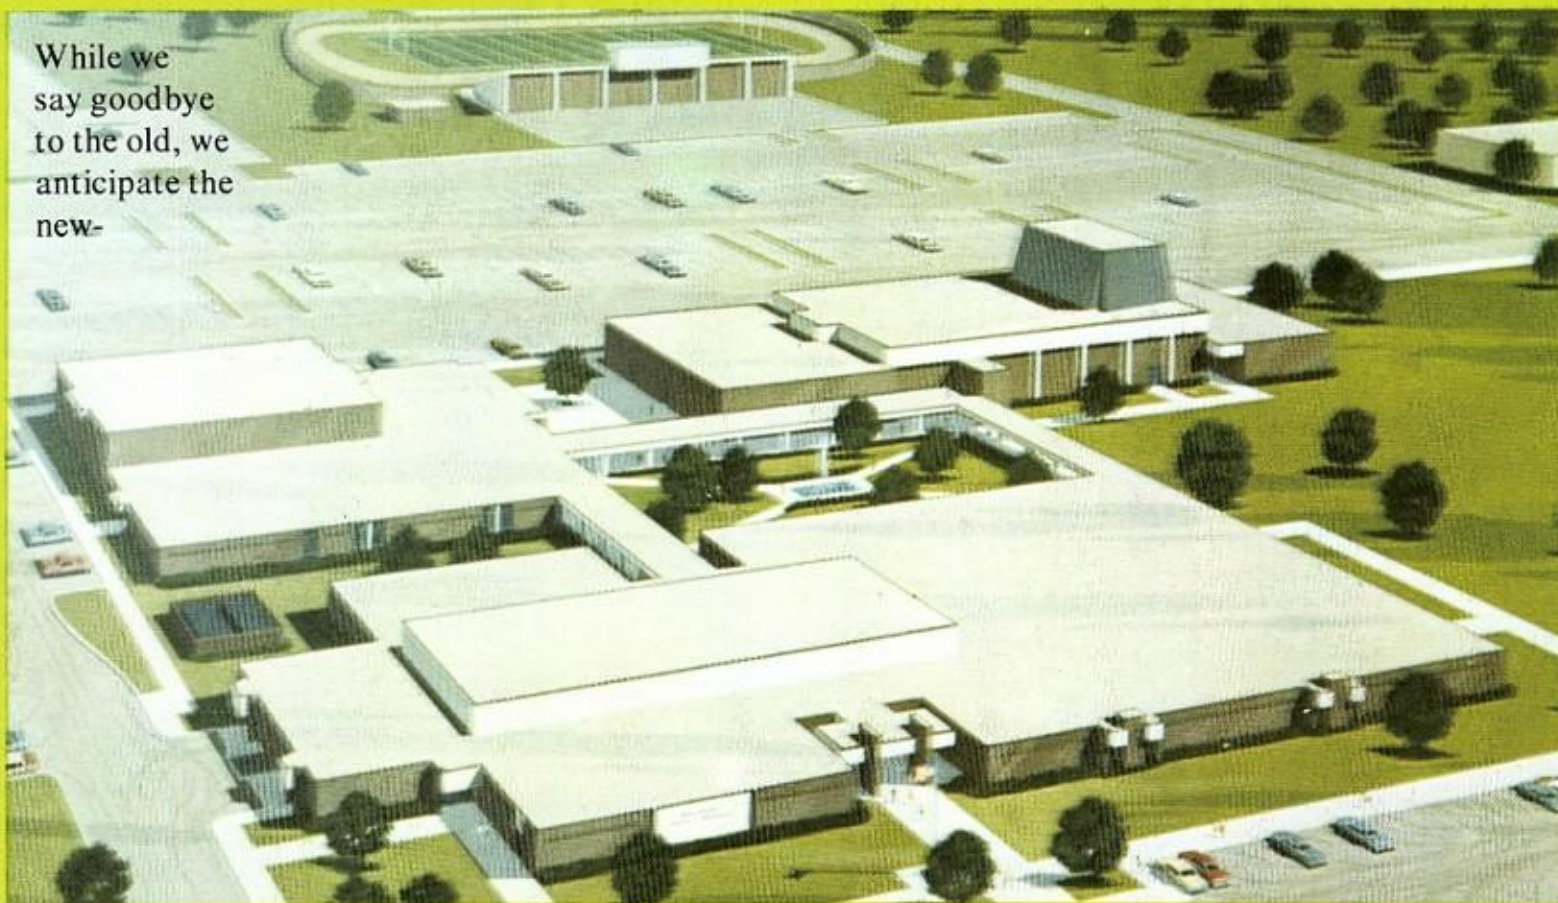

We say goodbye to familiar faces-

EVERETT could be seen helping out almost anywhere; OFFICER CLAUDE REYNOLDS was at the corner directing traffic each morning; Basketball players such as DAVID BOURBONNAIS practiced daily in the gym under the careful direction of COACH HAVENS; LINDA COLTER, DEBBIE LOVELAND, GRETA BLUNDELL, and BARBARA PINSKER met frequently for lunch in the cafeteria; CYNTHIA KOONTZ sought MR. PIPPS' opinion concerning a new proposal; SAM HOWARD relied on the nurse's judgement when he wasn't feeling well.

and look to the new

While we say goodbye to the old, we anticipate the new-

*The artist's to look forward to;

Diane Rose,
Keith Tanner,
Cathy
Romberg,
Brent

eagerly watched the high school.*

*At the end of our last year at this school, we dedicate our 1971-72 Caldron to a man who has had an influence on the lives of all his students. He teaches us to think for ourselves as human beings, not as machines. He gives us the usual "facts and figures" but in such a way that we can apply them to the world around us. He is not only a teacher but also a friend to whom we dedicate our yearbook-
Mr. J.D. Williamson.*

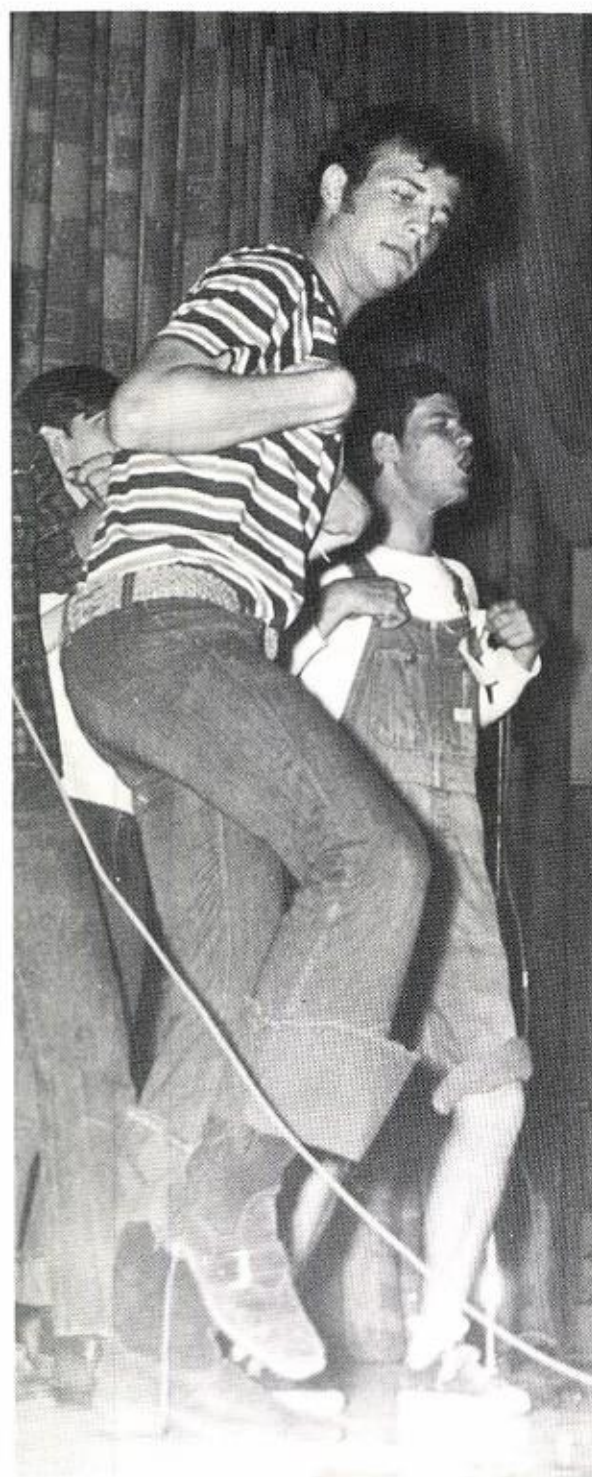

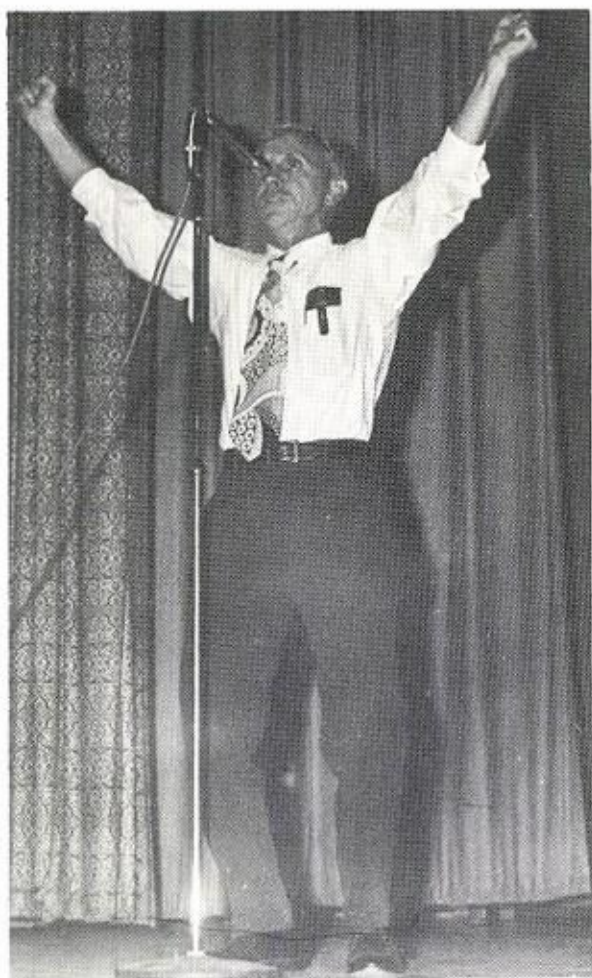

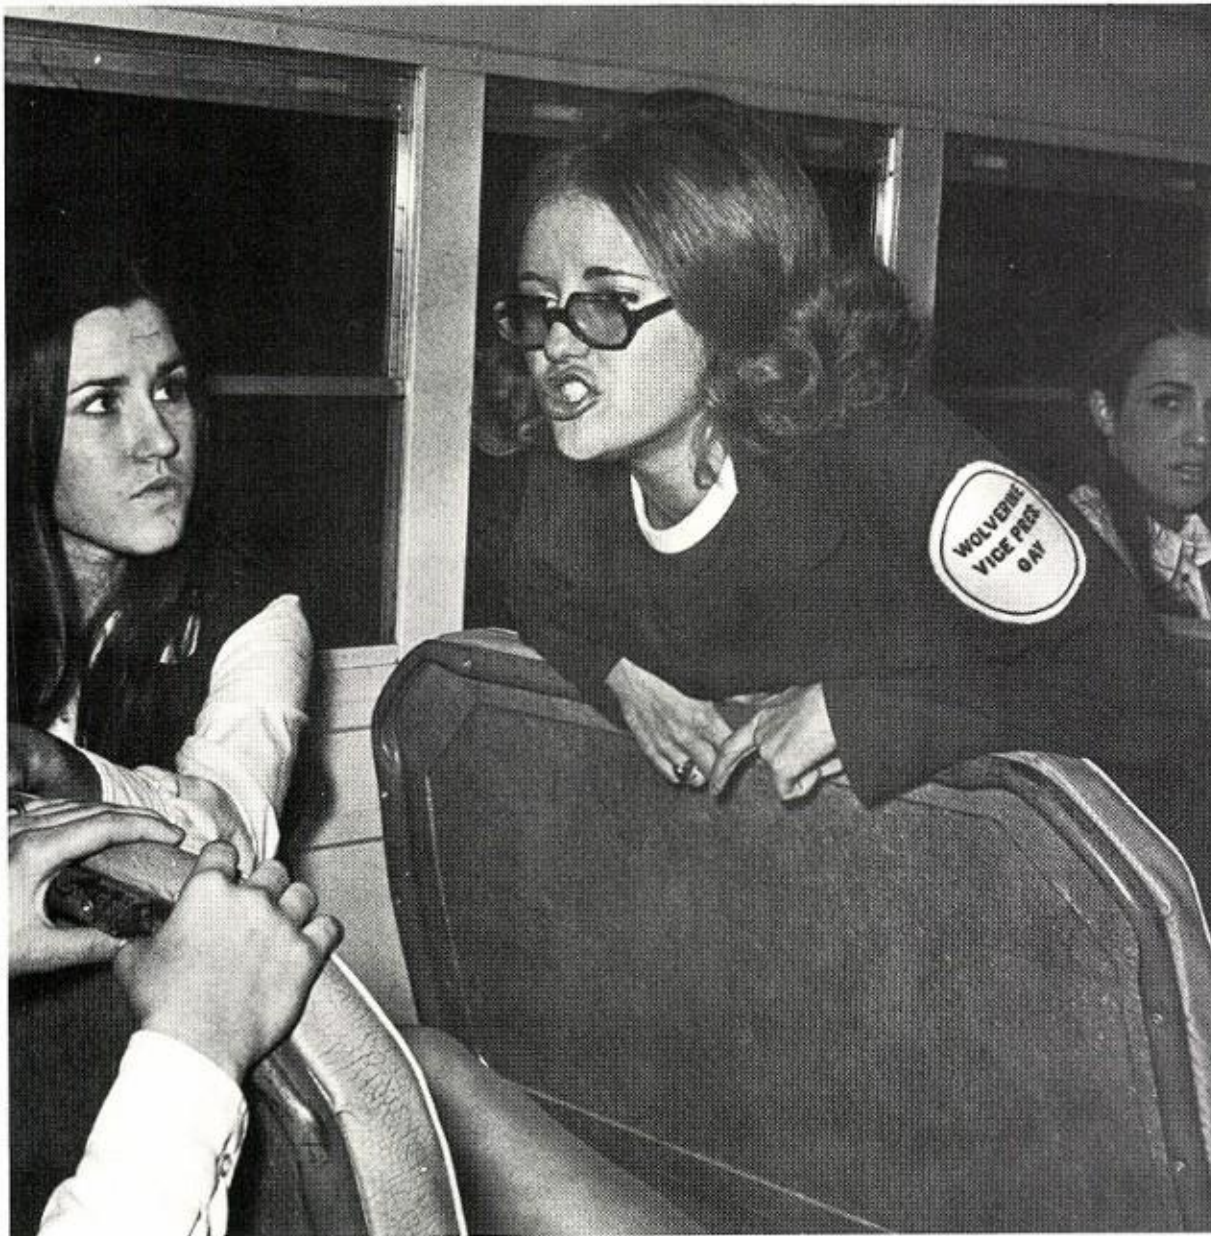

We all have different interests and activities that make us individuals-

MONICA ROESCHLIN stopped frequently for some ice cream after school; PHILLIP WILKINSON helped to spread Christmas cheer among the youngsters; Sometimes MR. PIPPS was at work before he had taken his coat off; LEE CARAWAY, NANCY EVERSOLE, JAN LACEY, NANCY BRADSHAW, TAWANA CARSTON, and LINDA FISHER met in the park to discuss their studies; MR. WILLIAMS led the student body in his own version of "Blue-White;" MARGUERITE STEED and JOHN GARDNER prepared many debates for state contests; Delegates to the OASC convention entertained other members between sessions;

We will remember the faces and places that have been the past year-

VICA and DECA opened the year with a picnic at the lake; DONNA
MONROE listened intently to gossip from GAY WINTERRINGER; BETH FISHER dejectedly received instructions on how to improve her work from MRS. WILLIAMSON; NANCY EVERSOLE led the pep rally around a glowing bon fire.

Air of Enthusiasm Marks the 1971 Season

The 1971 season brought an air of excitement and anticipation to Shawnee High School. Excitement at the thought of another season like the year before, when the Wolves made it to the state semi-finals. Shawnee had great anticipation for things to come, for the Wolves had a new coach, John Welborn from Portales, New Mexico.

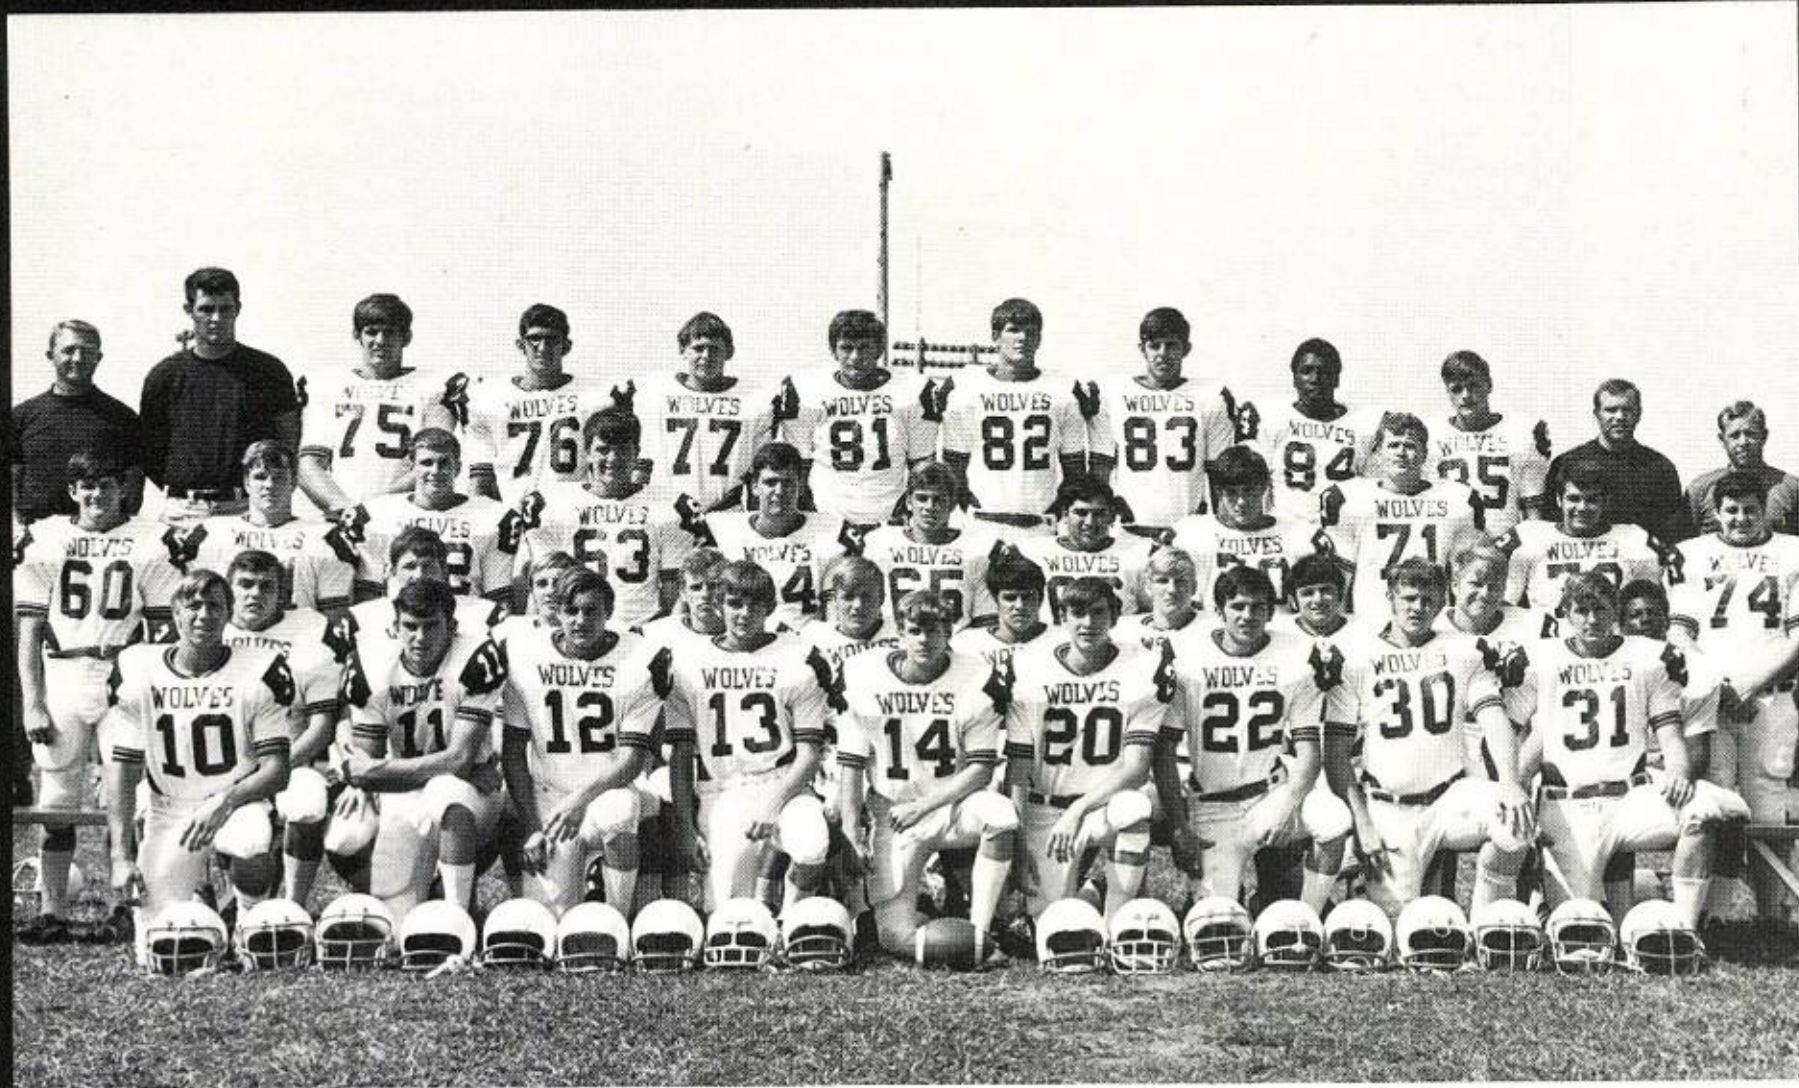

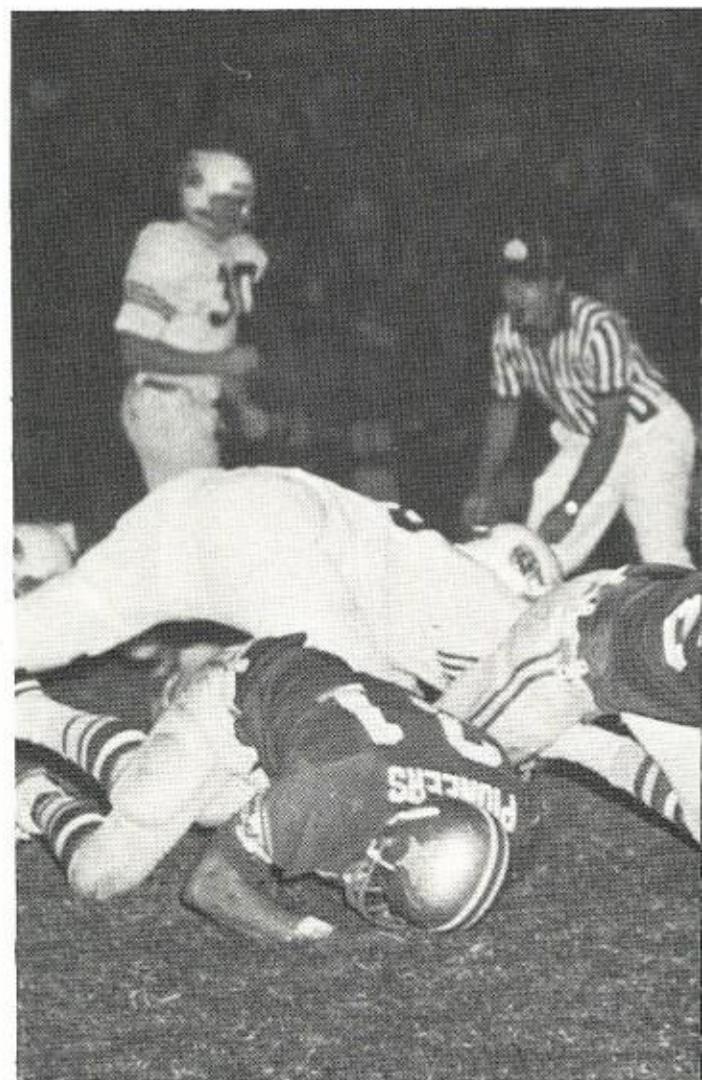

Shawnee opened its season against the McAlester Buffaloes. A huge crowd of Shawnee supporters made the long trip to McAlester to witness the Wolves first bid for victory. The fans got their money's worth as the Wolves displayed their poise by scoring the winning touchdown with only 17 seconds remaining in the game.

Next came the tough U.S. Grant Generals, and once again the Shawnee fans were thick at Capitol Hill Stadium to watch the Wolves in their second contest. As the week before, the Wolves started off slow but came back strong in the second half for a come-from-behind win.

Arch-rival Enid was the next test for the Wolves. This was the first home game of the season, and, as expected, it was a sellout. But the weatherman did not cooperate, for the game was played in a sea of mud. It was a bitter and hard fought battle, but the Wolves fell short, as once again the Plainsmen prevailed.

The Wolves opened district play the following week against Star Spencer. From the opening kickoff it was apparent that the Wolves were the superior team. Shawnee took the first step towards a state championship by crushing the Bobcats.

Wolves Take Giant Steps Toward State Playoffs

Wolves Clinch District Crown

The Stillwater Pioneers, one of the toughest AAA teams in the state, were the next opponents for the Wolves. Things looked very bleak for Shawnee as Stillwater lead almost the entire game. With only a minute and a half left in the game the Wolves were 95 yards away from the goal line and trailed by four points. But once again the Wolves came through, scoring the winning touchdown with only seconds remaining.

Classen, a very speedy and dangerous team came next on the Wolves schedule. The Wolves defense rose to the occasion by containing the Comet's talented backs. This enabled the Wolves to pull off a very important district win.

Capital Hill, a highly under-rated team, presented a formidable opponent for the Wolves the next week. This week it was the potent offense which provided the winning margin as the Wolves coasted to still another victory.

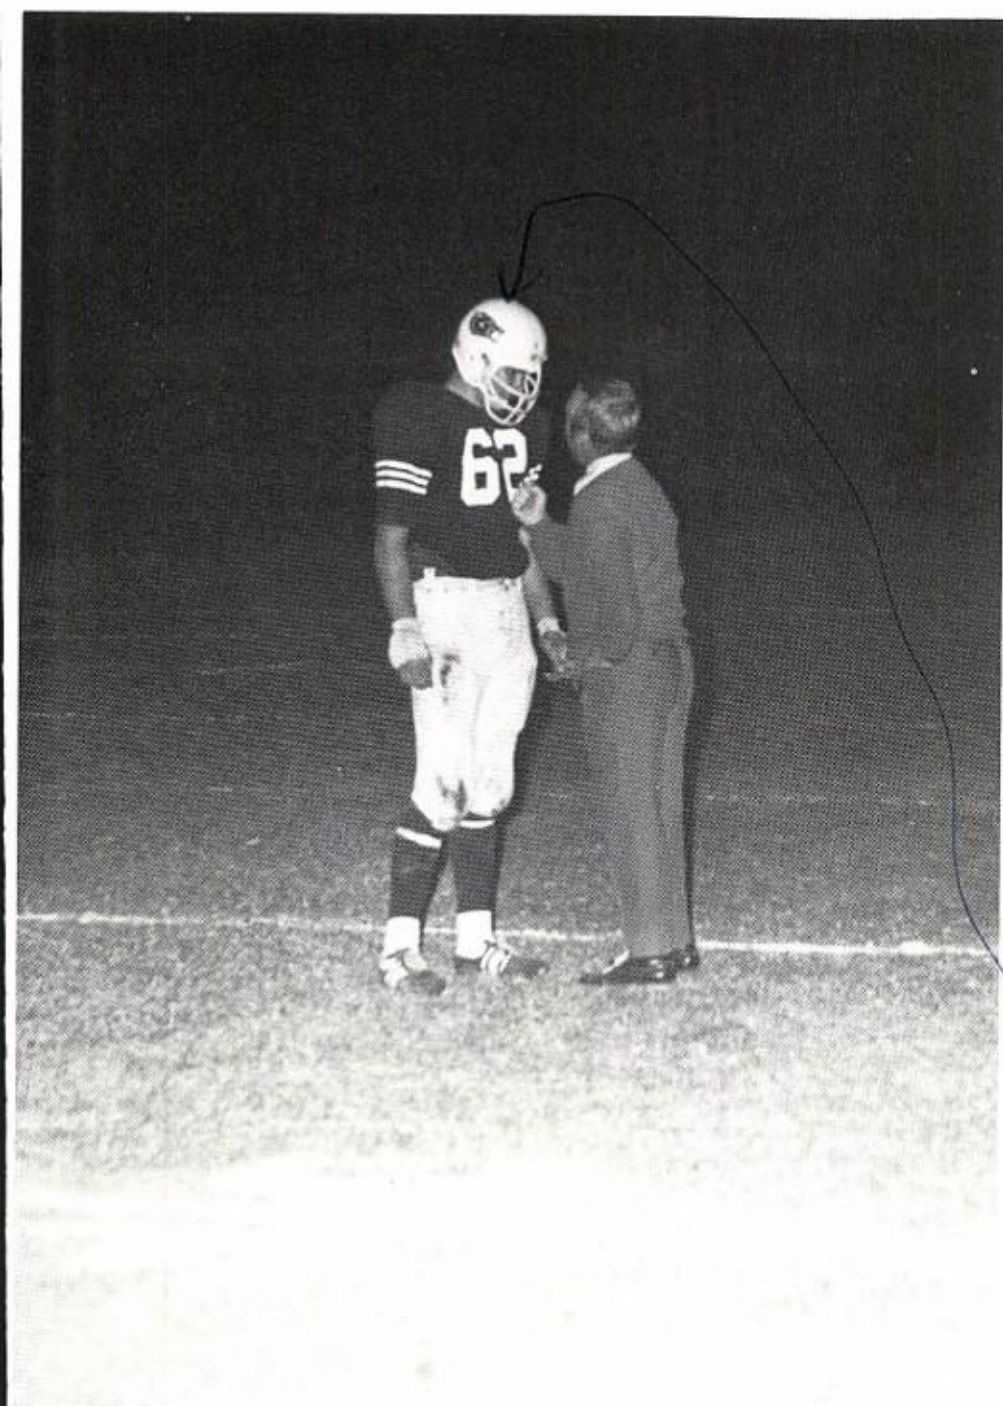

The district championship and a berth in the state playoffs were at stake when the Wolves met the Irish of McGuiness the next week. Shawnee combined a stingy defense and a explosive offense to handily win and secure a playoff berth for the second year in a row.

Shawnee's final district foe was Northeast. The Wolves built a sizable lead early in the game and then let the reserves take over in order that they might gain more experience.

Lawton Ike, the number 6 rated team in class AAAA, proved the Wolves with their toughest test of the year on the next friday. An outstanding performance by the Wolves gave the fans a real treat. The defense held the Eagles time and again to insure the hard-earned victory for it gave the Wolves momentum as they headed into the playoffs.

Wolves Reach Semifinals Before Meeting Wishbone

The Wolves steamrolled into the state playoffs with a 9 and 1 record. Hopes and dreams of a state championship were very high as the Wolves prepared for the first obstacle between them and their goal, the Guthrie Bluejays. Hard work and concentration marked the week and a half of practices for the Wolves. By game time Shawnee was at a fever pitch for the game. All the preparation paid off as the Wolves smashed the aggressive and determined Bluejays from the opening kickoff. So convincing was the victory that many reserves saw considerable action in the contest.

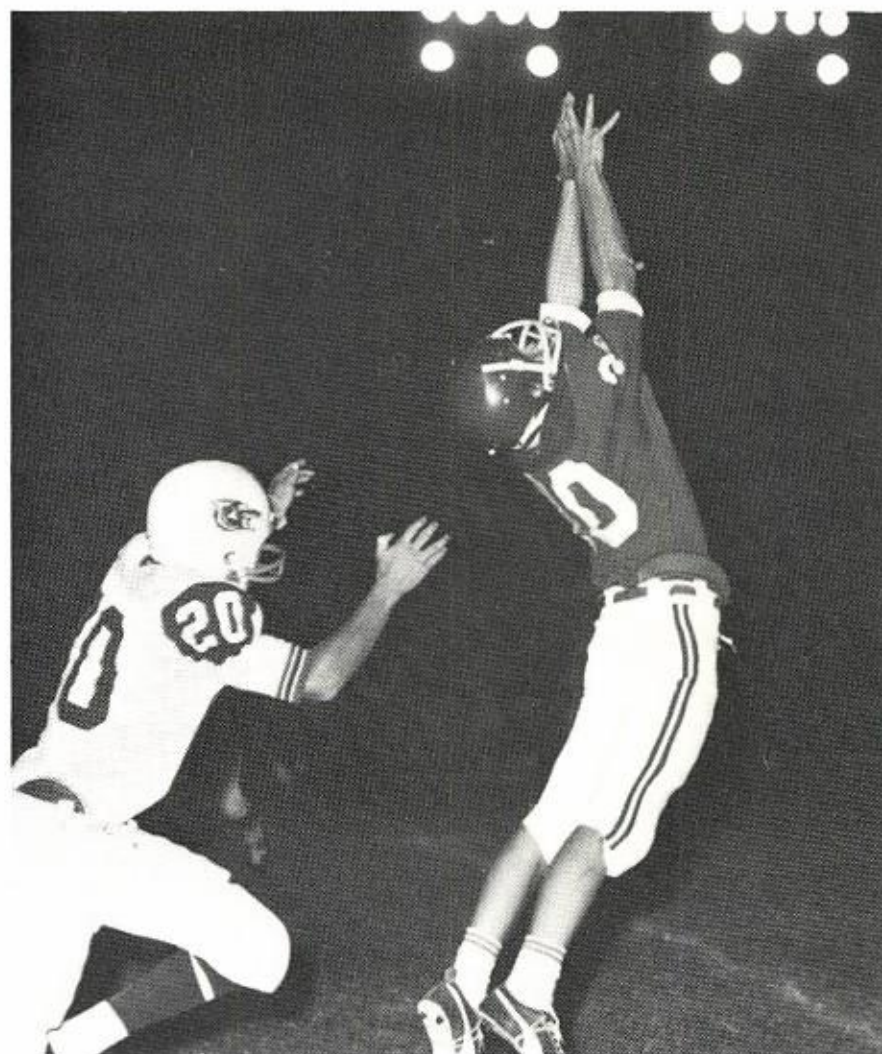

The Altus Bulldogs and their wishbone offense presented the Wolves with their next opponent. The Bulldogs would present the Shawnee defense with their stiffest of the season. Once again the entire town was filled with excitement as the Wolves prepared to make the long trip to Altus.

Offensively the Wolves moved the ball almost at will at the Bulldogs. But costly mistakes and the potent wishbone offense spelled trouble for the Wolves. Despite valiant comebacks time and time again the Wolves came up short when the final score was shown.

The long bus ride home marked the end of a brilliant season for the Wolves. The young and inexperienced Wolves performed much better than most observers thought they would. The return of so many players and the fine coaching staff which had come to Shawnee assured Shawnee fans of winning football for many years to come.

1971-72 Cross-Country Team Best in Schools History

So - James Shuman?
oh well it's the runner that counts (I read that in a comic book) - you have a lot more to you than just running - but good luck especially in that area - it's long - but all ya do is just get psyched! - see ya - Alan (wip)

Cross-Country Team! FRONT ROW: Wayne Harris, Marc Howard, Jack Ransom, James Weigant, Mike Harris, Alan Bond, Larry Ersland, Andy Bond, Tracy Weaver, Billy Crossley, Garey Wright. SECOND ROW: Don Hastings, Kevin Kalies, Rusty Hale, Ricky Buchanan, Mickey Schorn, James Shuman, Albert St. Germaine, Jeff Wall, Mike Mize, Terry Brown, Gary Bruten, Coach Leonard Wray.

Activities

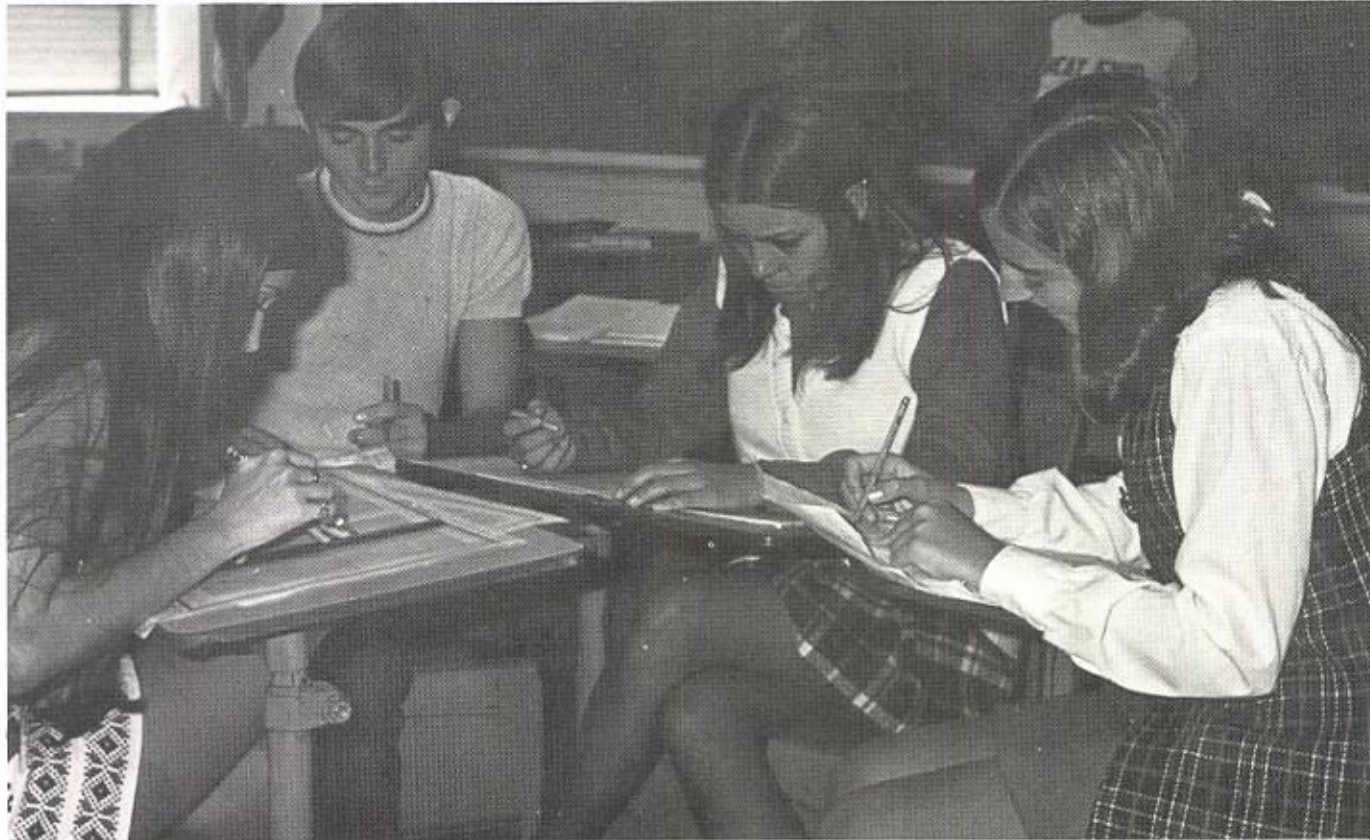

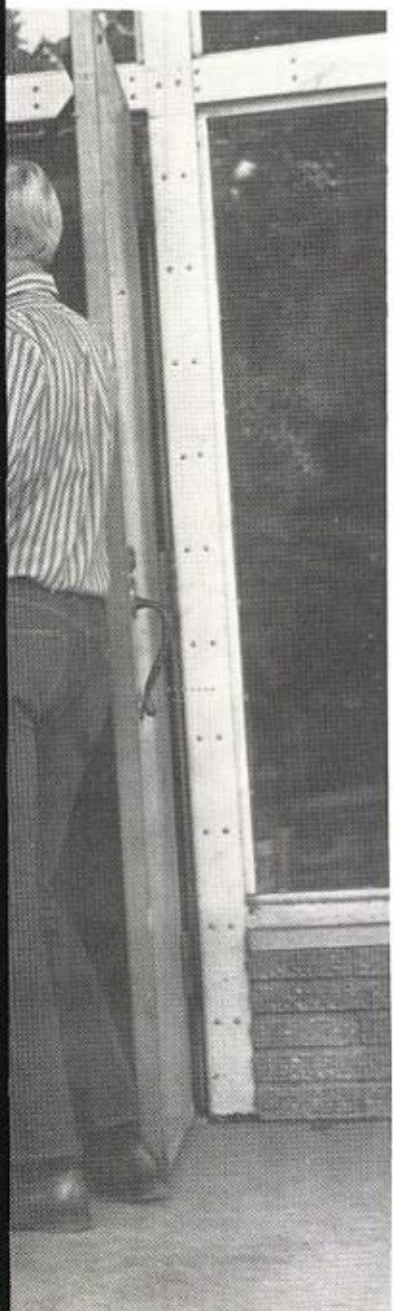

Caldron Carries On

Despite difficulties, such as scratched negatives, pictures not taken, and copy that doesn't fit, the year book has another successful year.

Editor was John Johnson; business manager, Carol Norton; production manager, Cynthia Koontz, classes, Tawana Kennon; organizations, Mignon Rogers; sports Roger Steed and Robert Capps; advertising Beth Fisher; academics, Karen Henson; photographer Robert Mitchell; and advisor, Mrs. LaHoma Williamson. Aids were Diane Rose, Kenny Moore, Jackie Eighmy, Abbe Williams, Pam Patterson, Van French, Robert Owens, Randy Romberg, Tony Jolly, Mark Finley, Chuck Henson, and Phil Wilkinson.

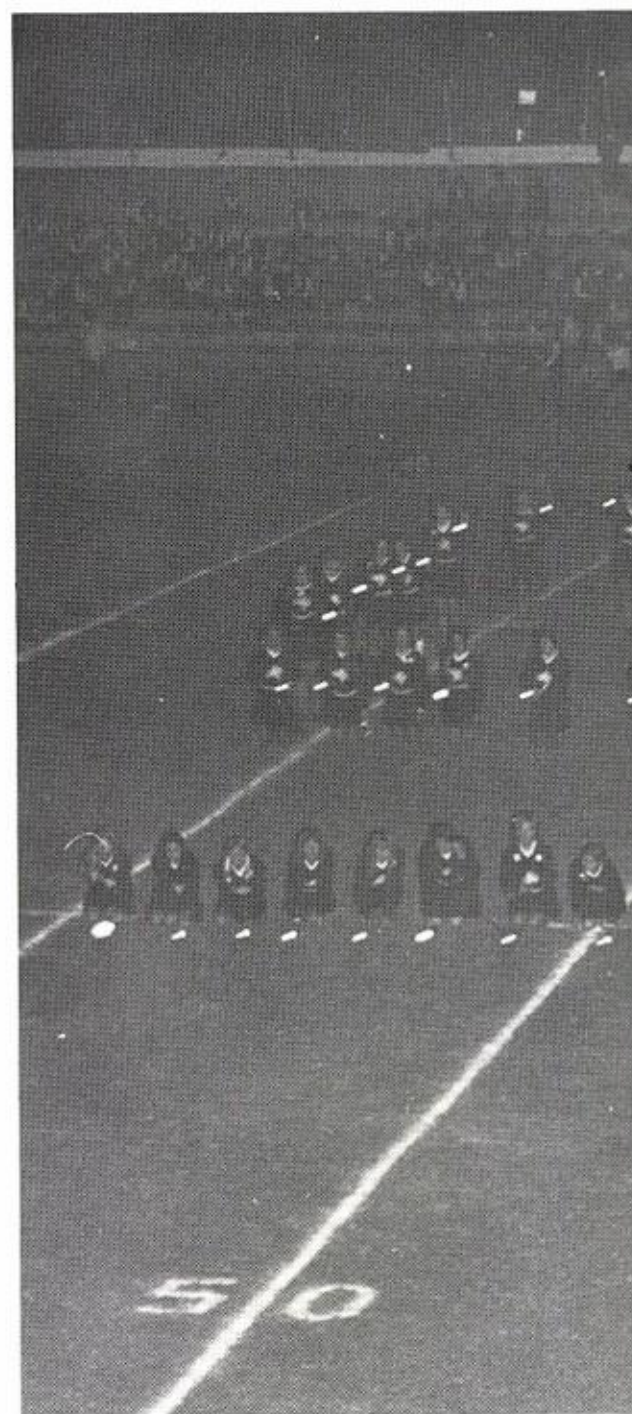

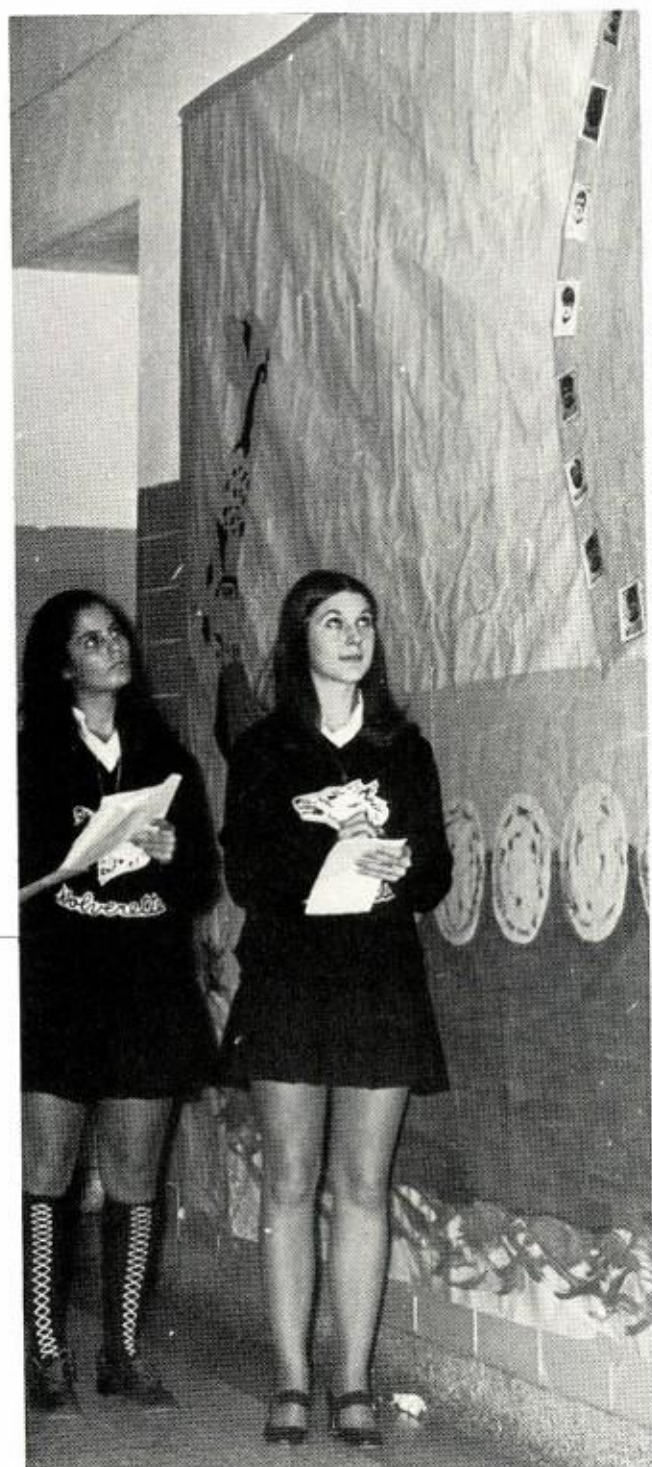

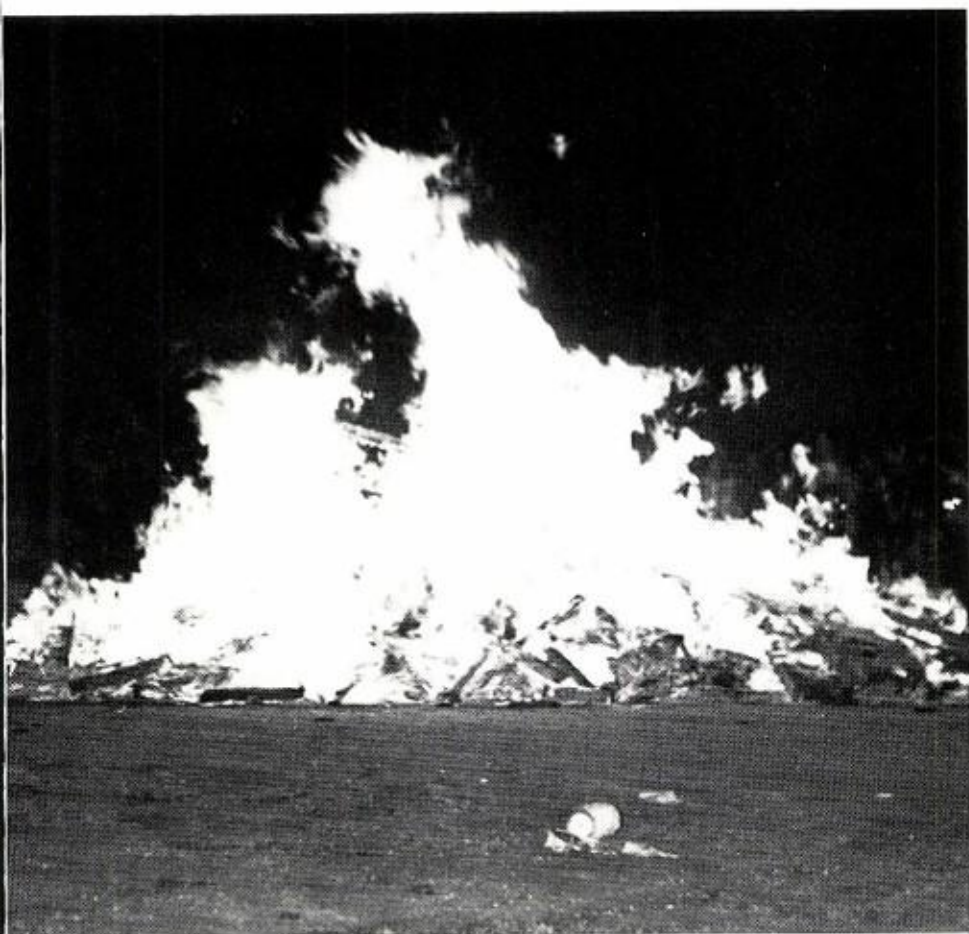

Spirit Is Everywhere

Spirit Council did a great job this year boosting school spirit for our athletes. Officers and sponsors, Miss Annette Brown and Mrs. Karen Mullins got together each week and decided on a contest which each homeroom would participate. Original signs, decorating your room, door, or the wall, being assigned a player and gathering wood for the bonfire were some of the many projects Spirit Council did to boost spirit for the Wolves.

Senior girls getting together the night before a game had the name of Spirit Briadge. These girls painted signs, made cookies, and even serenaded the Senior players and coaches. Having alot of fun was great but showing the athletes their concern for them was the main purpose.

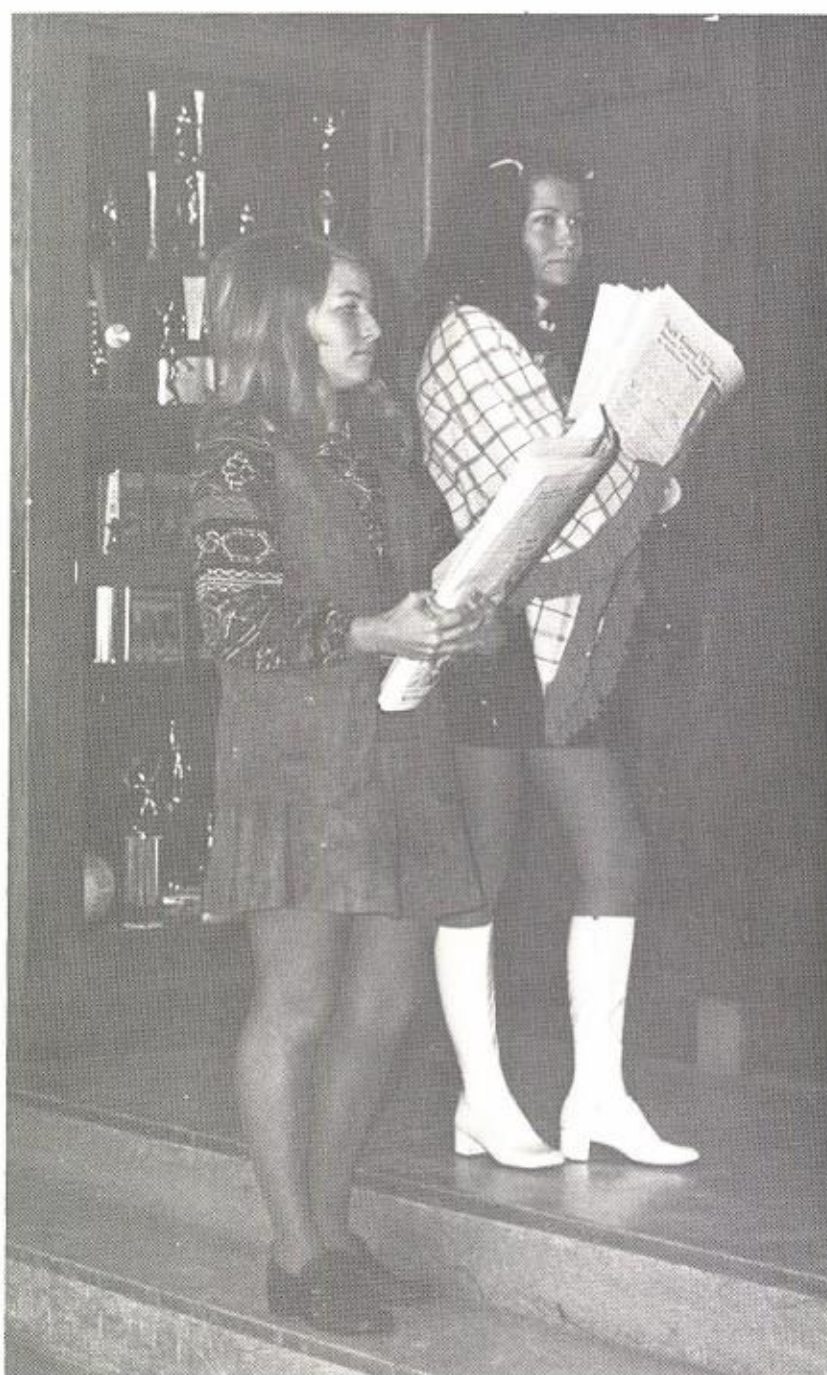

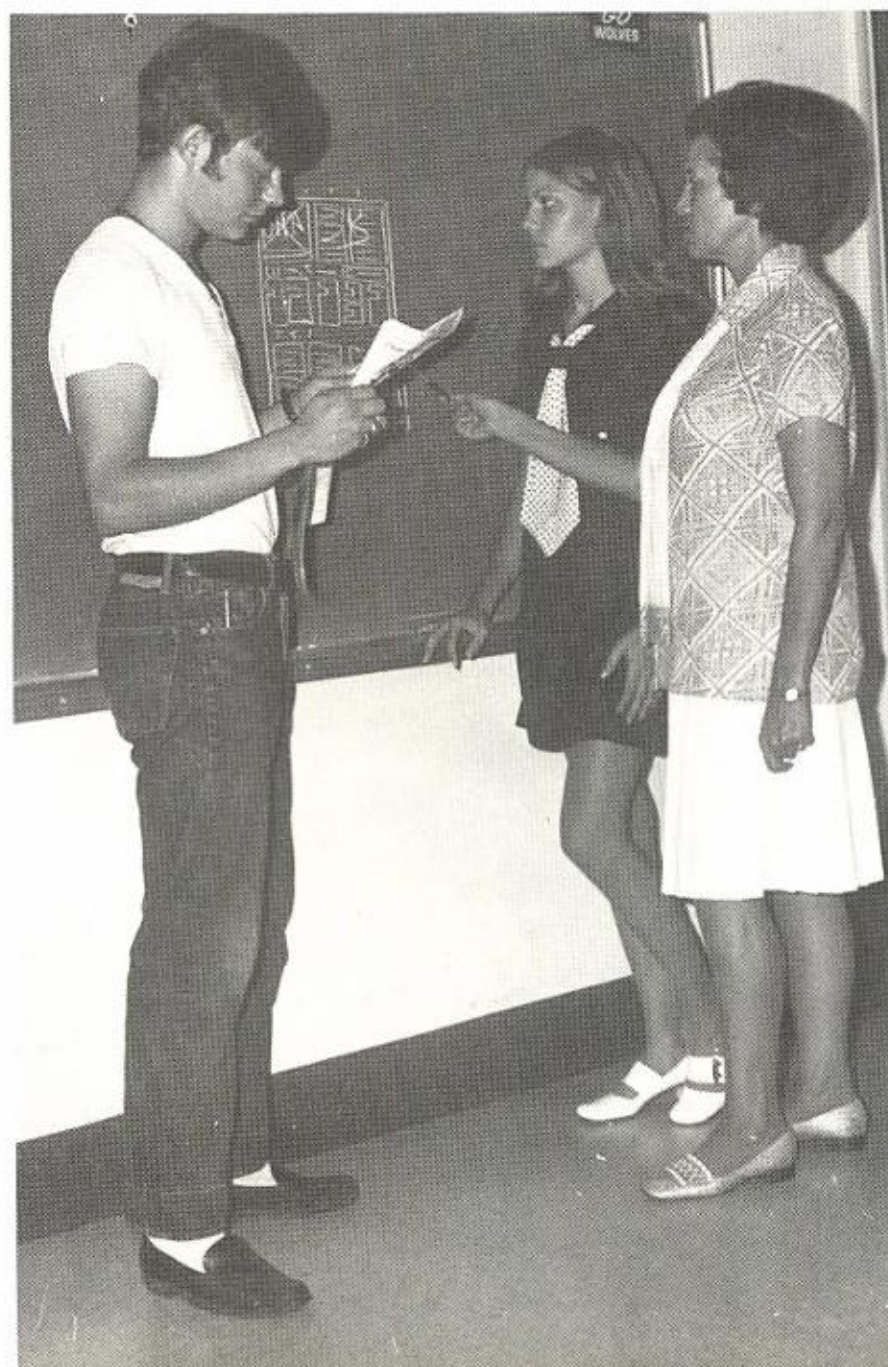

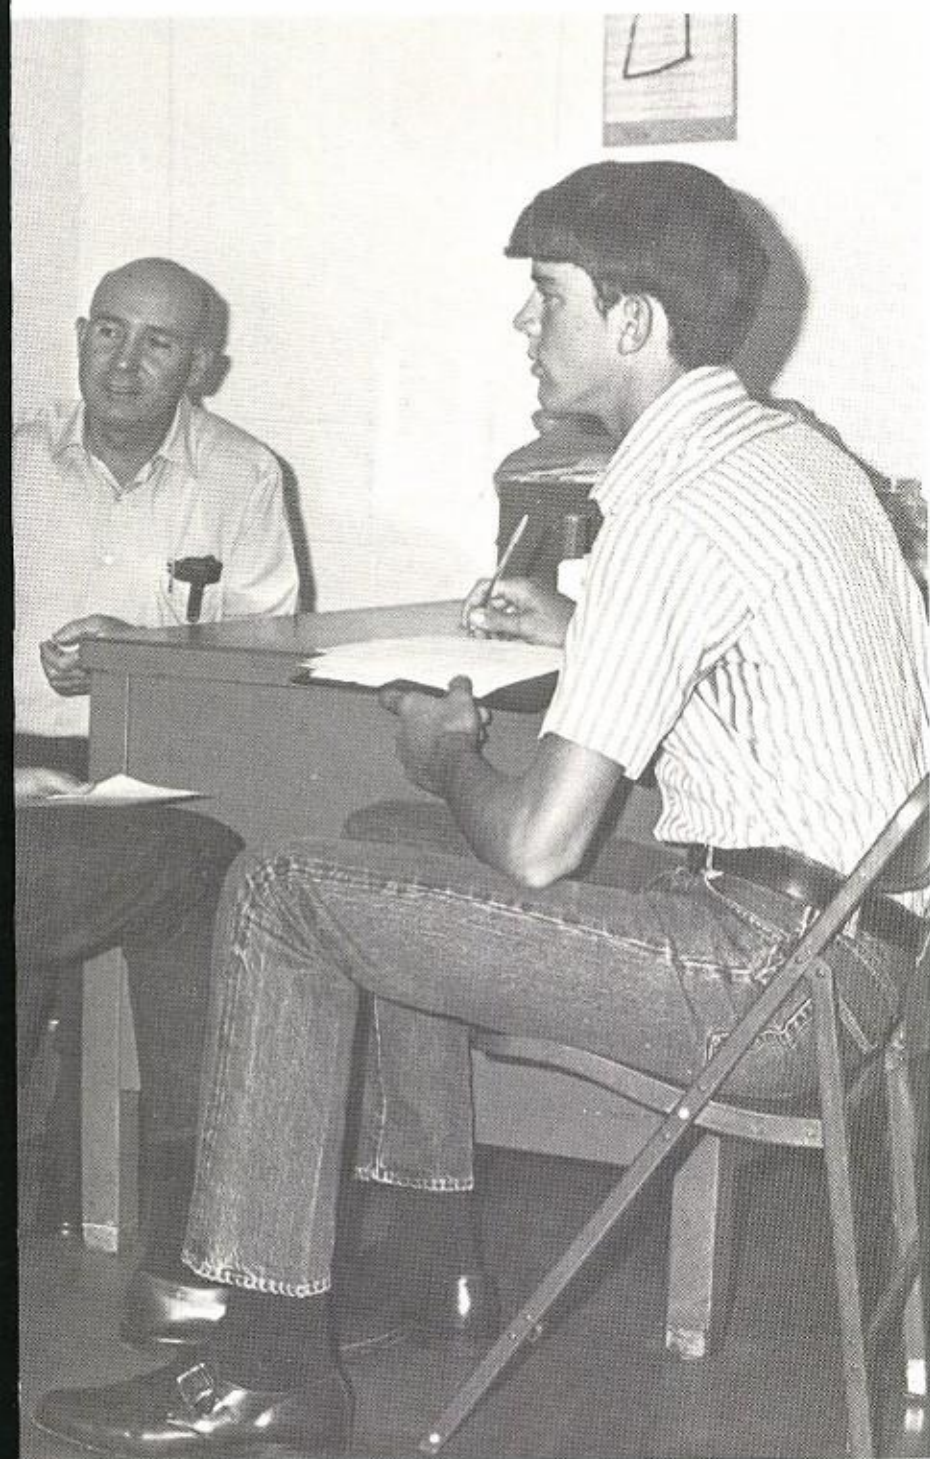

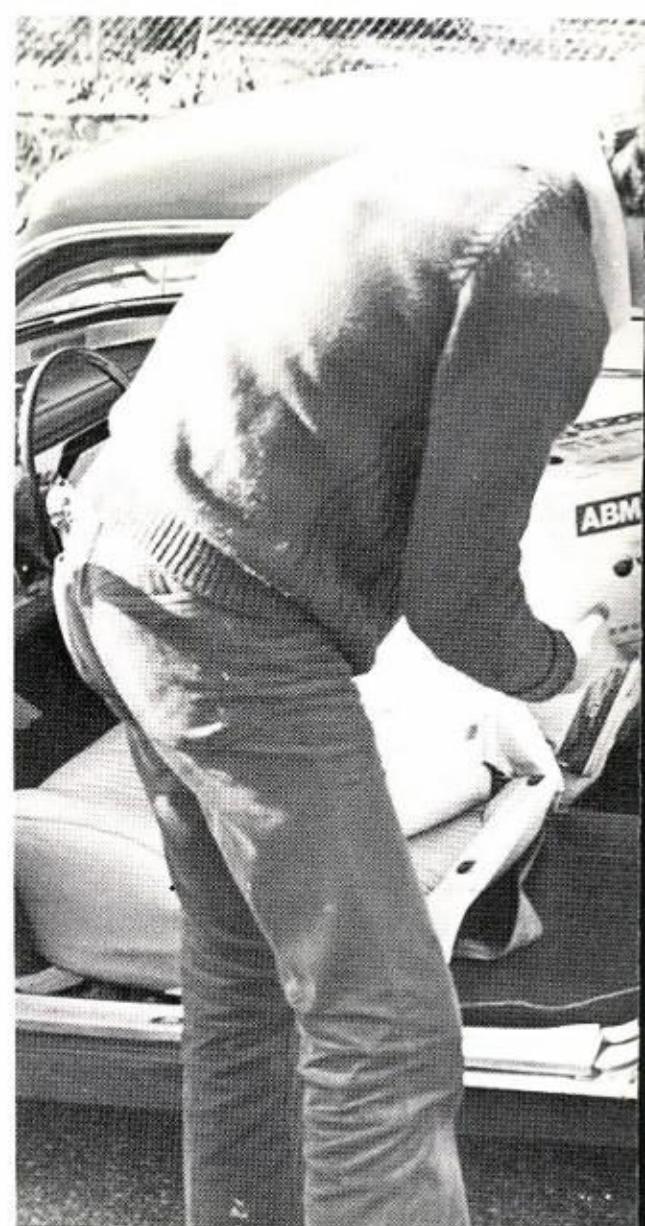

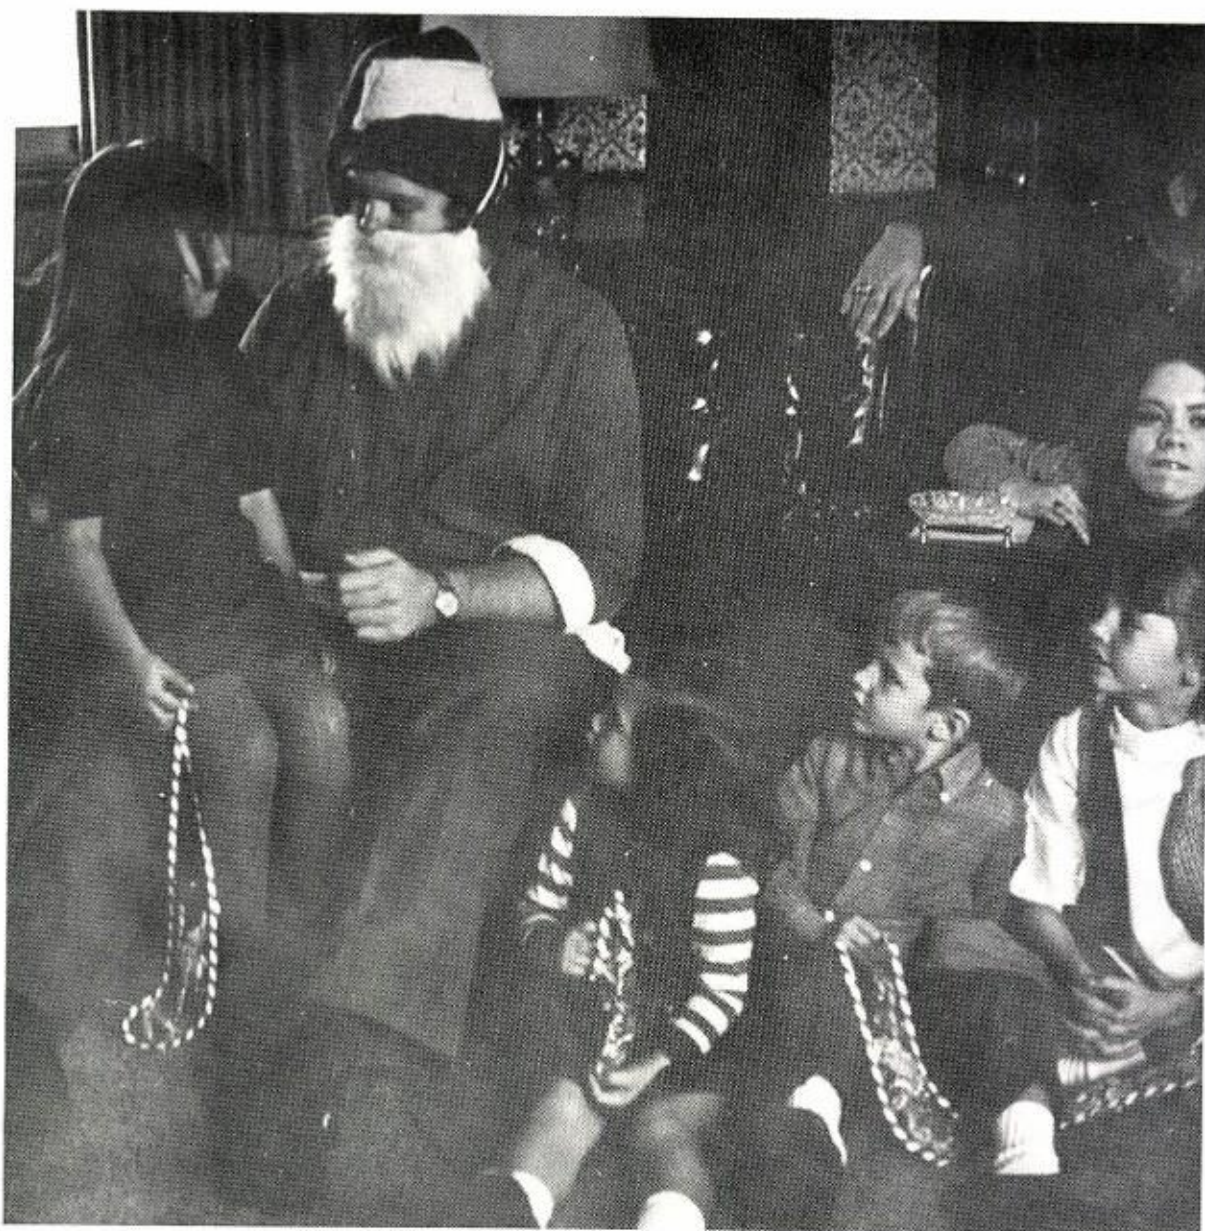

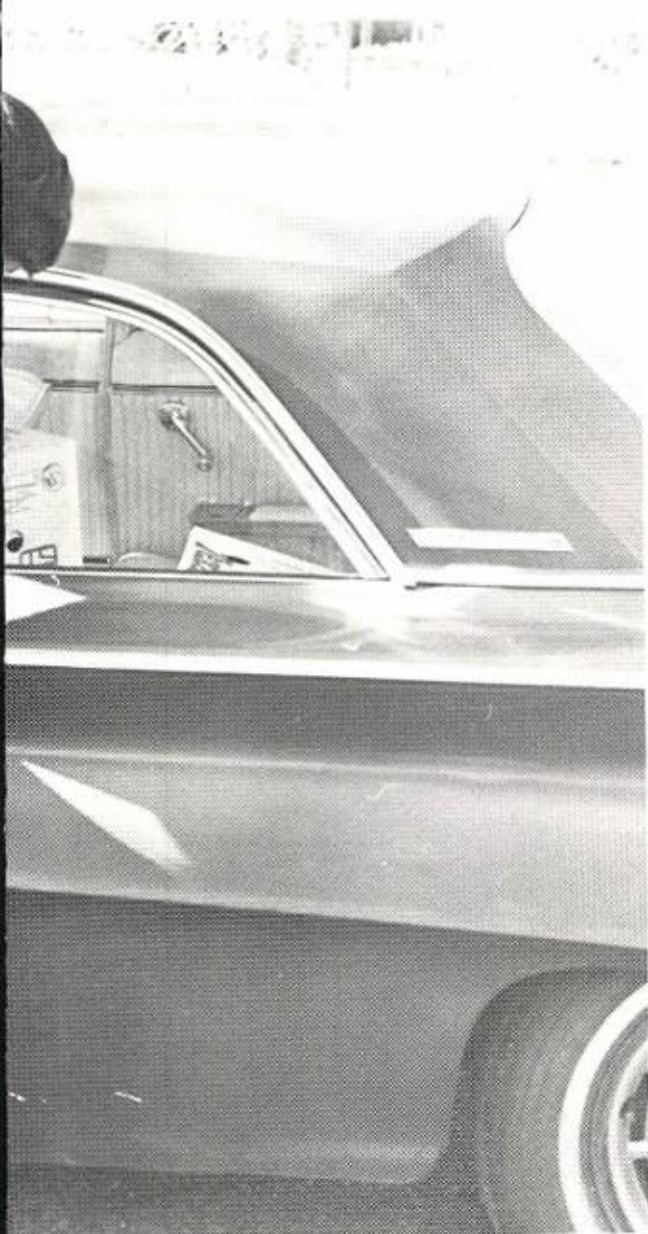

Journal Ferrets Out News

WOLVES JOURNAL was off to another year of very hard work under the excellent guidance of Mrs. David. This marked the thirty-sixth consecutive year of our newspaper. Editors for this years JOURNAL were Larry Ersland and Susy Lynn; the informative editorials were written by Benjy Cook and Maguerite Kozel. Following the clubs very closely were Susie Kilinsworth and Yonus Slaten. Making Cubs Corner a very interesting feature were Kathy Logsdon and Carolyn Walker. With all the Wolves as their subjects were the Sports Editors, Coy Everett and Charles Laster. In charge of showing how Shawnee supports its High School with advertising were Cheryl Beams and Kathy Mongold.

DECA Under New Advisor

This year DECA started fresh under the leadership of Charles Cannon. Among the clubs activities was a weiner roast to start off the year. During December DECA members sold boxes of citrus fruit, they also had their annual Christmas party for the underprivileged children. As done last year on Valentines, DECA sent out messages and flowers. Also during the year was a Bar-B-Que.

Between their projects the DECA club had their annual Employee-Employer Bandquet. The officers of DECA went to the leadership conference. DECA combined their monthly meetings with breakfast. Reigning as DECA Sweetheart was Linda Bottoms.

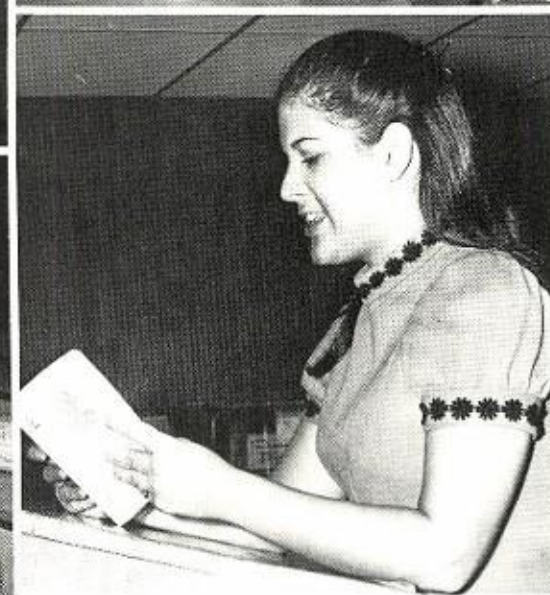

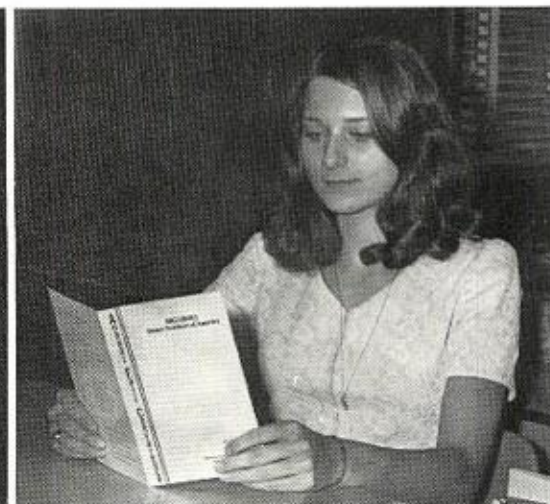

Orchestra Talents Develop

In Shawnee High String Orchestra, two traditionally first division string choirs are combined, Junior and Senior High. The usual school and contest events are a part of this group's activities as well as programs in Shawnee and neighboring towns. Annual programs are presented for the local Fine Arts Club. This year as an added honor the Shawnee High School String Orchestra will play at the Oklahoma Music Educators Association Convention in Oklahoma City in January.

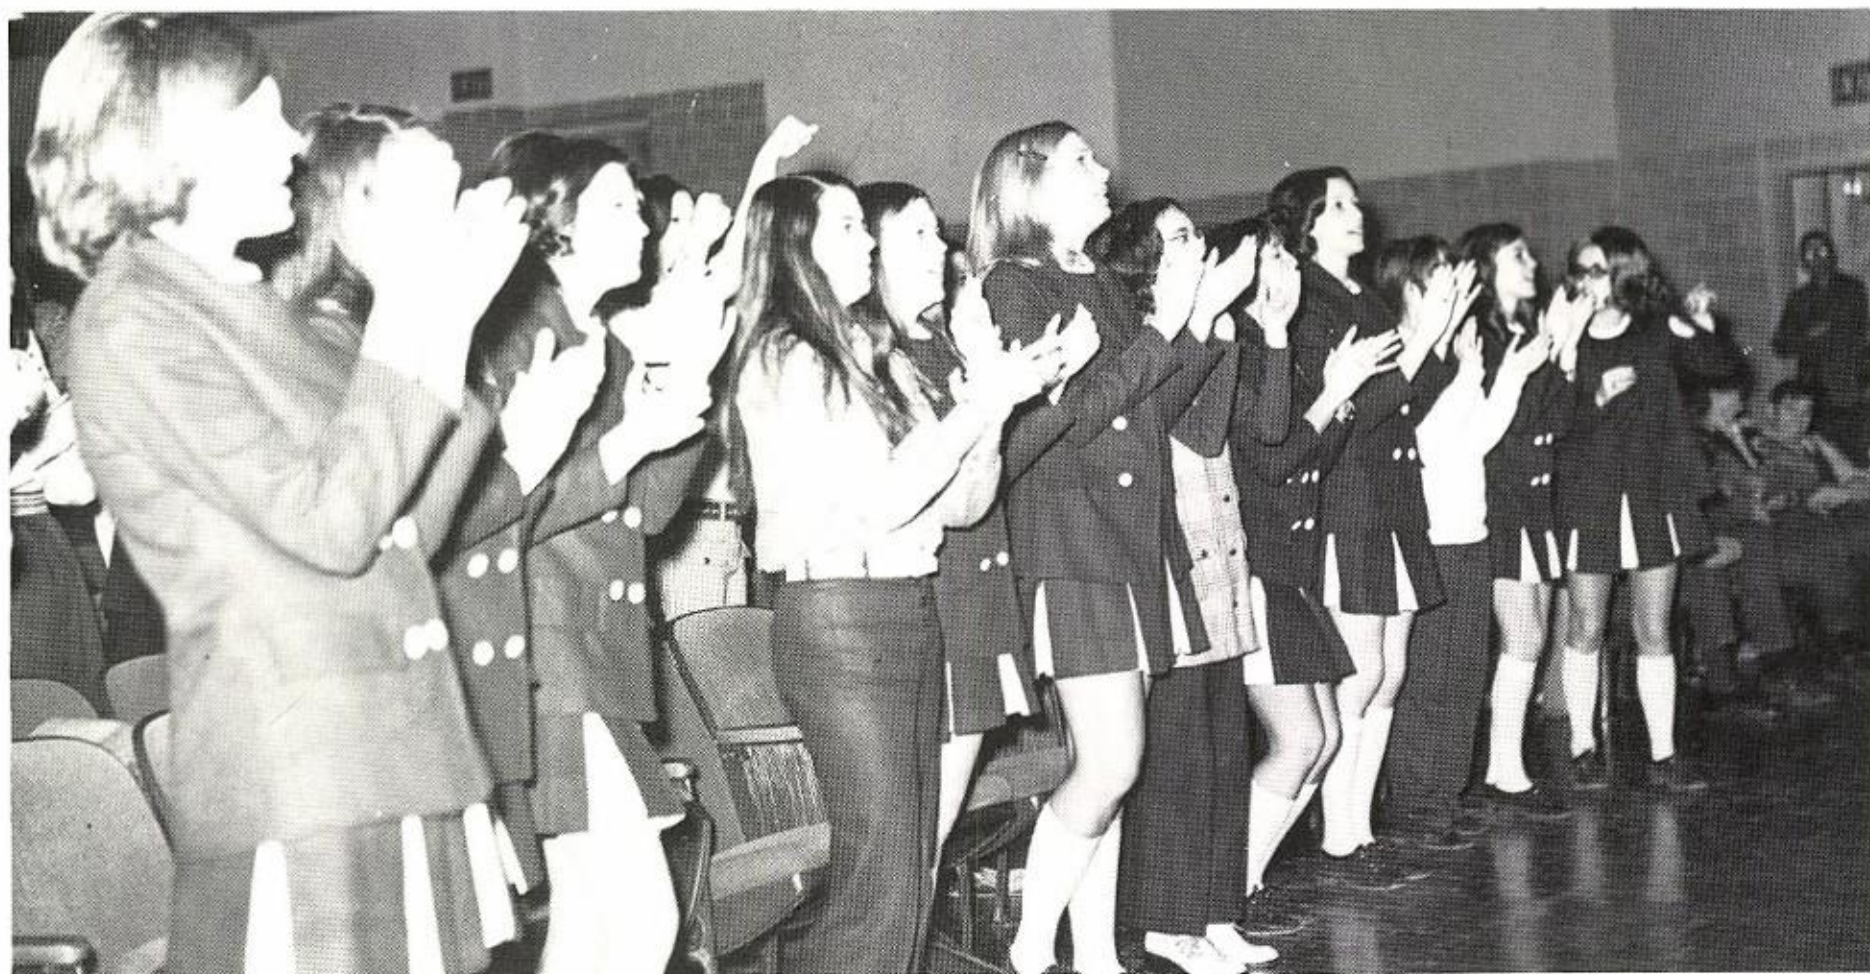

FTA-- On The Move

The FTA was really on the move this year. FTA members went to their District Conference in October and the State Conference in March. Activities this year included a Bake Sale in September and the Bookmobile in December.

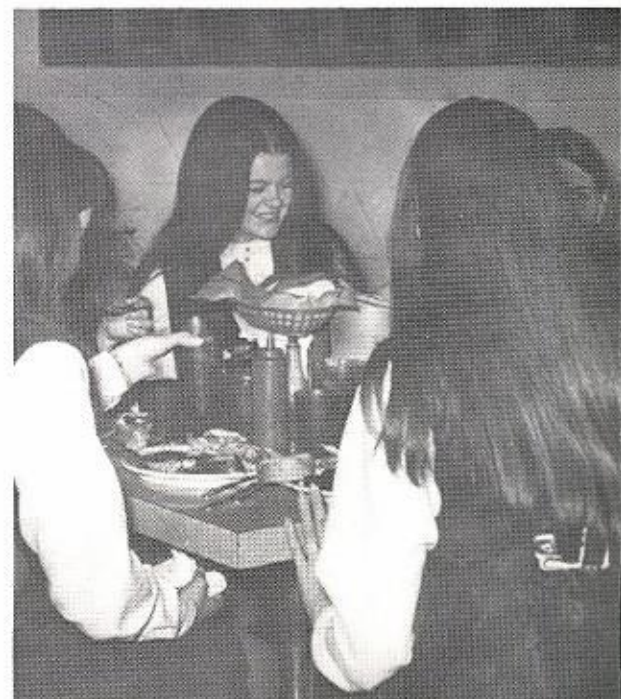

FTA Officers this year were Betty Gully, President, also State Vice President, Mary Jane Owens, Vice President, Neva Fiegal, Secretary, also District Representative, Carol McGee, Treasurer, Cheryl Webb, Reporter, Pat Bolt, Historian and Carol Efurd, Chaplain. Sponsor this year was Mrs. Mascene Biswell.

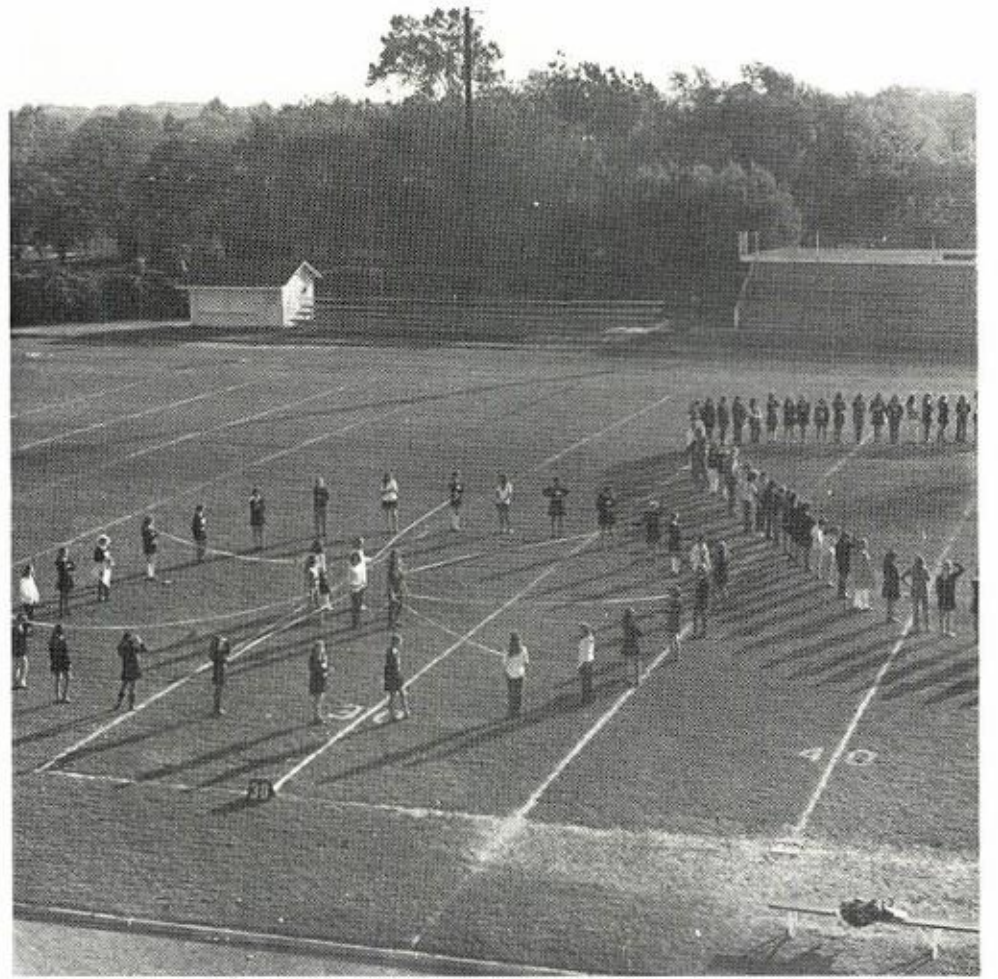

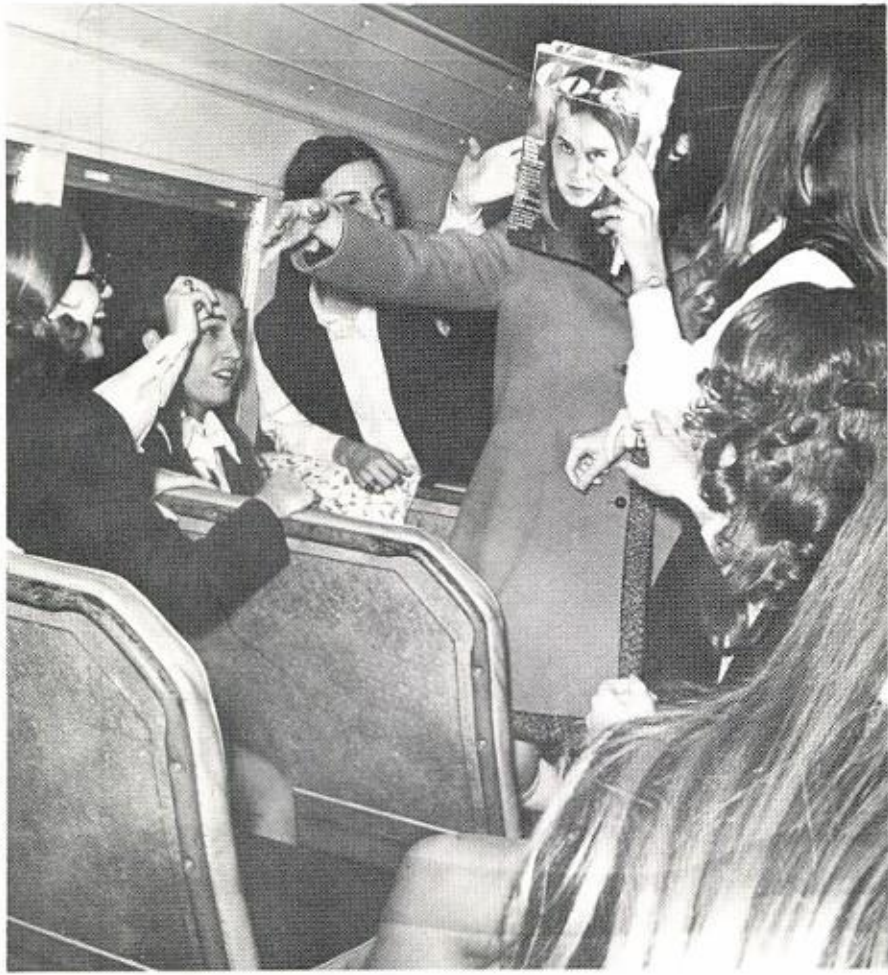

New Things Happened!

Pep Club's main objective is to support the Wolves, but this year they proved themselves as much more. Getting out and working hard to be able to take chartered busses to Altus for the state semi-finals was a task they conquered. Talking Reynolds into going to the Ada tournament and eating before the game at Bob's Barbecue was truly a lot of fun. Some girls, in between having their fun on the busses, marched as tin soldiers in the Christmas parade. Most important, though, was how the pep club gave all their support to the Wolves throughout the year.

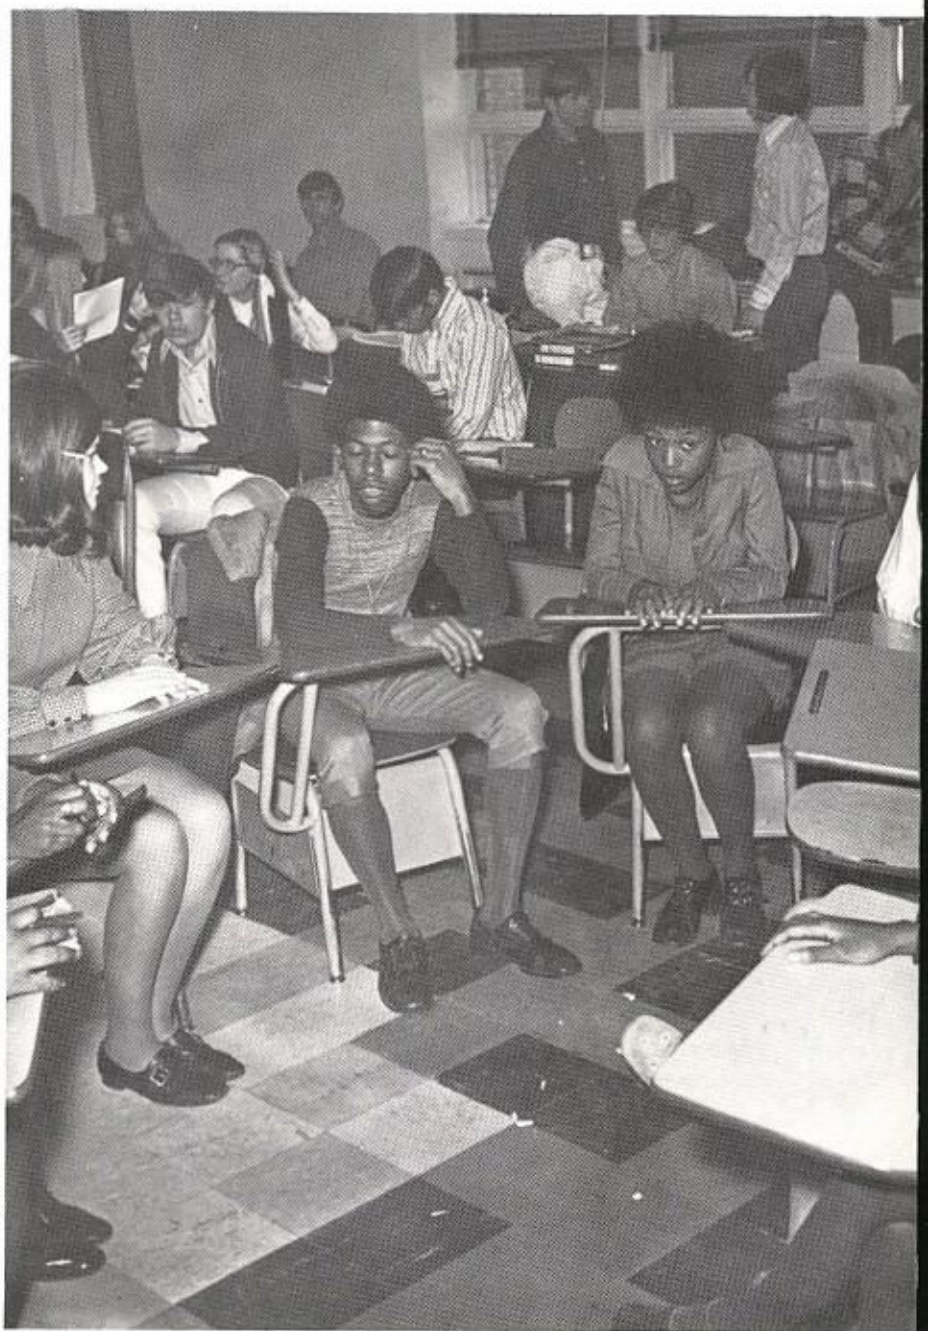

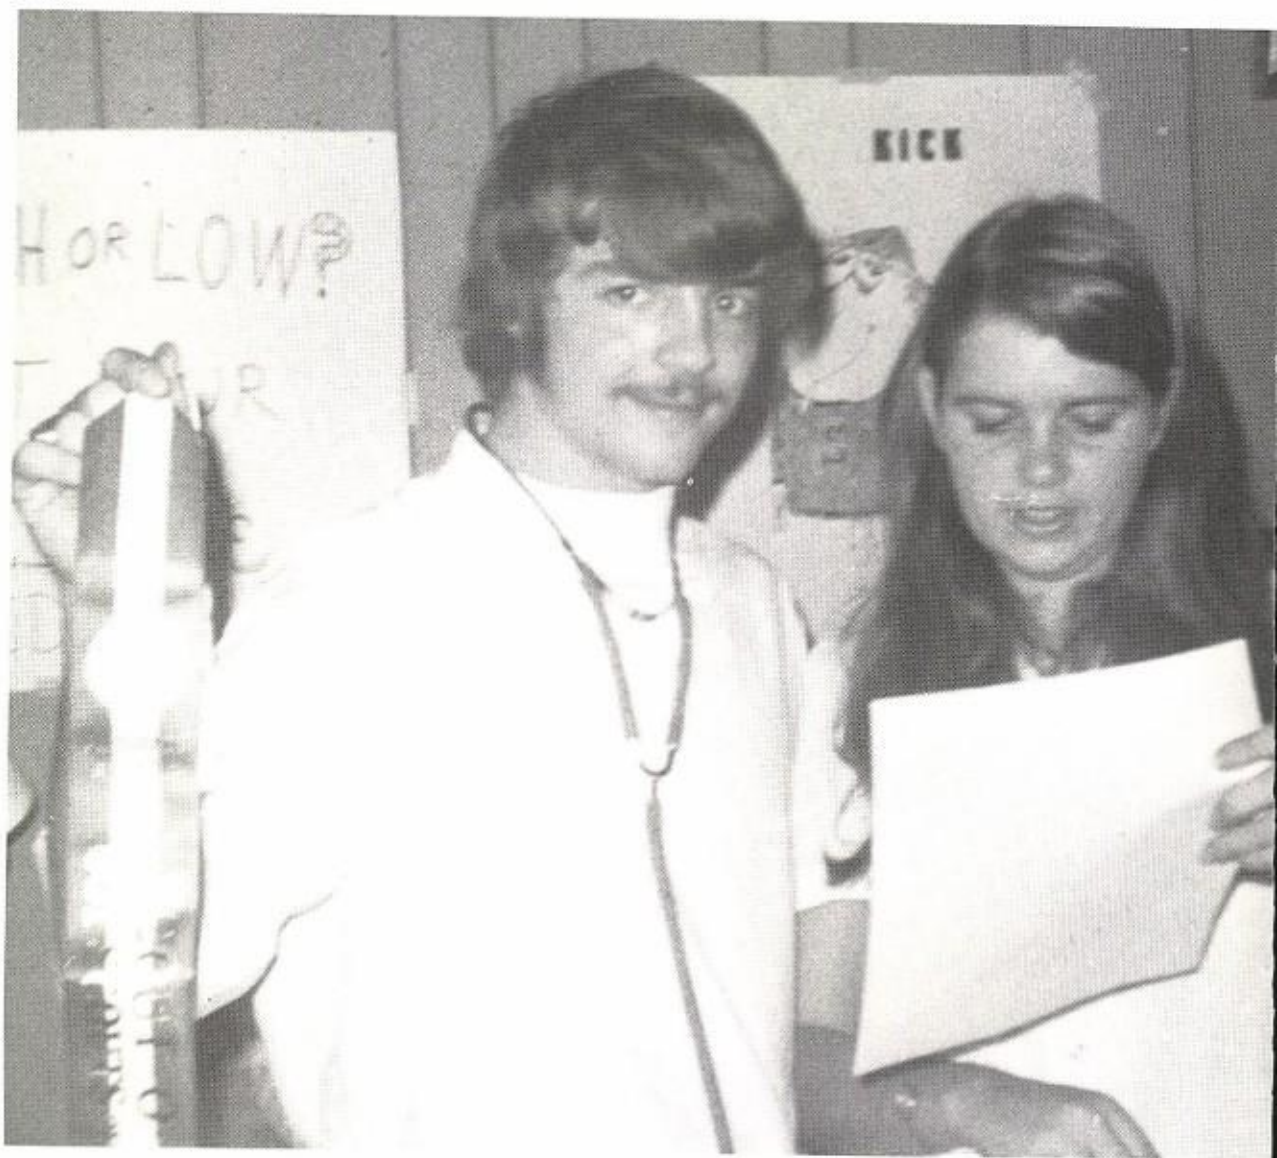

Another Winning Year

Medical Explorers is a club that helps prepare the members for future studies in the medical field.

Med Ex showed their talents at the Scoutarama, held on November 19 and 20, in Oklahoma City. Entering in this event the past four years, the post has received high honors each time, three of which have been the Presidential Citation, the highest honor awarded.

Their booth this year was a service booth to those attending the event. Members typed blood, took blood pressures, ran E.K.G.'s, and instructed the public on heart-lung resuscitation.

Organizations

Aid School

Life

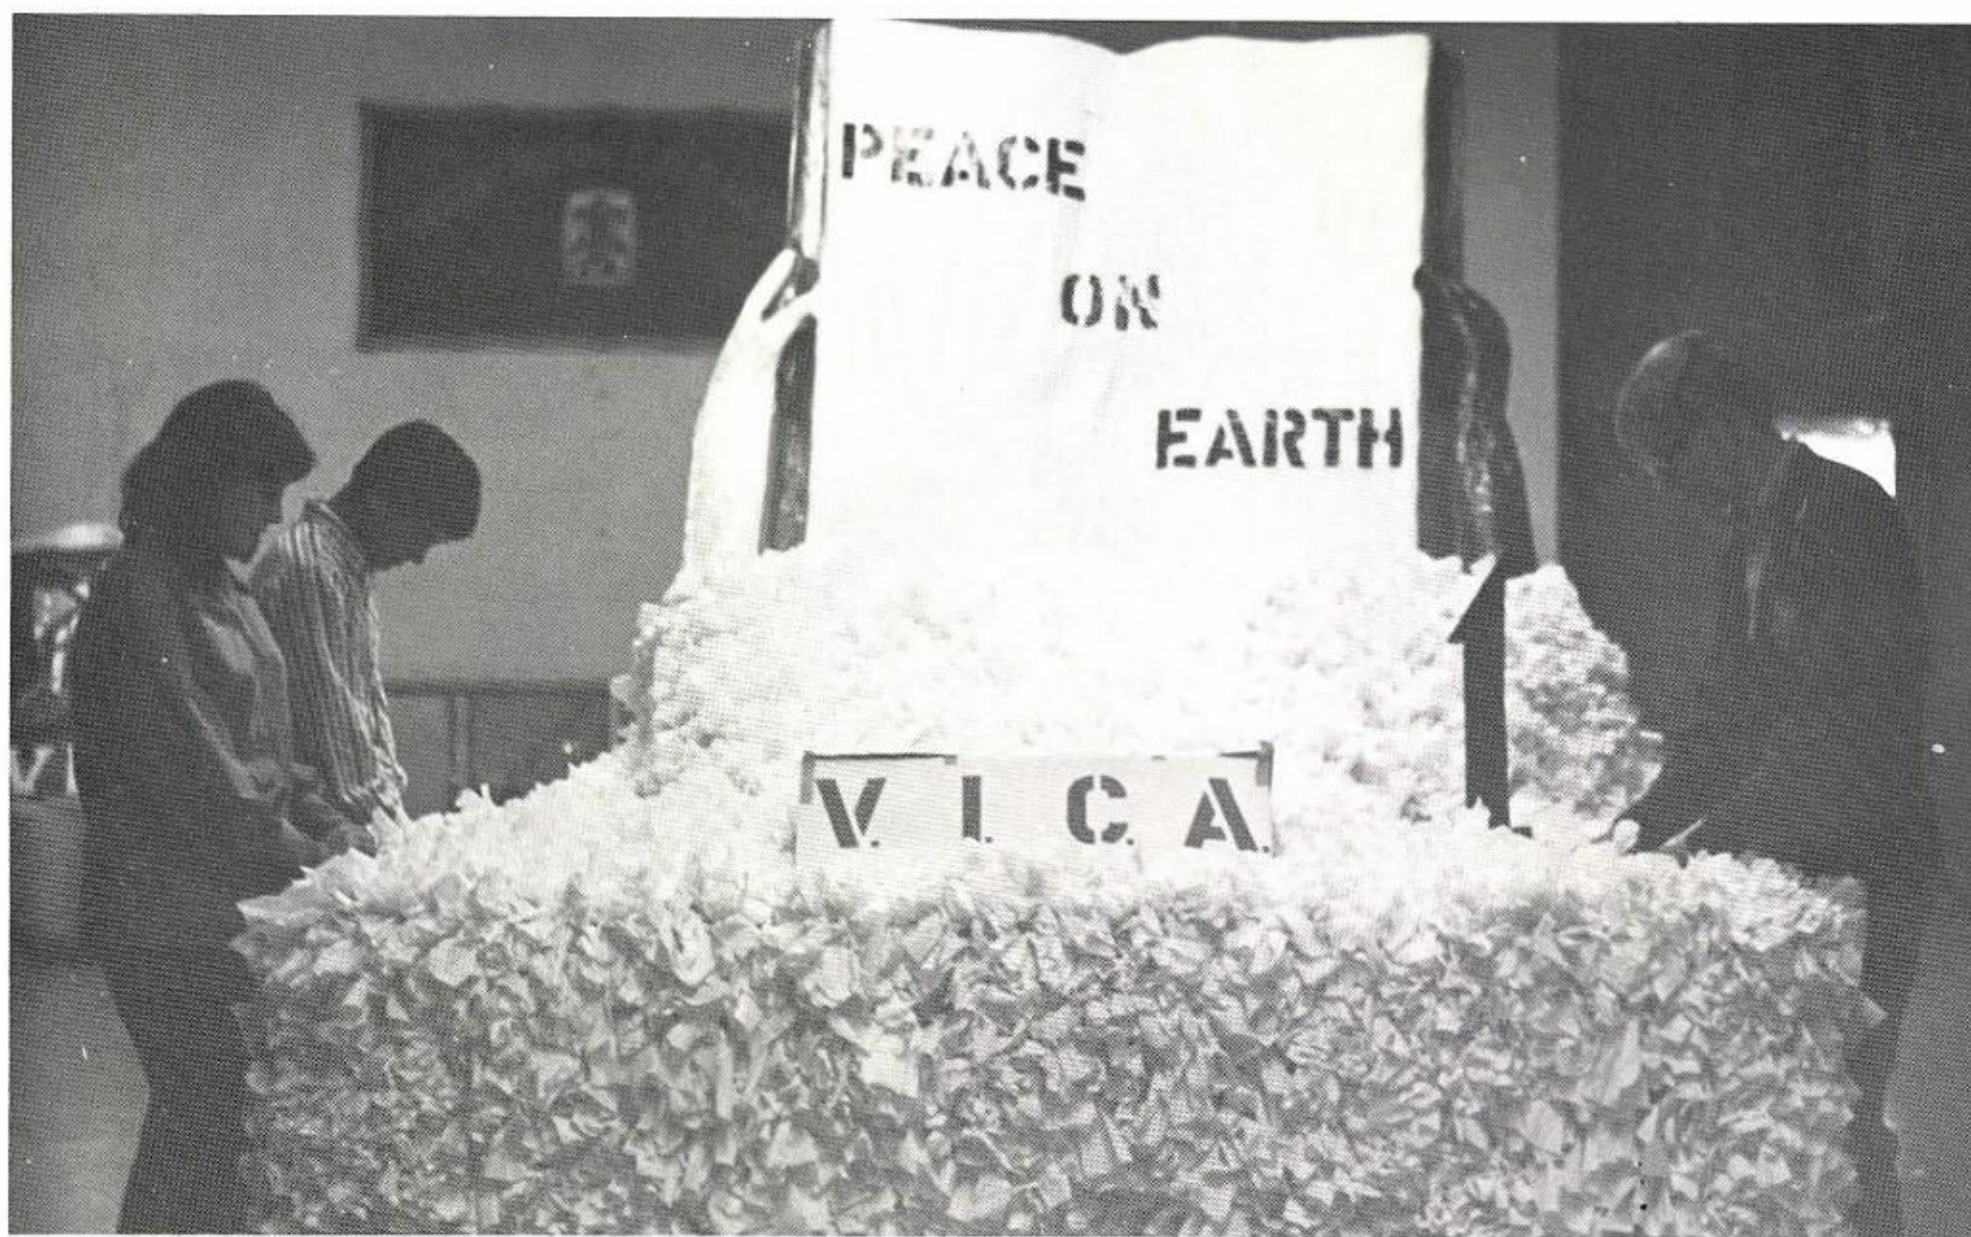

E.S.P., Law Analysis, and Student Unity work to help the development of our school.

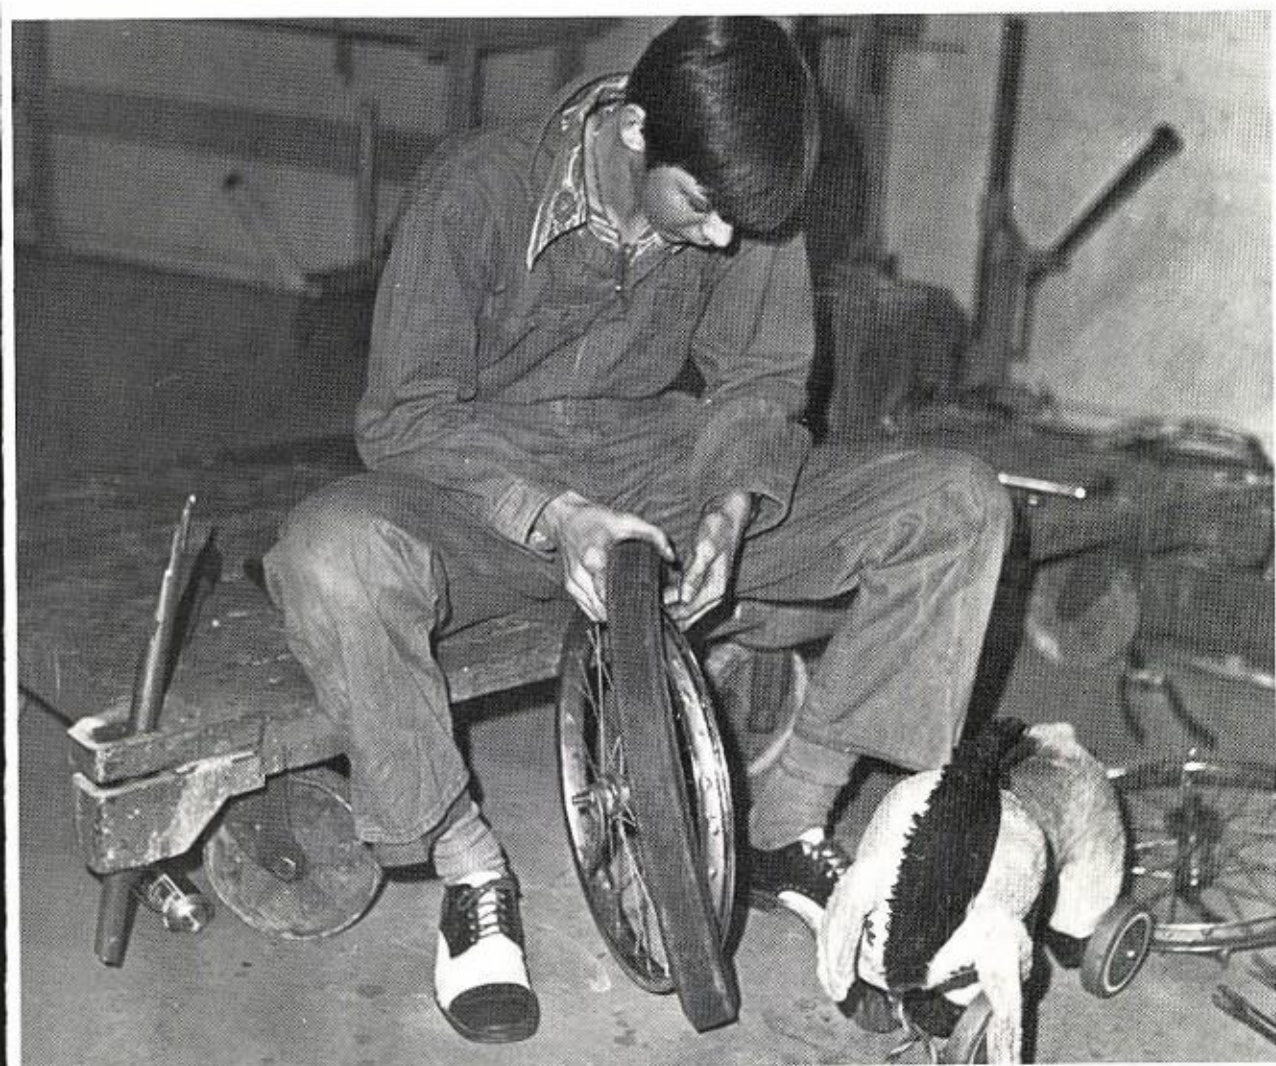

Eagle Scout Patrol, known as E.S. P., aid the school in fire and tornado drills. Not only do they help the school, but they also help the community in emergencies.

In its second year, Student Unity is doing a good job trying to promote the relationships between the different races of S.H.S. With the help of their sponsor, Miss Castleberry, the annual Freak Week was presented.

Helping young men become good lawyers is the purpose of Law Analysis. During the first semester they worked on just the accedemics of law, but as the year continued the members of the group set up mock cases and sometimes participated in real cases.

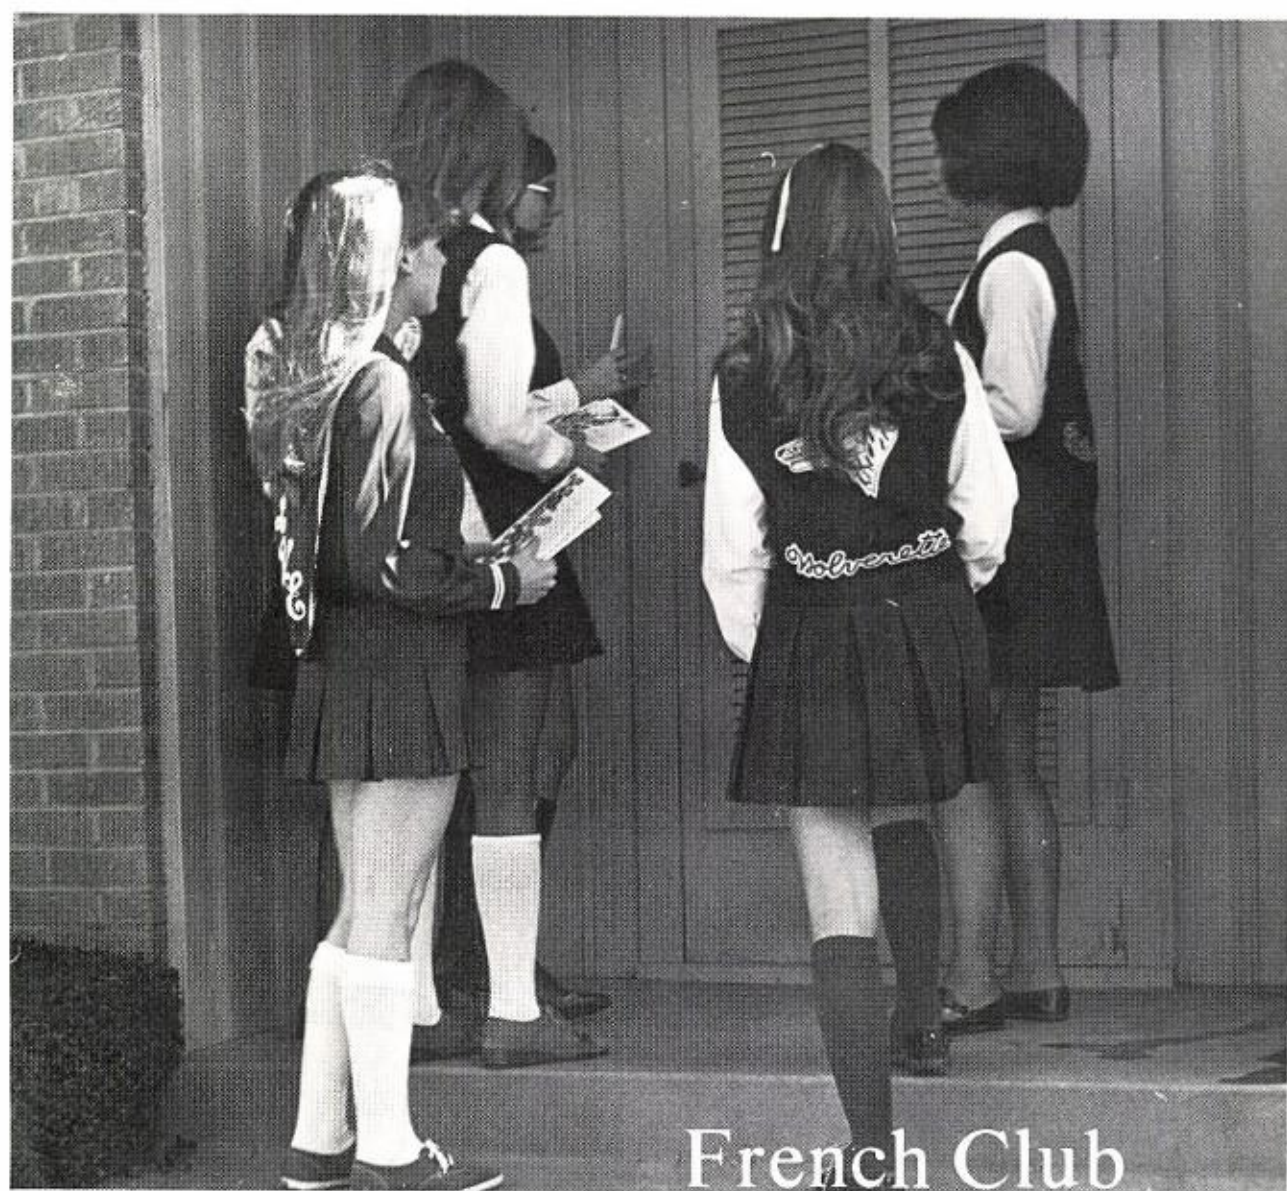

VICA Shows Winning Ways

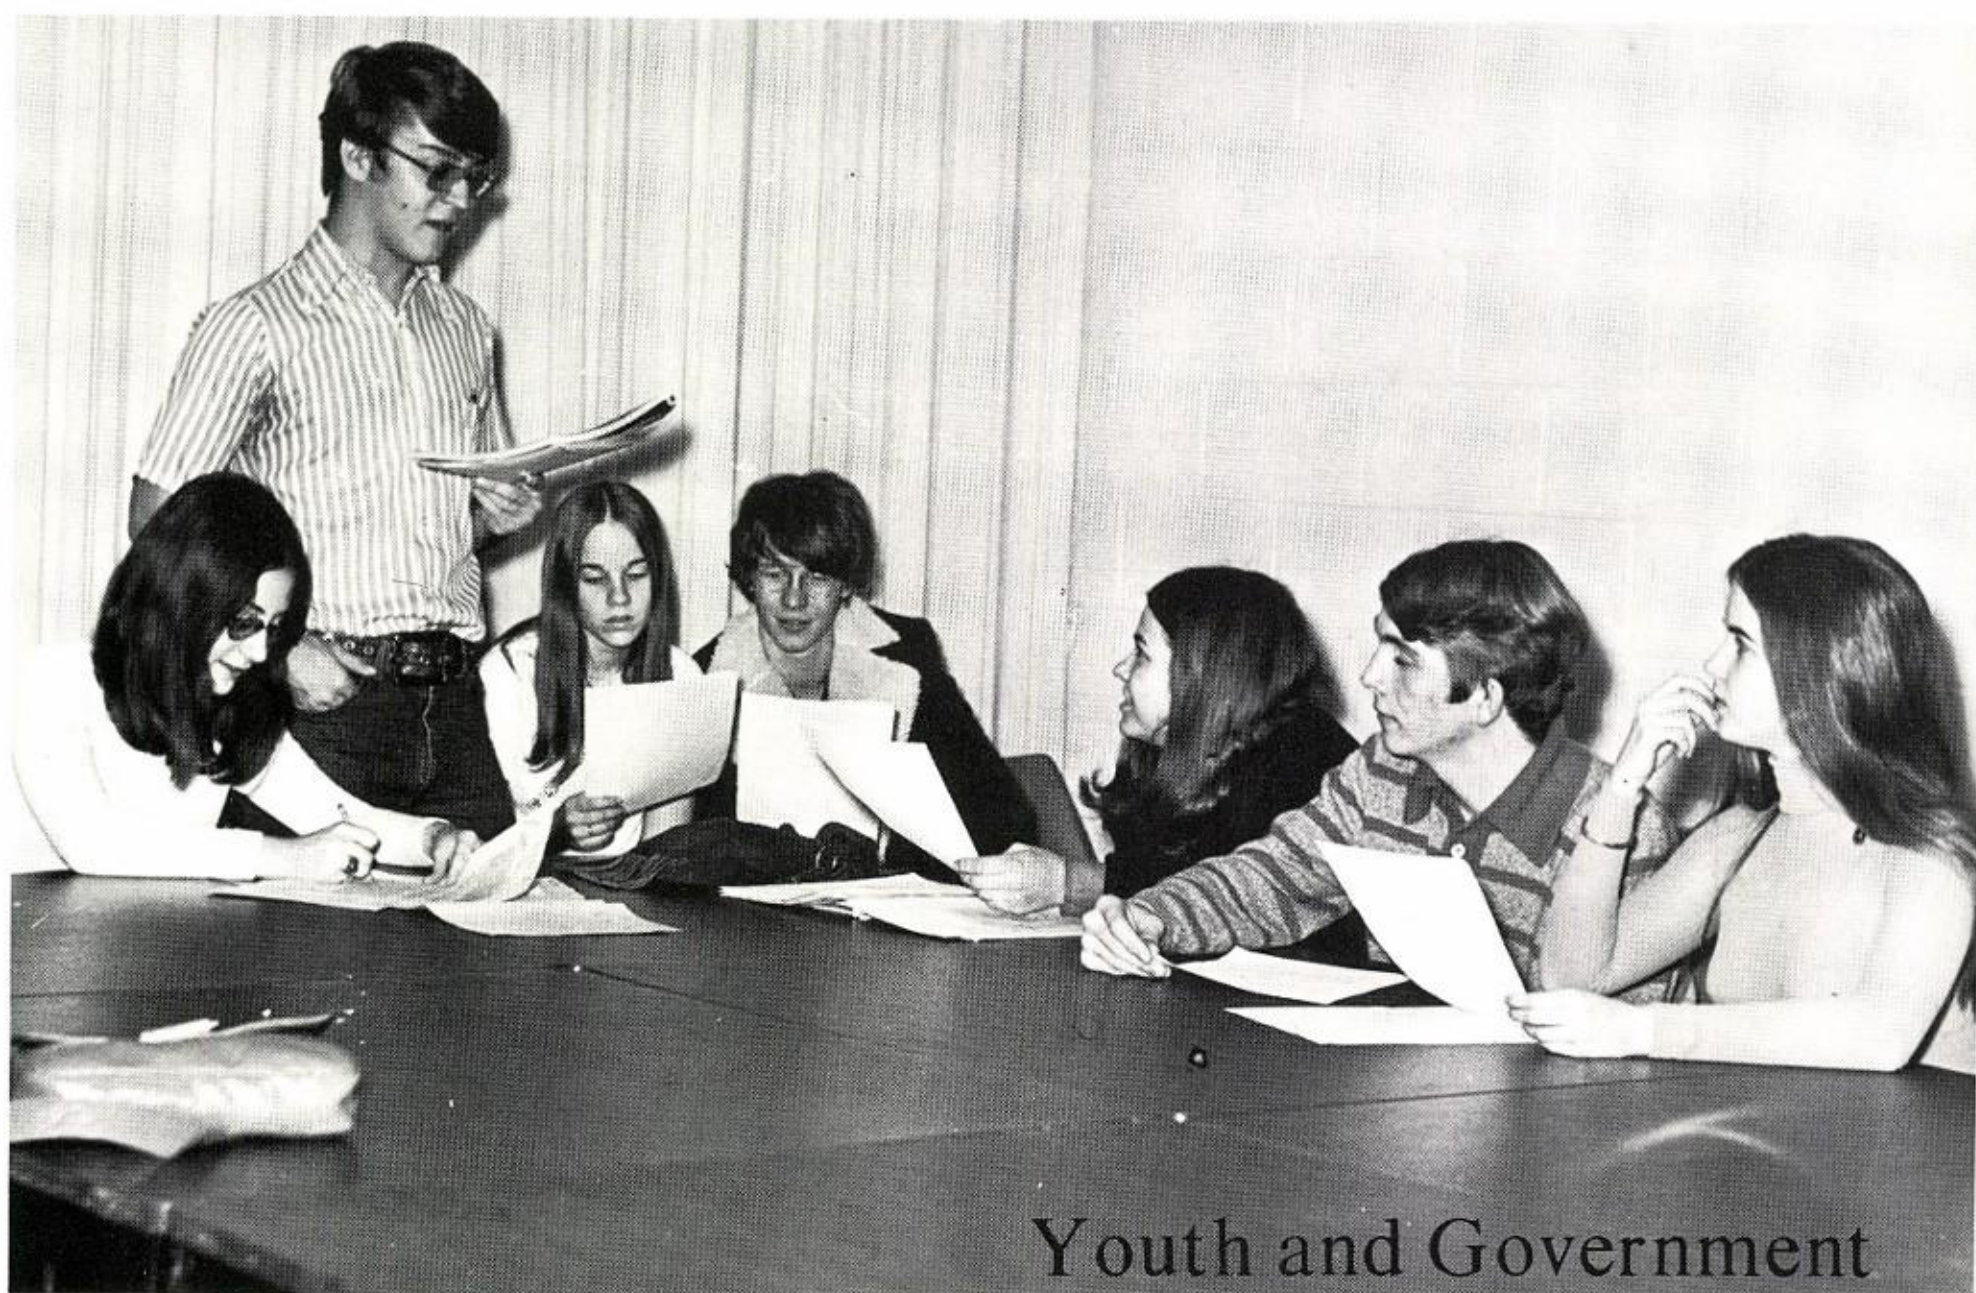

Shawnee High School's Vocational Club of America was out in front this year. In the annual Christmas parade their float placed first in the school division. The VICA members held their fifth annual Christmas party for the orphans at the Wewoka Cosmopolitan Church on December 11. Truck loads of toys, clothes, and candy were presented.

March was the busiest month of the year for VICA. Starting it out was the National VICA week. Other events that followed were the all school assembly, the district conference in Wilburton that elected district officers and the open house, the state conference in May finished off the year.

French Club

Youth and Government

Spanish Club

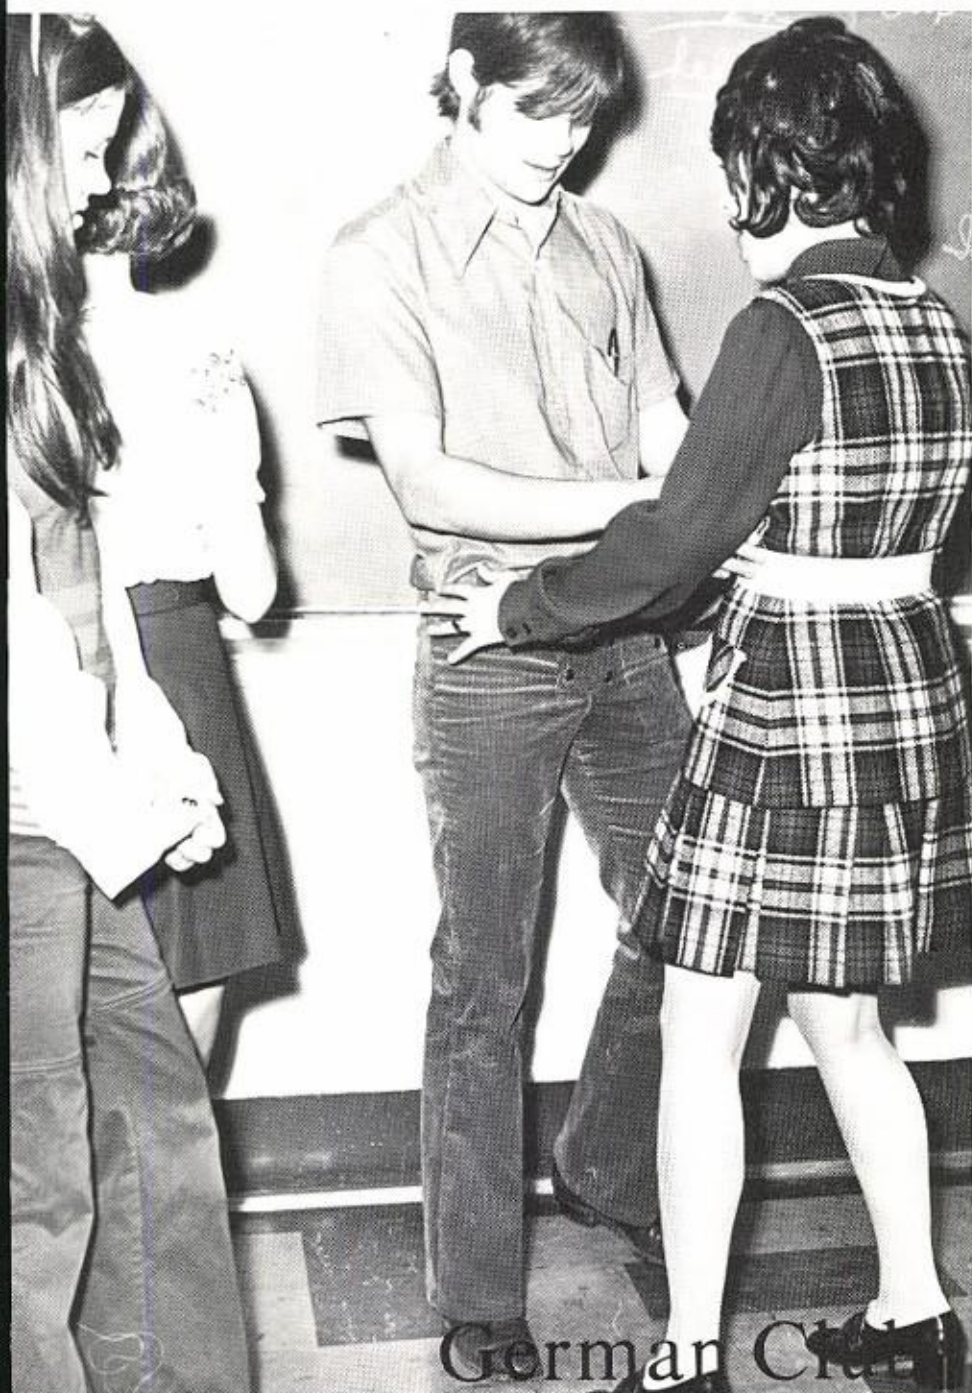

The three language clubs and Youth and Government have made group activities very interesting this year by the individual participation of all.

Among German Club's activities were a Christmas progressive dinner, plays, and a hike. Larry Ersland also taught the members folk dances.

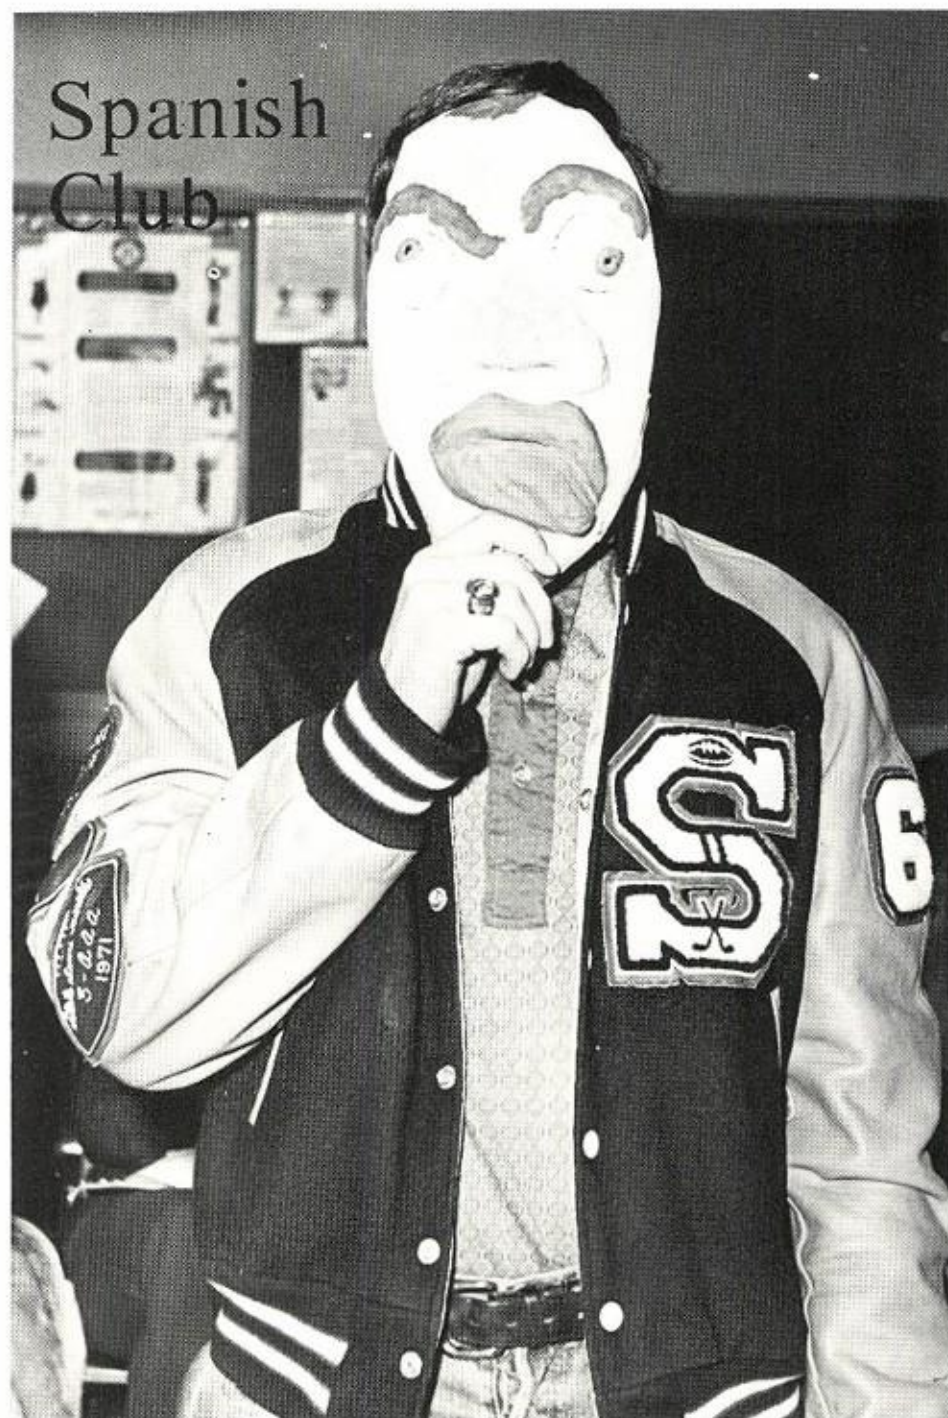

Being its first year, the French Club made a constitution and organized the club. To raise money for their activities the members sold stationery. A Christmas party and going to a French play were some of their activities.

Spanish Club entered a float in the Christmas parade, went to Casa Bonita for dinner, and had a bake sale. In the February meeting certain members performed skits and Tim Pucket was voted El Feo.

Starting the year out Youth and Government prepared for spring activities. Pre-Leg. was a success; many of the group's bills were passed, and several members received high offices in Leg.

German Club

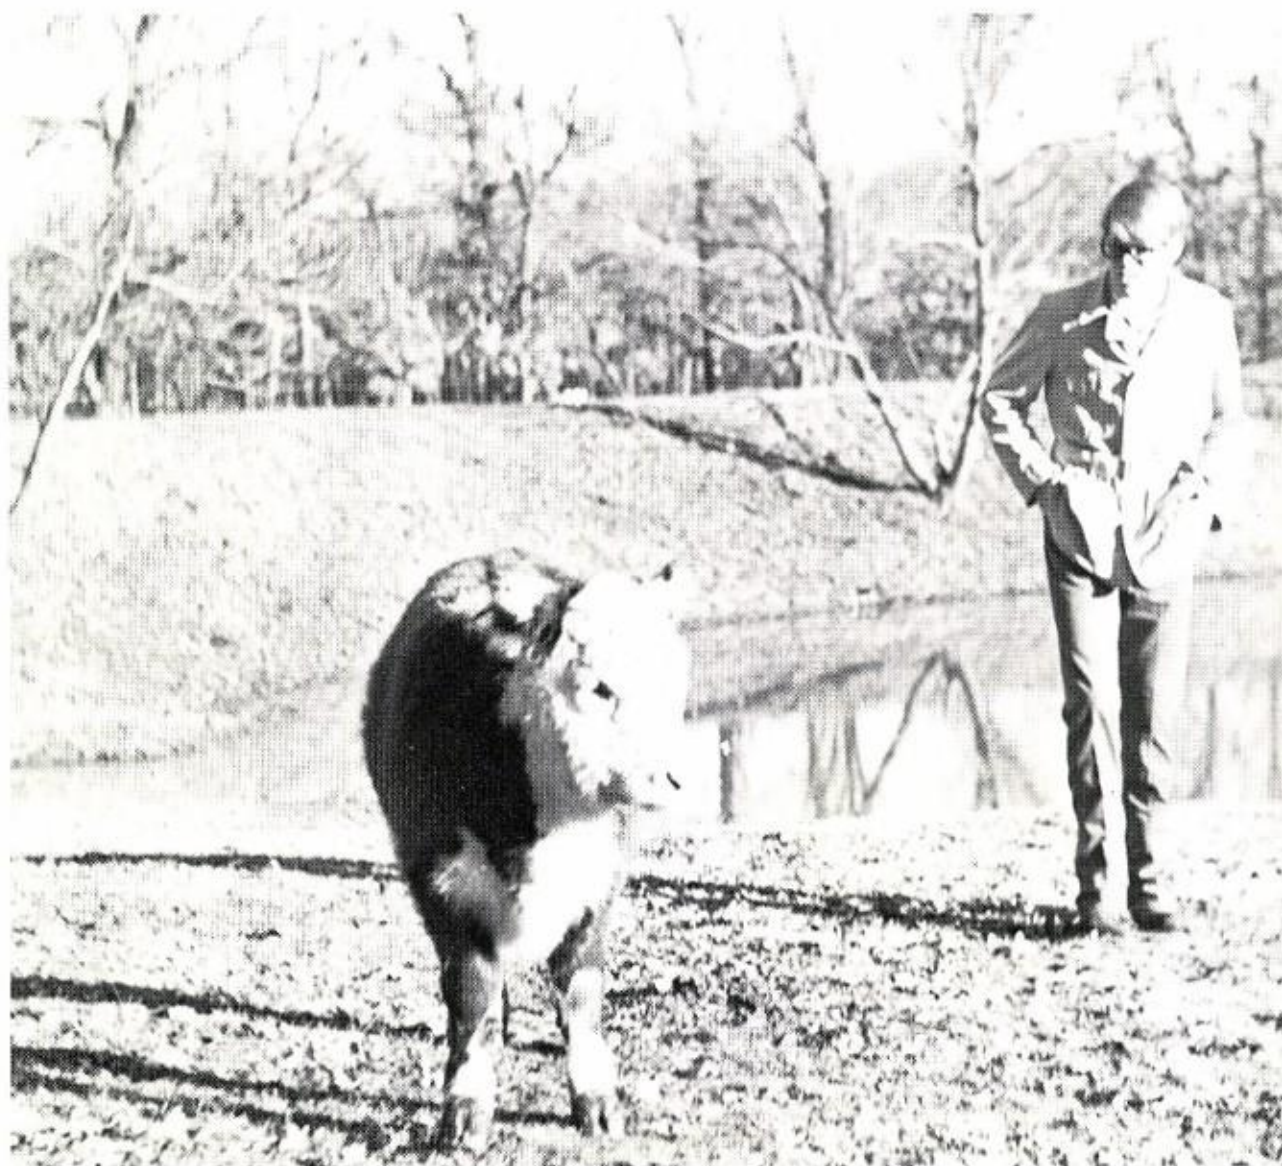

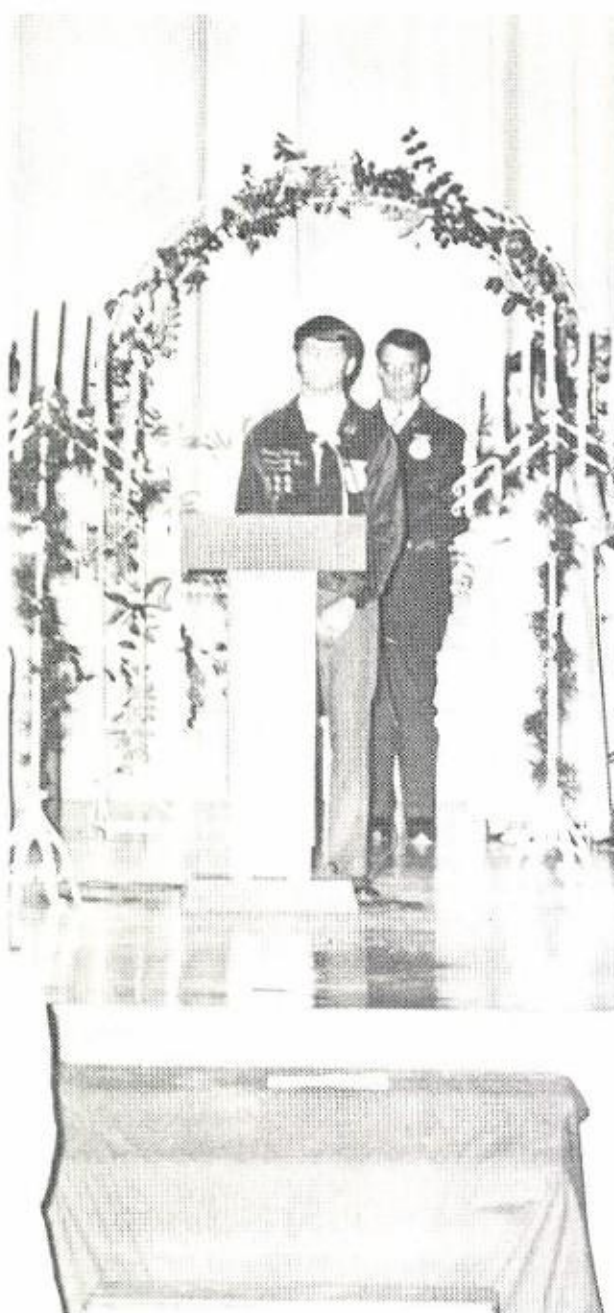

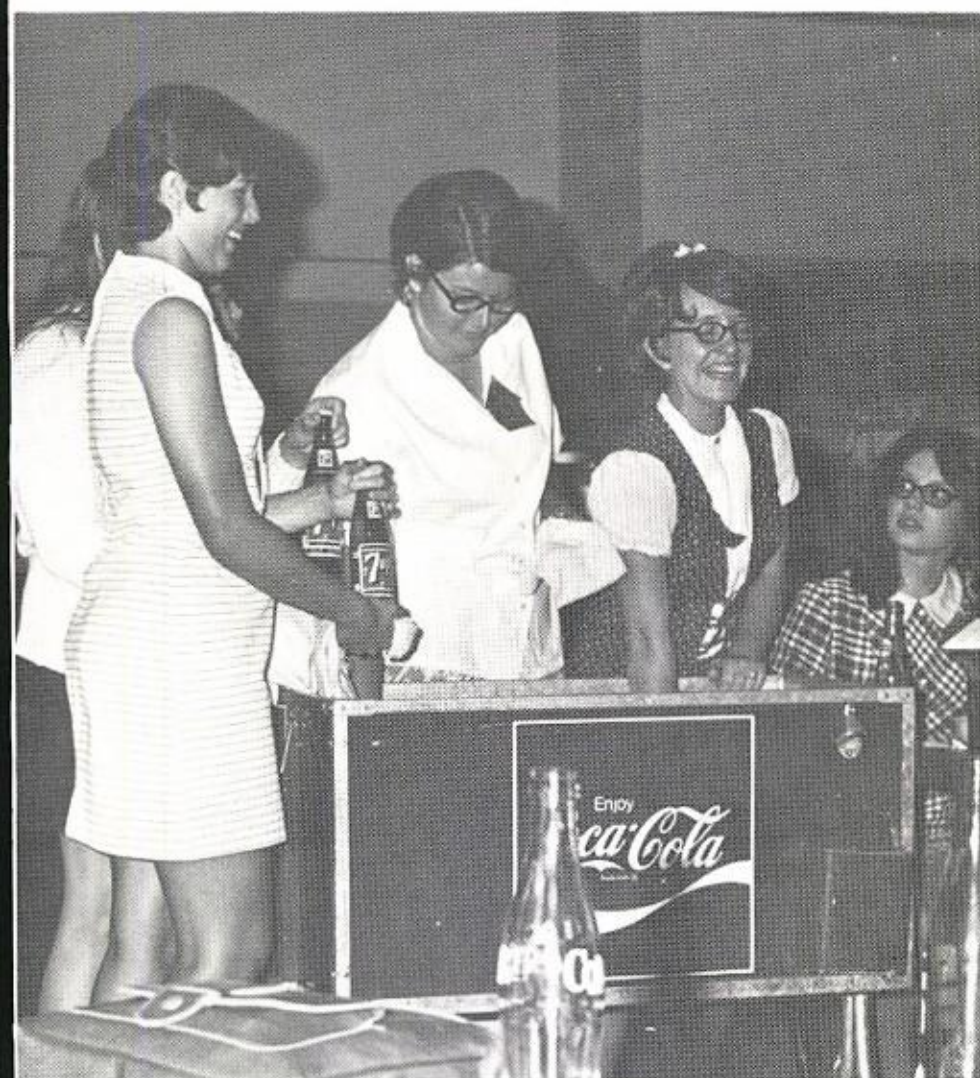

FFA-FHA Work Together

The future Farmers of America with the Future Homemakers of America are not only working to prepare for the future, as their name implies, but actively contributing to the character of our community today.

FHA presented several programs this year. In November a crafts night was given to show their hobbies. A Christmas party was given for small children. Santa was there with treats and gifts. Also during the holidays, the FHA members set aside a night to go caroling. In spring a state rally was held in Oklahoma City, and in April the new officers were elected.

FFA took time from their schedule to help FHA with the installation which was held on October 11, in the High School auditorium. Also FFA participated in the county fair showing livestock.

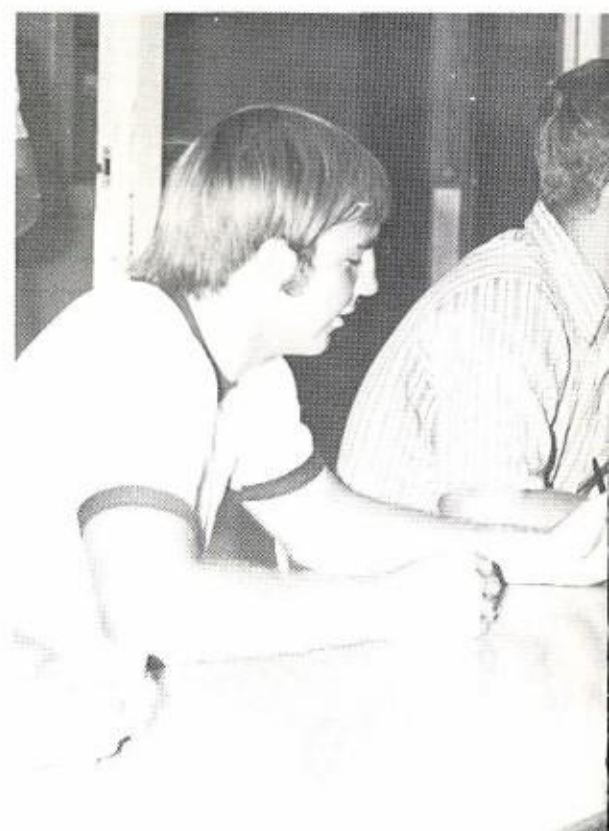

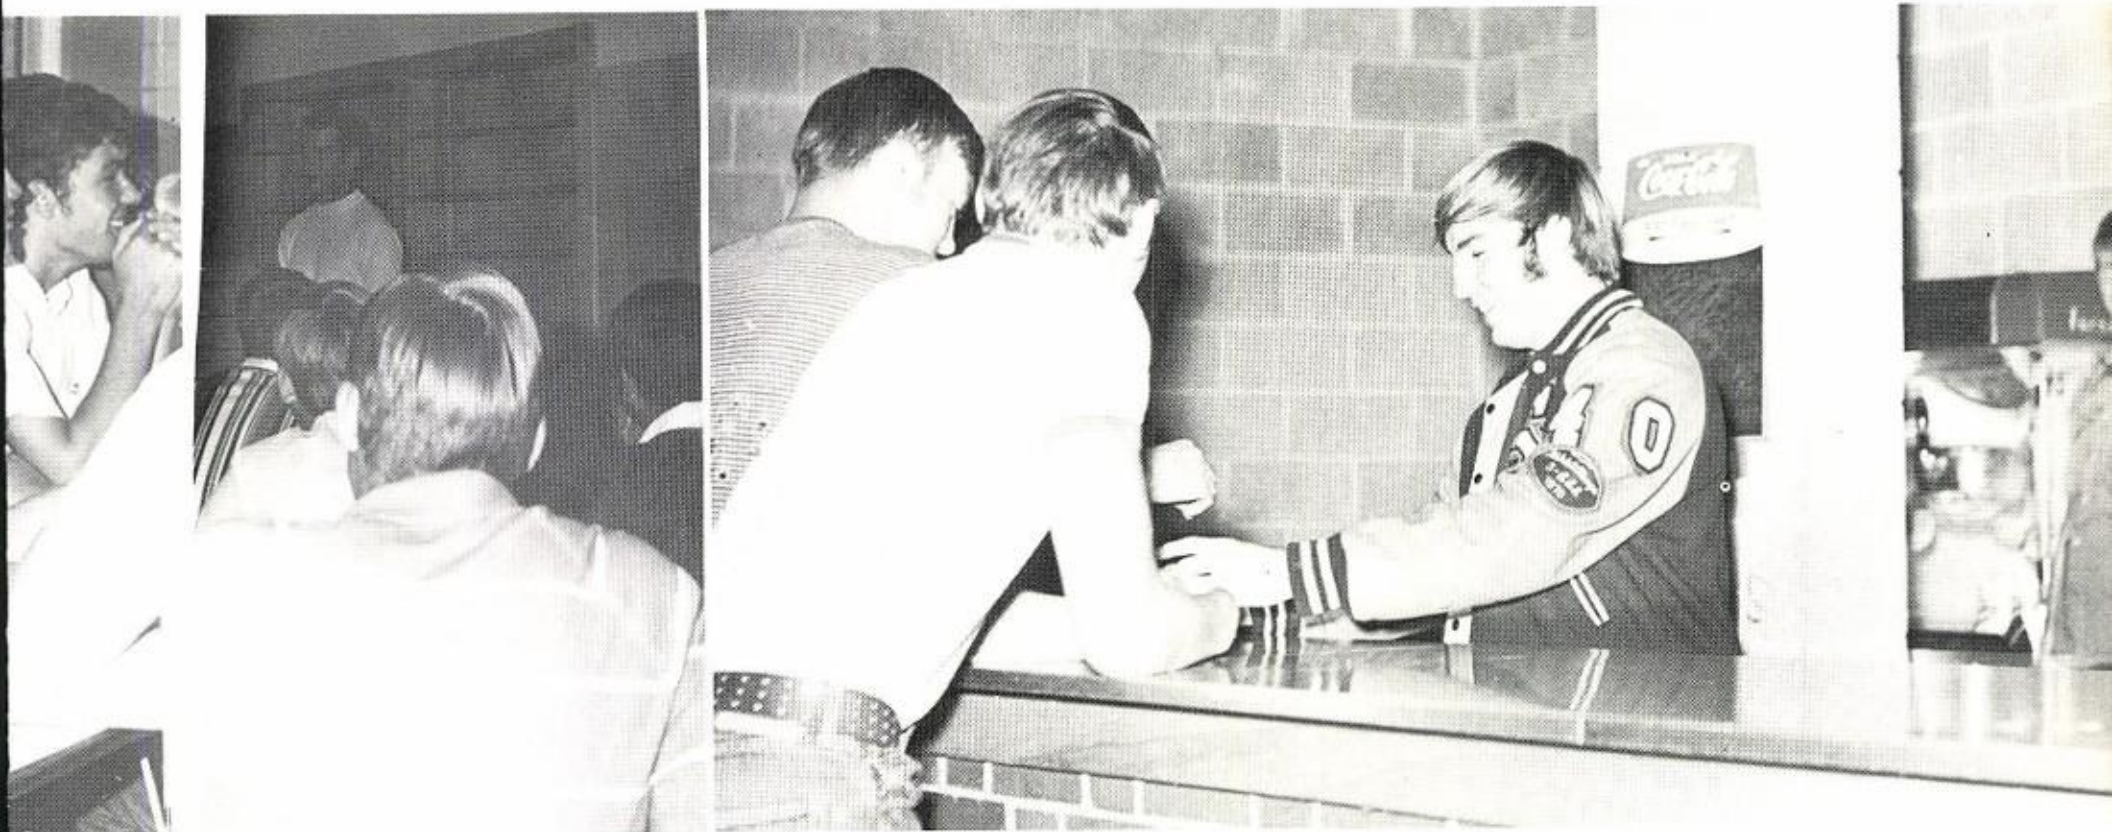

S-CLUB

S-Club was busy with their annual projects. As usual S-Club members worked at football games by selling programs and by working the concession stand at both home basketball games and the County Tournament. The proceeds this year as always will go for the Senior lettermen and women for their letter jackets. As an added incentive to for future S-Club candidates, girls were admitted for the first time.

Officers this year were Coy Everett, President, Andrew Coates, Vice-President, Roger Steed, Secretary, and Robert Capps, Treasurer.

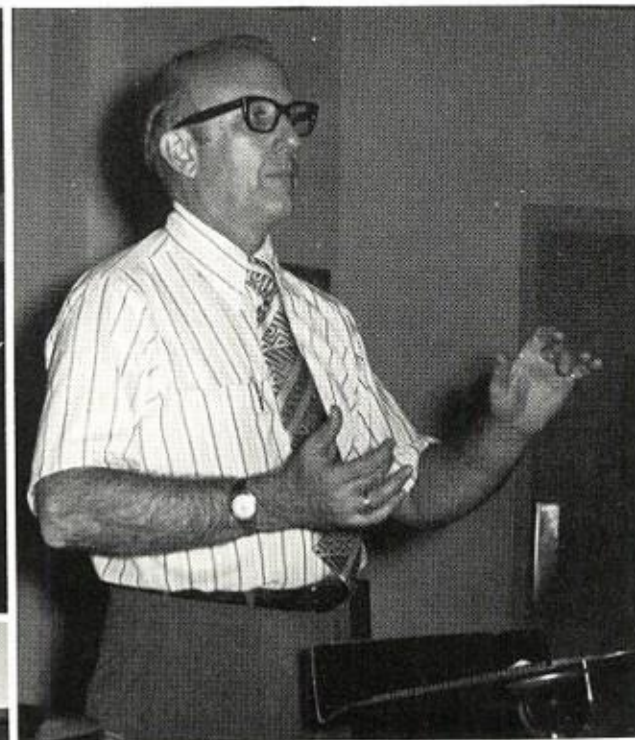

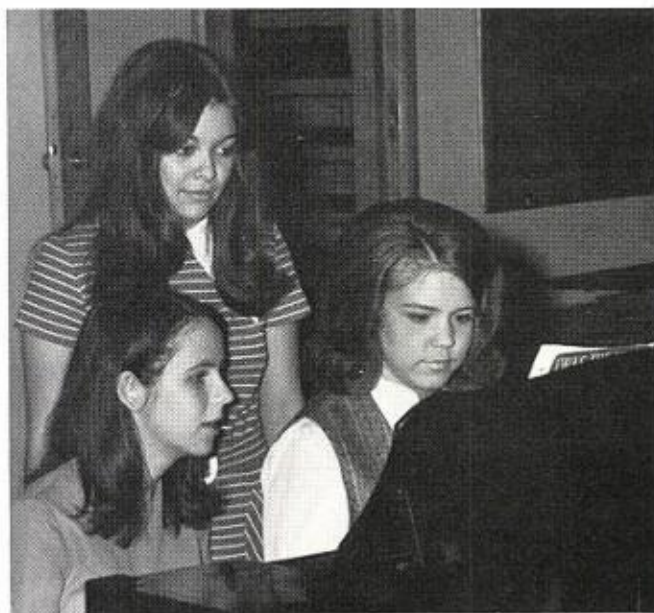

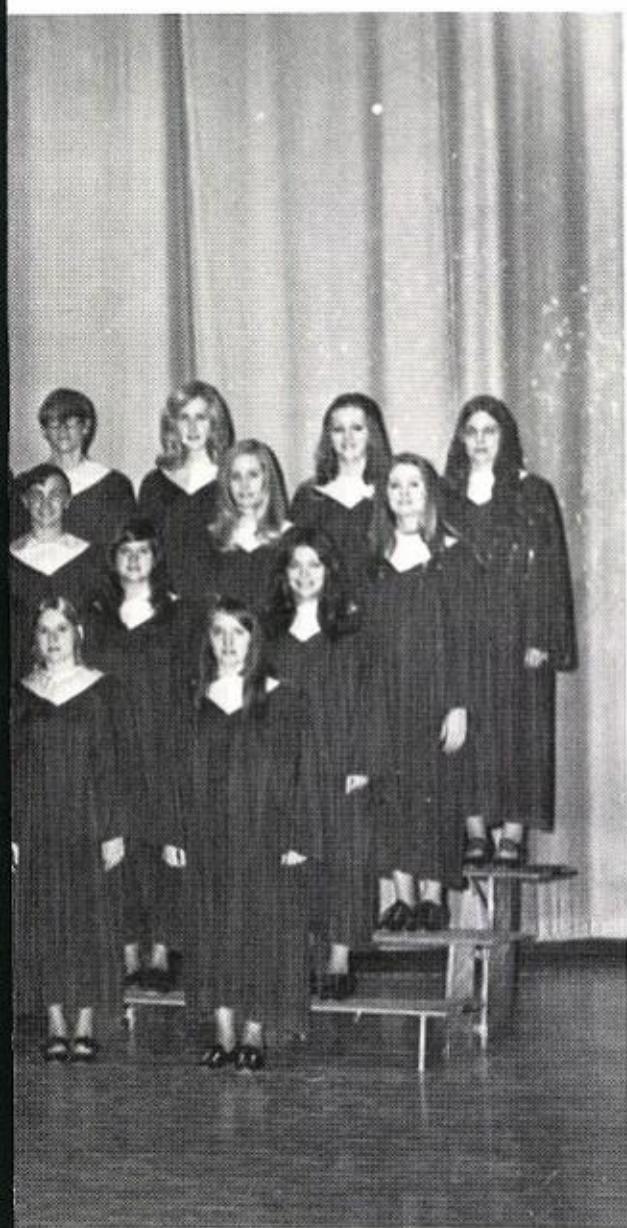

Choruses Strive for Perfection

During the year the three chorus groups worked hard under the guidance of Mr. Johnson to perfect the many programs they performed. Among the programs was the Christmas program which featured the mixed, select, and girl choruses in a massed chorus with the orchestra. Everyone enjoyed the annual Spring Concert.

The district and state contests were held in the spring for soloists and small group ensembles. Try-outs were held in November for All-State Choruses.

Among the important members of the chorus groups were the piano accompanists, Jenny Purkey, Debbie Boyd, and Carolyn Burrows. Also the trio of Cathy Bailey, Becky Kingham, and Janie Harper.

TRI-HI-Y

Giving and sharing much of their time, Tri-Hi-Y members had a very successful year. Nancy Eversole did a superb job leading the group first semester. Selling Shawnee Wolves stickers was the money making project to provide for their annual Snowman dance. Serving the community, the Tri-Hi-Y members did an all out job with Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for needy families. Giving $100.00 for World Service and decorating for the O.A.S.C. dance were two other projects they accomplished.

Leading the way during 2nd semester was Mignon Rogers. Keeping to tradition the Senior girls had their annual style show with the help of the sophomore and junior girls, this being not only a fun project but their biggest money making project. Sponsoring the TWRIPP week dance, donating their service to Child's World and providing for an Easter basket sums up most of the accomplishments by Tri-Hi-Y throughout the year.

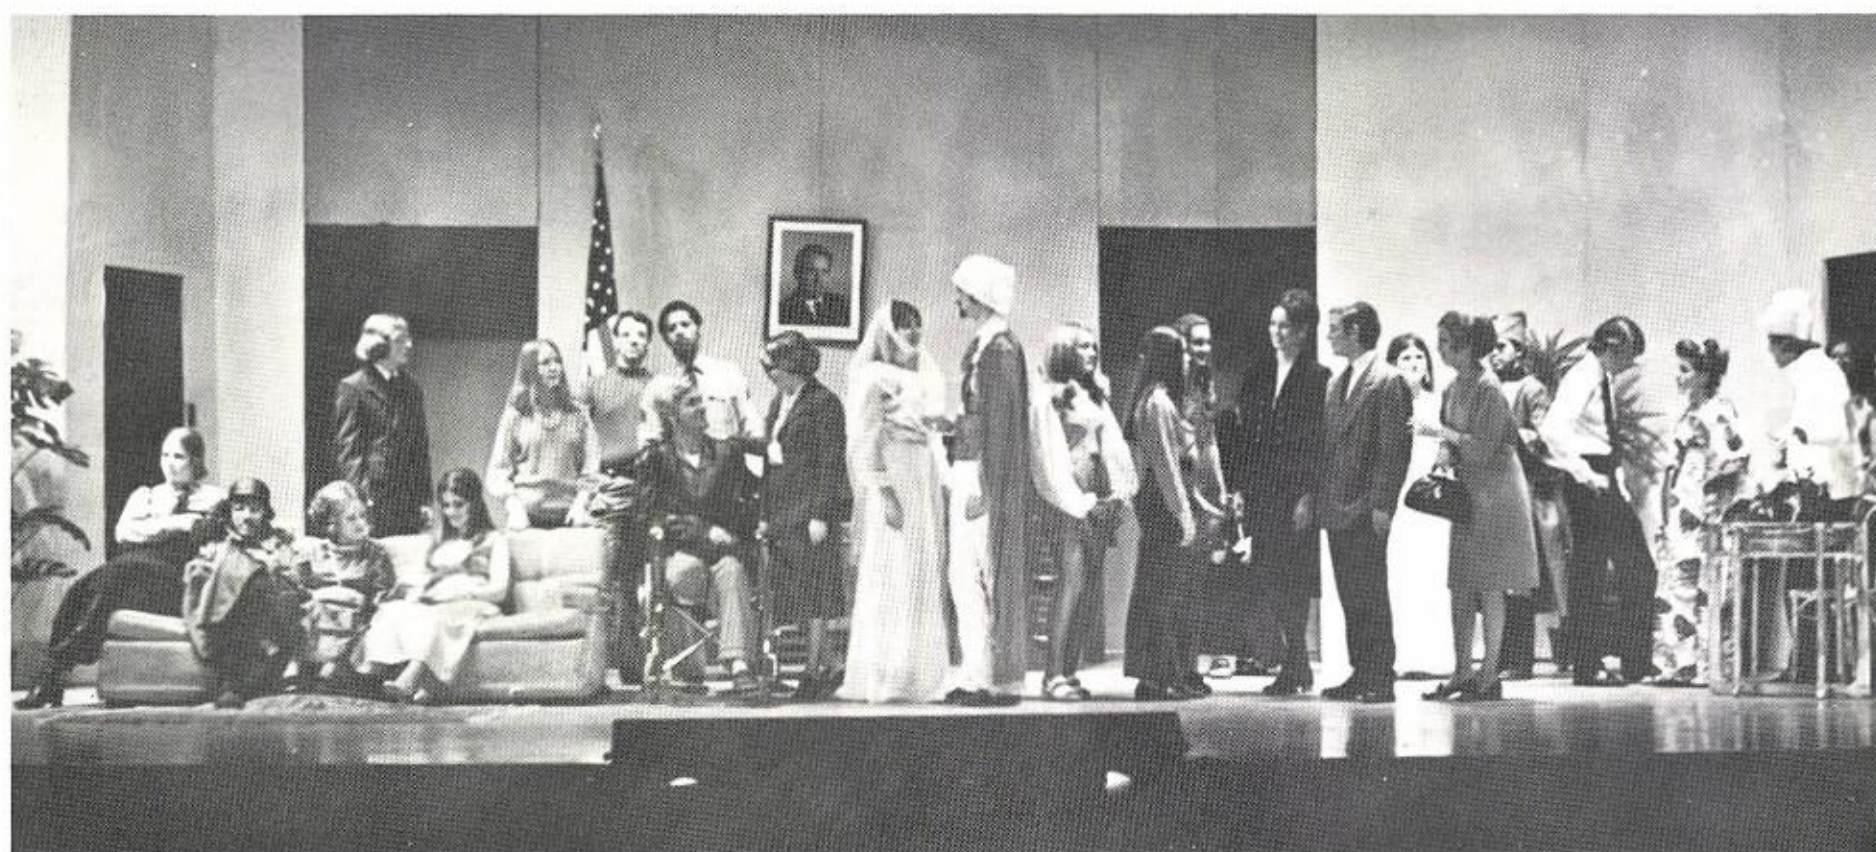

HI-Y

In their 50th year of organization Hi-Y hosted a get-together for old members as one of their projects for the year. Showing the film flicks and painting curbs were the main money making projects for the club. Robert Mitchell and Steve Long lead the Hi-Y through the year with the help of their hard working Sweetheart, Beth Fisher.

BAND Marches On

Once again the Pride of SHS lived up to its high standard of musicianship. Performing at halftime at the football games and in concert later in the year the band contributes much to SHS. During football season the band, led by Drum Majors Richard Alexander and Steve Kinnett, performed precision drills at halftime of most home games. Twice featured with fire batons were twirlers Shelee Ford, Manette Young, Melody Putnam, and Elizabeth Eyer. While the band performed at halftime the band parents worked in the concession stand to raise money for uniforms and instruments. Also performing at basketball games was the SHS Pep Band.

This year the Band boasts two All-State band members, Bill Brewer and Bill Behlen. Director of the band is Buddy Allen.

LASTER

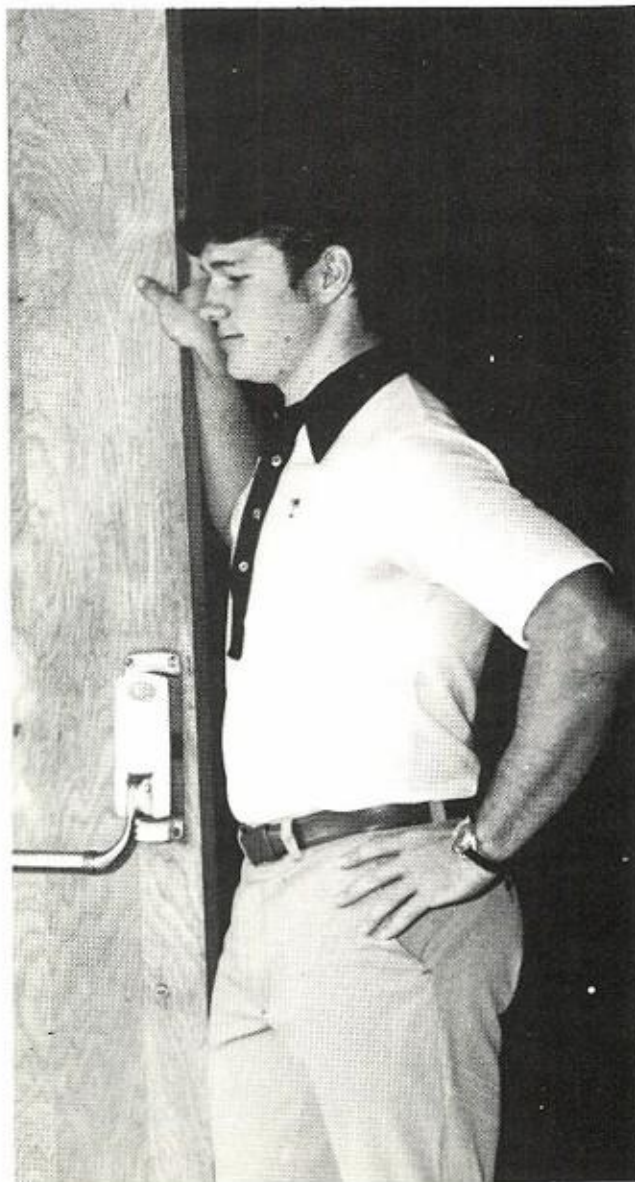

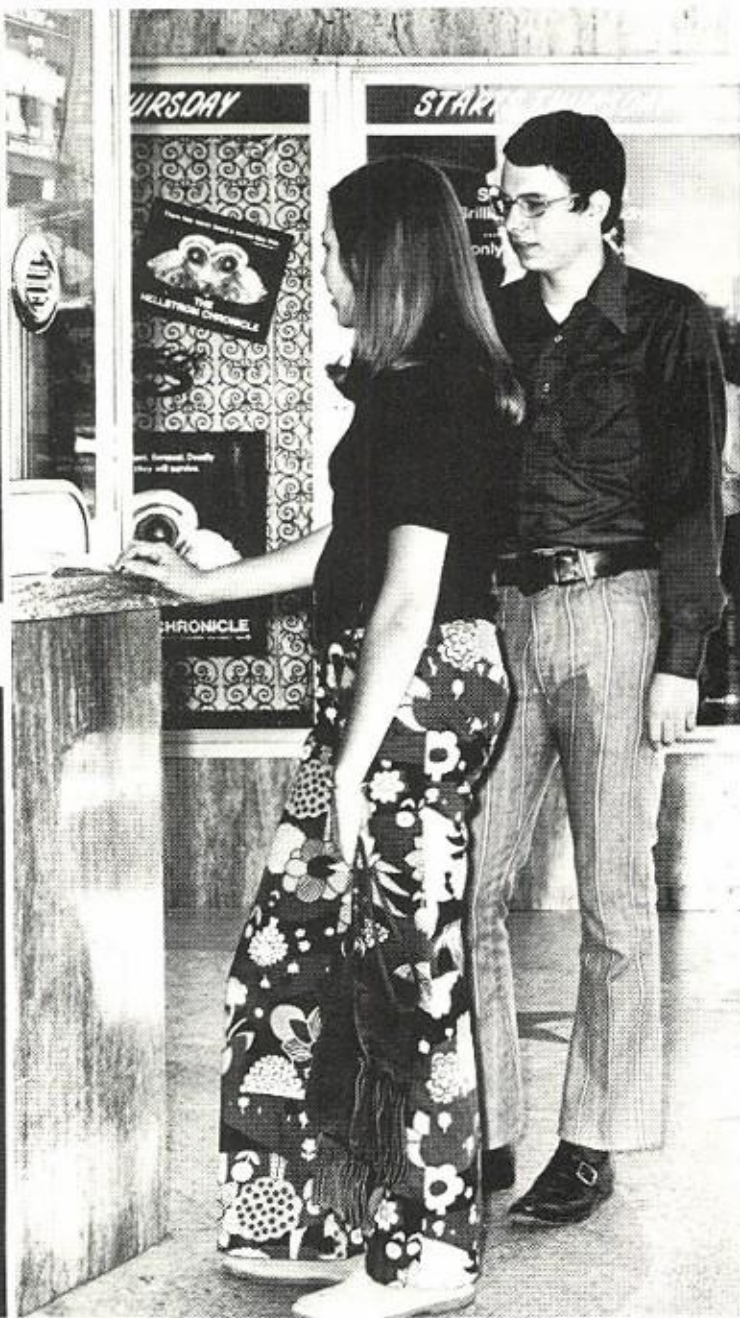

Leads Year

Shawnee High School Student Council had a very successful and outstanding year under the leadership of president Charles Laster. Working together with the student body, Student Council hosted the Oklahoma Association of Student Council convention, this being only one of the many projects. Student Council directed football and basketball coronations, sold Stuckey candy sponsored Twirp week, and sponsored the American Field Service program student, Monica Roeschlin. Student Council sponsors, Ola Mae Clarke, William E. Malone, and Ruth Hodgson did a fine job.

Serving as the 1971-72 Student Council President was Charles Laster. Not only fulfilling his Student Council duties Charlie was sport editor for the Wolves Journal and was a outstanding member of the basketball and tennis team. Charles did a good job and served his school well.

Monica Says Good-Bye

More with my heart than with my pen I would want to write to you a few words to thank you all for this year, the most beautiful of my youth. I want to thank you because you permitted me to integrate myself in this circle of friendship, companionship, work, study, enthusiasm, responsibilities all these things that characterise S.H.S.

As you know A.F.S. slogan is "walk together, work together..." and I am so happy because I could do it with your help-You walked with me and worked with me. I during all my life, I will have things to tell about S.H.S. Shawnee, Oklahoma, the U.S., but more so about you. You, my friends, that received me and accepted me through these twelve months with a lot of love, as much as I ever dreamed to find here.

Here, I leave my happiness, sadness, laughs, smiles, tears, experiences, and emotions that join together to form one of the most interesting times of my life as a young girl.

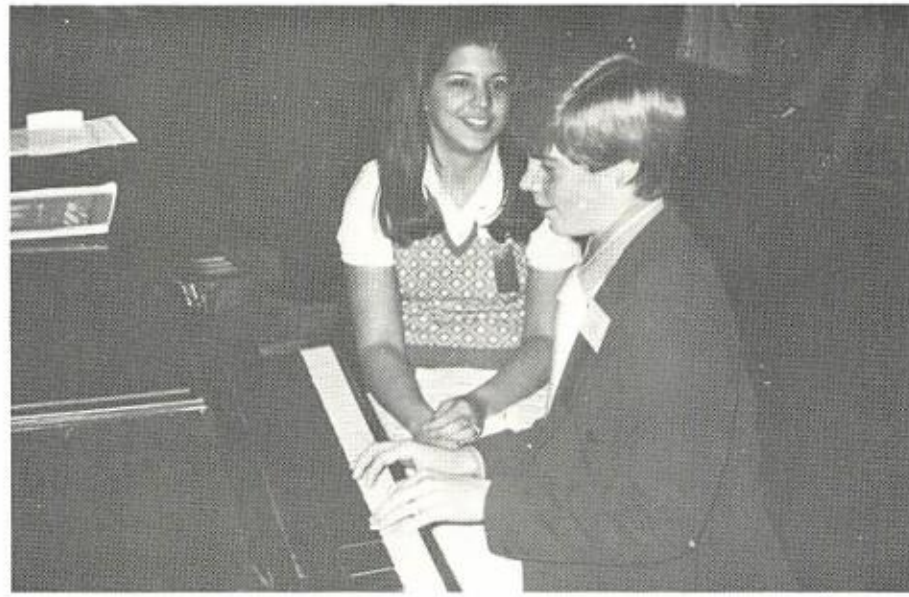

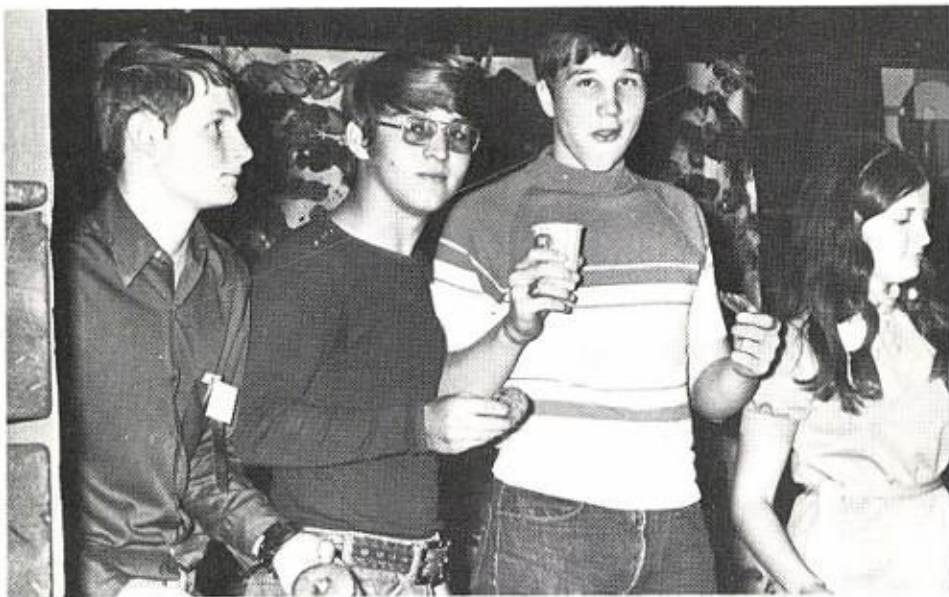

Never forget your Argentine friend. Thank you again, and with this I want to give to all, my good-bye.

With love,

Monica

O.A.S.C...

Oklahoma Association of Student Council had its annual meeting at S.H.S. this year. There were representatives from eighty-six high schools who formed a delegation of four-hundred.

Robert Weaver, State Secretary of O.A.S.C. and Cathy Romberg, Chairman of the convention worked together as a team to make the convention a big success. Many other S.H.S. students also worked hard to help make the convention "the best ever."

Senior Year a Year of Memories

Memories of one's Senior year are more prominent than those of previous years. Seniors will always remember losing to Altus in the State Semifinals. They'll remember graduation and preparations leading up to it such as ordering announcements and measuring for cap and gown. Mrs. Zurmehly and Karen Henson confirm Karen's order.

Being a Senior Is . . .

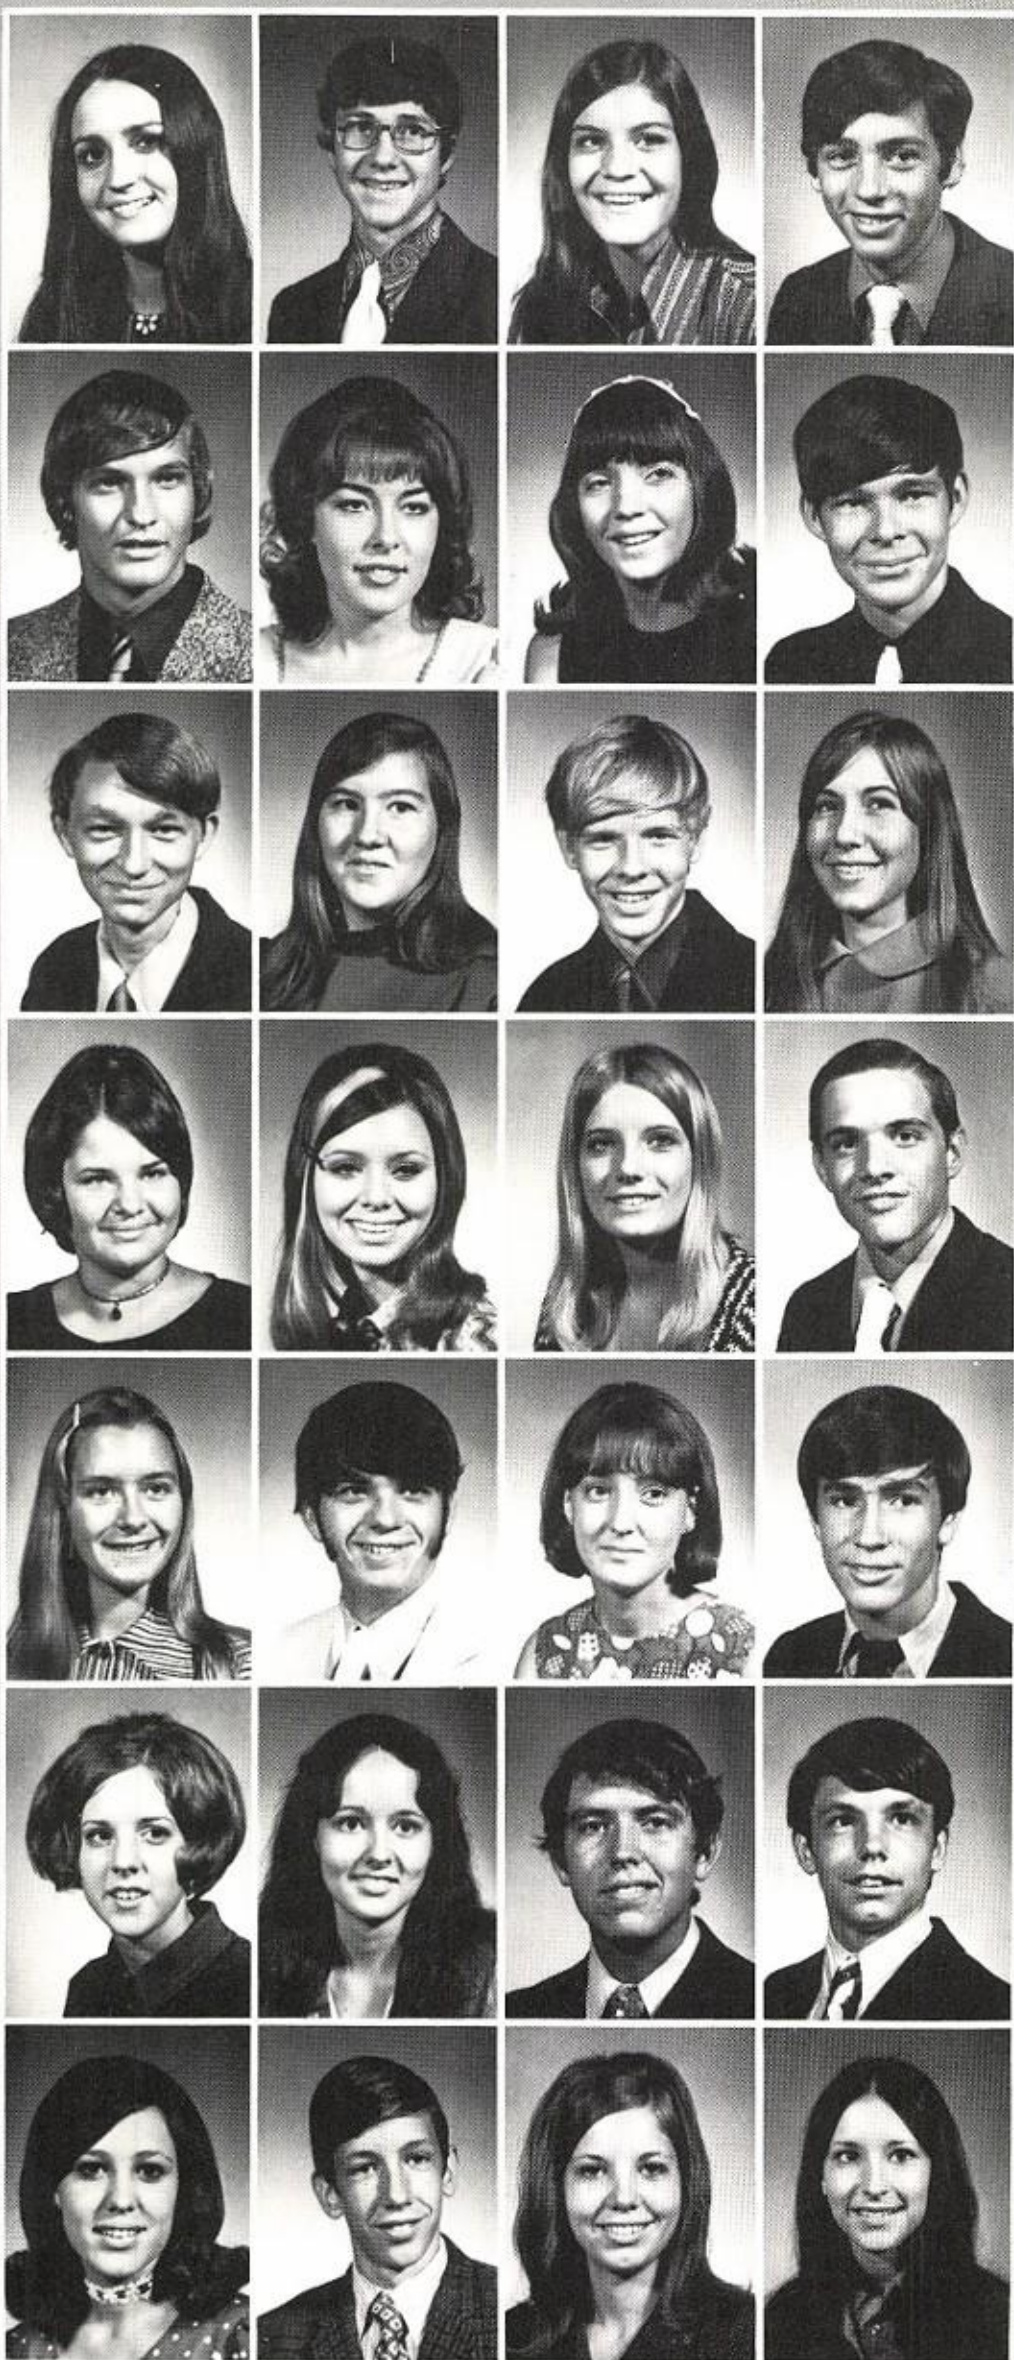

Yelling the loudest at pep assemblies
 . . . counting the days till graduation
 . . . deciding about the future . . .
 anxiety . . . saying "I've finally made it!" . . . hoping . . . not sitting on the bench anymore . . . more fun . . .
 more responsibility . . . getting out in the world . . . getting married . . .
 feeling insecure . . . looking back at twelve long years of hard work . . .
 loneliness . . . realizing how much you've grown up . . . crying when you win and crying when you lose . . .
 measuring for caps and gowns . . . ordering announcements . . . not the end-but a beginning . . . taking government . . . knowing everyone — nearly . . . the last step in a dream . . .
 . . . doing dumb things and getting by with it . . . gathering boxes for the bonfire . . . frustrating — you can't wait to get out, yet you don't want to leave . . . "Don't Drink the Water" . . .
 . . . taking books home and not studying . . . saying "We're Winners!" . . .
 . . . getting the chills when we sing our Alma Mater . . . getting to line the field at football games . . . registering to vote . . . trying for the state championship one last time . . . feeling sorry for Sophomores but still picking on them . . . an accomplishment . . .
 Spirit Brigade . . . learning to think . . . beginning adulthood . . . registering for the draft . . . discovering that Sophomores and Juniors are lucky . . .
 . . . being on the varsity team . . . achievement . . . being accepted by that SPECIAL college . . . picking which pose to use from Senior proofs . . .
 . . . doing what you want — almost . . . being president of Pep Club, Student Council, Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, and every other club . . . being on CALDRON or WOLVES JOURNAL . . .
 . . . wanting out . . . getting to the finish line and finding out you should have slowed down to take in the scenery.

The Action Never Lets up

Days have really been full this year. Every hour seemed to be occupied by some activity. Debbie Harmon and Brent Johnson found that a lot of their spare time was taken up by practicing on their "own things". Jeanmarie Lancaster and Donna Wells can testify that school work is time consuming. But Kathy Svec, Melanie Peters, Janet Segell, Norma Petree, Sandra Moats, and Debbie Pinsker can always find time to back the Wolves.

Young people of today will be the leaders of tomorrow. For that reason there are many positions that high schoolers can strive for that will give them experience in being leaders. Steve Kinnett, assistant drum major, has earned the right to be head drum major next year by working hard this year.

A Junior Is . . .

just one of those things you have to be to be a Senior. It's growing up, maturing. It's an exciting time with a chance to meet new people and do new things. It's getting your class ring and showing it off to everyone. It's being able to go out-of-town and have people know where you go to school. It's pride in your school and in your class. It's the feeling that your class is the best because you're in it. It's the feeling that next year the school will be better because then your class will be Seniors. It's not being able to wait until you can graduate. It's the fun and the rewarding experiences but also the loneliness and the confusion. It's having permission to knock the Sophomores around when they get out of step in Marching Band. It's like being a convict in a prejudiced prison without parole for another year. It's standing in line at lunch while Seniors take cuts. It's being bored in history, tired in math or geometry, and run-over in sports. It's asking out a Sophomore and finding that she's going with a Senior. It's giving the Junior-Senior Reception. It's studying hard but not reaching the top of the ladder. It's being able to do things that Sophomores can't. It's scary, but it's really getting there. It's laughing at how silly you were as a Sophomore and thinking ahead about the future. It's a time for straightening out yourself and finding out where you're going.

Sophomores Rise to New Heights

Sophomore Officers Paula Price, President; Marcia Austin, Vice President; Lisa Henry, Secretary; and Barbara Pinsker, Treasurer, decided this year to have a class project never before used at S.H.S. A sale of helium balloons. It was very successful as the class representatives went through the large crowds at the Wolves' football games and sold their 1000 balloons.

Sophomores Join in Winning Spirit

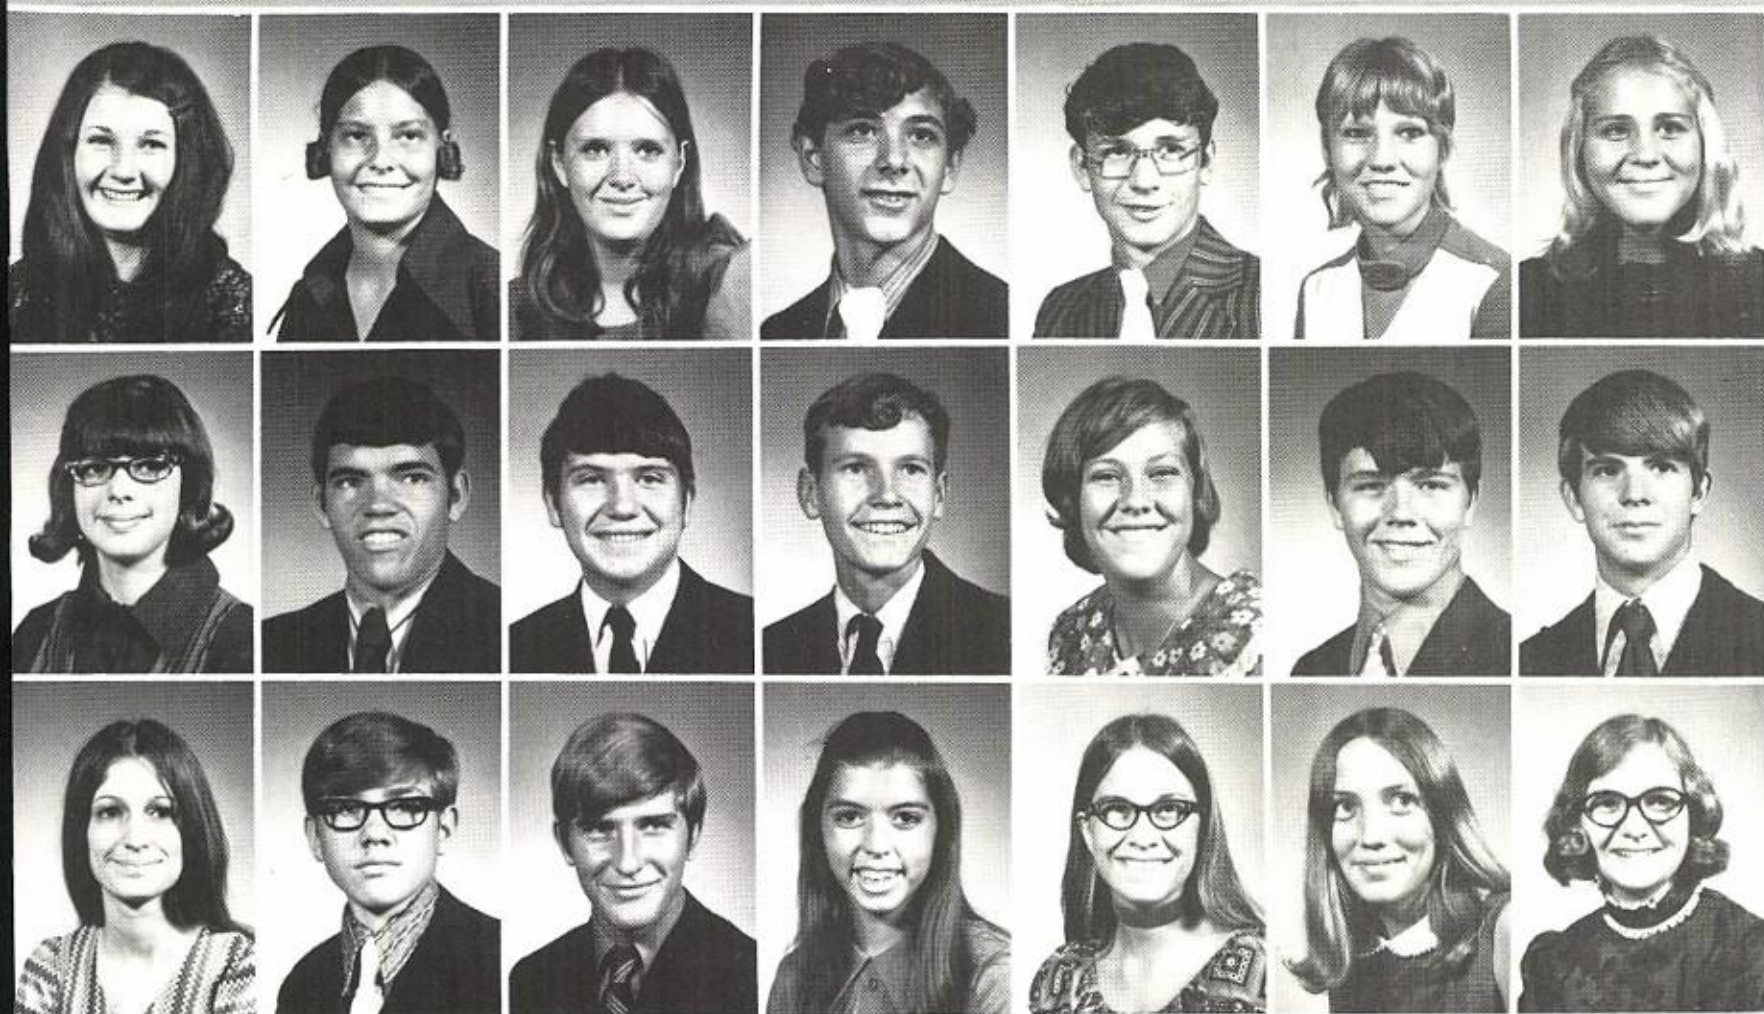

This years Sophomores are showing much interest in displaying School Spirit. Pictured here are Greta Blundell and De Ann McDonald hanging one of the many signs that sophomores participate in making each week. In pep assemblys you always know the sophomores are there; without their supporting spirit our athletic program would be incomplete.

Orientation Was Beginning For Sophomores

The beginning for the sophomores this year was orientation. The new students were taken on a tour of the school by some of the seniors. This helped them get acquainted with the school.

Sophomores Work Hard To Improve

The sophomores this year seem to be trying very hard to improve in all they do. They work hard by studying, as shown by Derell Heck and Andy Carver. Also they work very hard in athletics, clubs, and other school activities.

Being sophomores, we have just come from junior high where we were freshmen and upperclassmen. Now, after entering Shawnee High School, we are considered the underclassmen. To most sophomores, the juniors and seniors are really not very helpful. Many other sophomores find being associated with the older students very rewarding. We watch the older students. We try to better them all the time.

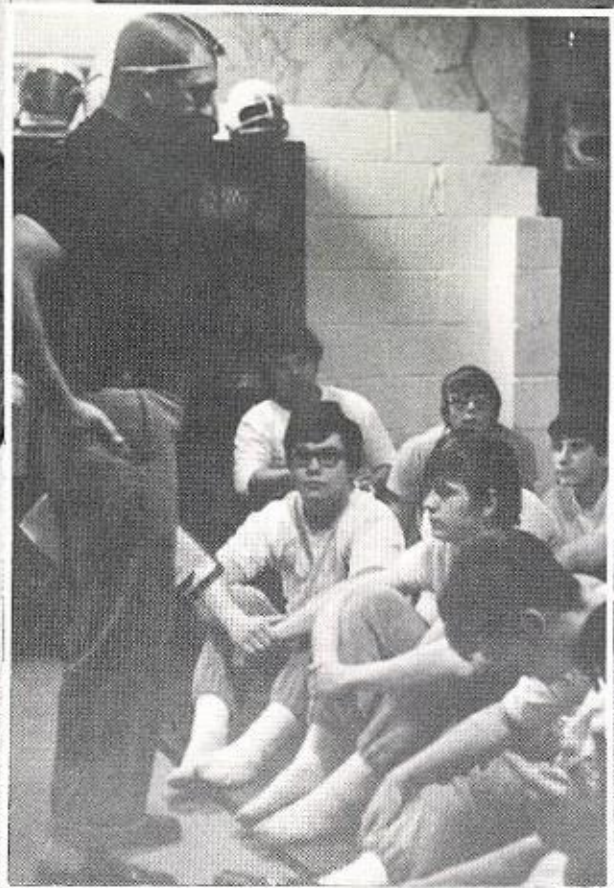

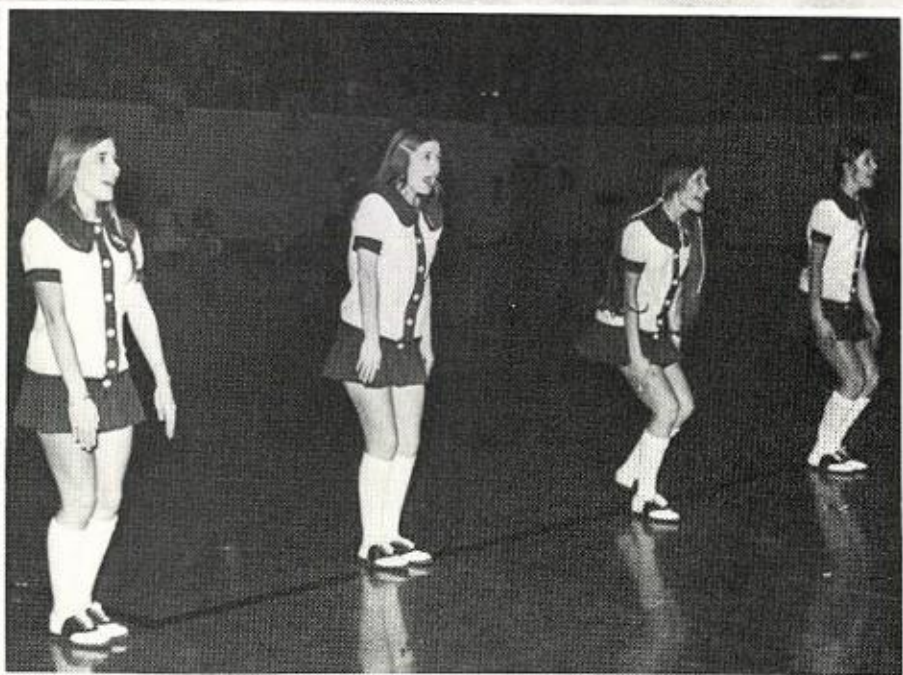

While being the youngest group in school, we seem to be the ones who get blamed for everything and pushed around all the time. We look at it this way; next year somebody else will be in our shoes.

In pep assemblies, the sophomores get put down and ridiculed. This is actually all in fun. The three classes in our school are really just competing against each other to show spirit for the Wolves. The pep assemblies just wouldn't be complete without the sophomores.

We also find, as sophomores, a much larger school and a larger choice of subjects. There are many different people to meet and a much larger curriculum which makes coming to school more fun.

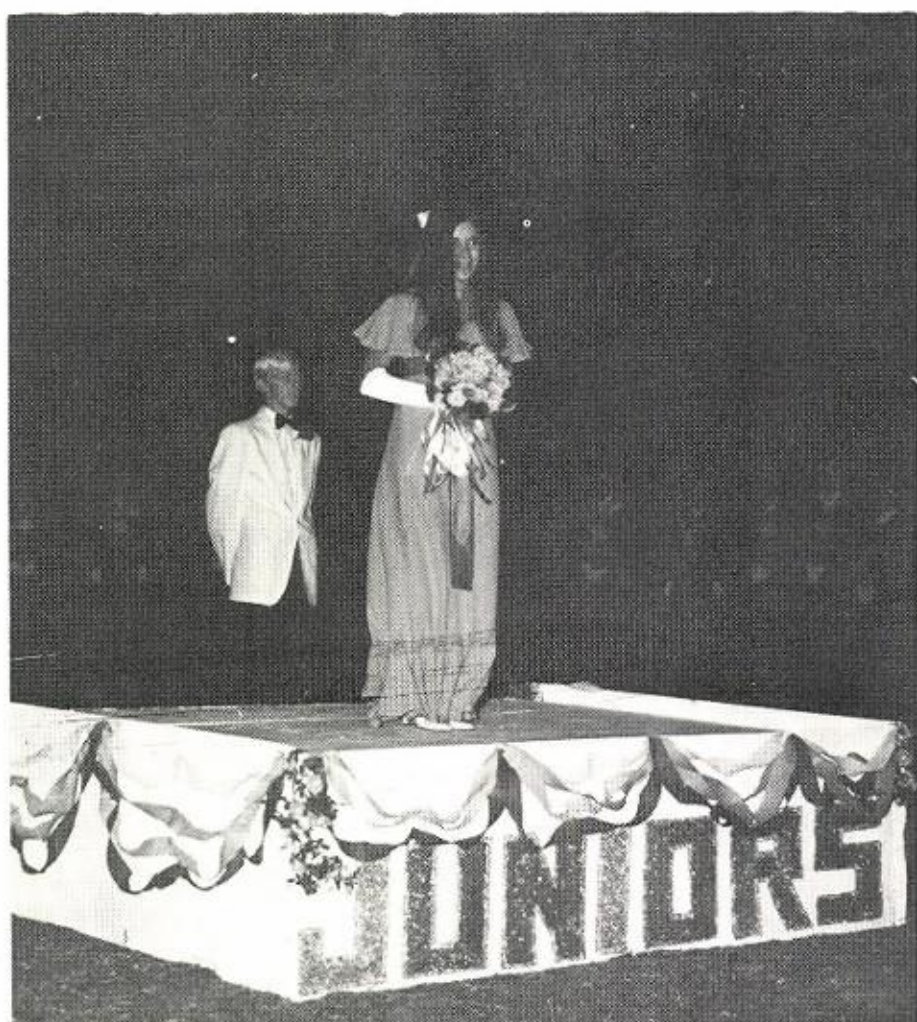

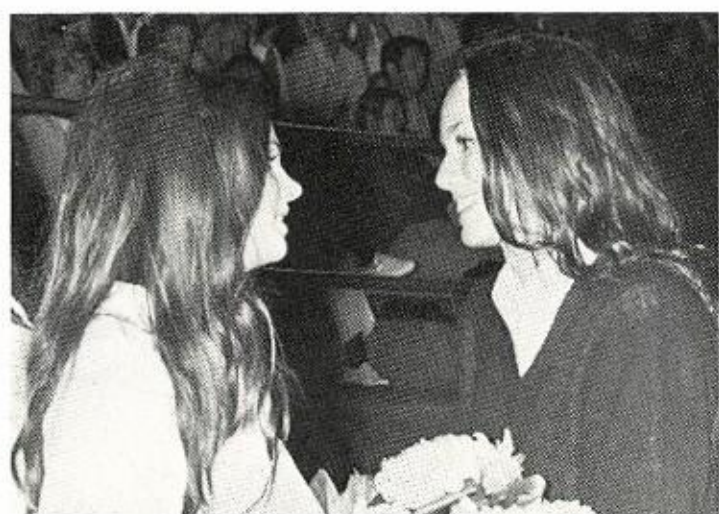

The sophomore teachers are very helpful in understanding problems that we face. The teachers in our sophomore class make learning fun. We have the best sophomore class that Shawnee High has ever had.

Sophomores 1971-72

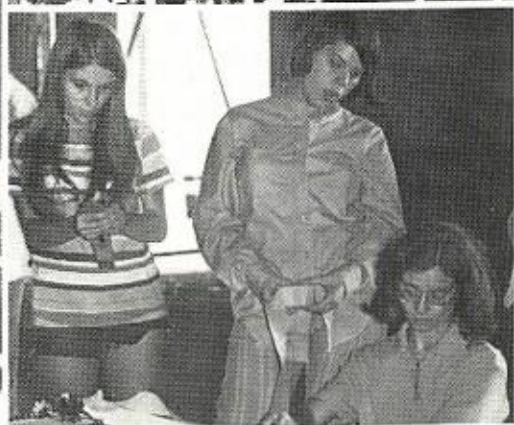

Personalities

Enchanting the crowd of 4,000 in Jim Thorpe Stadium, the 1971 football coronation unfolded. The charm of the southern plantation with its own columned mansion and flower garden was outdone only by the beauty of the SHS football royalty. MONICA ROESCHLIN, our AFS student, opened the door to the mansion to reveal the attendants and queen. First to appear was lovely MARCIA AUSTIN, sophomore attendant, who was escorted by ANDY CARVER. Alluring JEANNIE ROMBERG emerged next as the junior attendant. DAVID POTTER, junior class president, served as her escort. The climax came when vivacious SERITA AUSTIN was crowned the reigning '71-'72 Football Queen of SHS. Her escort was MARK CHESNEY. MARCIA, sophomore attendant, and QUEEN SERITA are sisters. Enhancing the coronation was the elegance of the uncrowned royalty. GRETA BLUNDELL and DEBBIE LOVELAND were the sophomore runners-up, while JUDY GRIFFEN and TERRI McLAUGHLIN were the junior runners-up. Senior uncrowned royalty was GAY WINTERINGER and LESLIE ROBINSON. Before the presentation of the royalty, the pep club filed onto the field making the formation of a carriage that surrounded the three class podiums. Most of the podium workers were junior girls. And MR. MALONE wound up building most of the float himself. But everything was put together and most problems were solved by practice-time Friday morning.

Although all seemed well to those who watched that night behind the scenes a few problems arose. The car that was supposed to hold the queen and her attendants wouldn't start, so they sat with the uncrowned royalty. And the little girl who served as crown bearer got scared and started crying just before she was supposed to go on the field. But, thanks to the skill and hard work of coronation chairman MIGNON ROGERS, our coronation was a tremendous success.

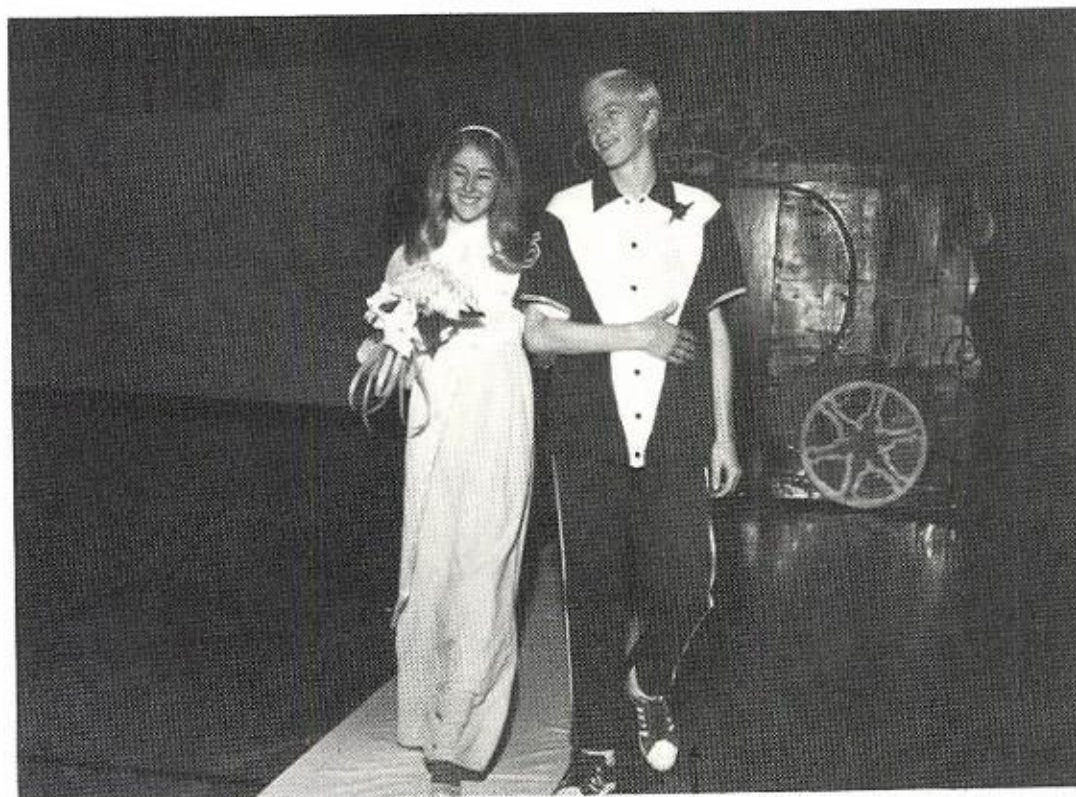

Tantalizing the Wolves' fans in the SHS gymnasium, the 1972 basketball coronation began. Bubbly PAULA PRICE emerged first from the float as she was named sophomore attendant. HARRY HINER served as her escort. Next to appear was demure DEBBIE HARMON. As junior attendant, she was escorted by DAVID POTTER. The highlight of coronation was the crowning of sparkling SHEILA MARZUOLA as the 1972 SHS Basketball Queen. SHEILA was beautiful as she was escorted to the senior podium by class president, ROBERT CAPPS. The glow of excitement also radiated from the uncrowned royalty. BEVERLY McCORMICK and MARLA BALLARD were the sophomore runners-up, while junior runners-up were CLAUDIA HARP and MARGUERITE STEED. MIGNON ROGERS and TERESA SNYDER were the senior uncrowned royalty.

Circus was the unique theme chosen for coronation. By using the three class podiums, the charming effect of a three-ring circus was created. MONICA ROESCHLIN, our AFS student, added to the circus atmosphere by skipping down the gym floor as a clown. Most of the drawings and work on the float were done by the fourth hour art class under the able supervision of coronation chairman, GAY WINTERINGER. Thanks to her planning and dedication our coronation was a fabulous success.

The fans delighted in the many helium-filled balloons that were released at the naming of QUEEN SHEILA. Naturally, though, some balloons just WOULDN'T rise. But this still somehow added to the thrill of coronation. Although some few people thought they could peek, the royalty was escorted into the float in total darkness—keeping everyone in suspense until the final moment. After SHEILA was presented with red roses, our basketball boys finally managed to fasten both the robe and the necklace. Then for the first time, REYNOLDS allowed the Pep Club to go down on the gym floor and offer their tearful congratulations.
